Joan of Arc Gail Patterson,2002 Few individuals in the annals of world history have had so lasting an impact as Joan of Arc who rallied a country behind her and continues to inspire people today Although she began life as a peasant she became a key figure in the latter stages of the Hundred Years War As a teenager she experienced visions from God calling her to aid the French king Her confidence and bearing along with her fervent adherence to God and her Catholic faith belied her age and so influenced the monarch that he made her commander of one of his companies She helped lead the French forces in battle against the English in turn becoming a national icon However she was eventually captured and tried by the English in a trial rife with ecclesiastical and political overtones Convicted as a heretic Joan was sentenced and burned at the stake As a martyr she gained mythic status and the Roman Catholic Church made her a saint in 1920 This book presents a fascinating study of Joan of Arc s life based on excerpts from John A Mooney s gripping 1919 biography The overview is augmented by a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access provided through author title and subject indexes Tales of the Enchanted Islands of the Atlantic Thomas Wentworth Higginson,1899 Hawthorne in his Wonder Book has described the beautiful Greek myths and traditions but no one has yet made similar use of the wondrous tales that gathered for more than a thousand years about the islands of the Atlantic deep Although they are a part of the mythical period of American history these hazy legends were altogether disdained by the earlier historians indeed George Bancroft made it a matter of actual pride that the beginning of the American annals was bare and literal But in truth no national history has been less prosaic as to its earlier traditions because every visitor had to cross the sea to reach it and the sea has always been by the mystery of its horizon the fury of its storms and the variableness of the atmosphere above it the foreordained land of romance Thomas Wentworth Higginson The Dublin University Magazine ,1864 The American Aberdeen-Angus Herd-book American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association,1917 Mythology Libby Strain-Thomas,Babette Kraft,Torrey Malek,Duane Horton,Deirdre Maher,Patrick Riley,M.K.
