Other Voices: Hidden Histories of Liverpool's Popular Music Scenes, 1930s-1970s Michael Brocken, 2016-05-23

At times it appears that a whole industry exists to perpetuate the myth of origin of the Beatles. There certainly exists a popular music or perhaps rock origin myth concerning this group and the city of Liverpool and this draws in devotees as if on a pilgrimage to Liverpool itself. Once within the city local businesses exist primarily to escort these pilgrims around several almost iconic spaces and places associated with the group. At times it all almost seems spiritual. One might argue however that like any function myth the music history of the Liverpool in which the Beatles grew and then departed is not fully represented. Beatles historians and businessmen alike have seized upon myriad musical experiences and reworked them into a discourse that homogenizes not only the diverse collective articulations that initially put them into place but also the receptive practices of those travellers willing to listen to a somewhat linear exclusive narrative. Other Voices therefore exists as a history of the disparate and now partially hidden musical strands that contributed to Liverpool's musical countenance. It is also a critique of Beatles related institutionalized popular music mythology. Via a critical historical investigation of several thus far partially hidden popular music activities in pre and post Second World War Liverpool, Michael Brocken reveals different yet intrinsic musical and socio cultural processes from within the city of Liverpool. By addressing such scenes as those involving dance bands, traditional jazz, folk music, country and western and rhythm and blues together with a consideration of partially hidden key places and individuals and Liverpool's first real record label, an assemblage of other voices bears witness to an other seldom discussed Liverpool. By doing so, Brocken, born and raised in Liverpool, asks questions about not only the historicity of the Beatles Liverpool narrative but also about the absence of Liverpool - Wondrous Place Paul Du Noyer, 2012-03-31. No other city in the world is as well known or loved for its vibrant and definitive musical history as Liverpool. In 2002 Guinness World Records British Hit Singles voted Liverpool World Capital of Pop, recognising that Liverpool's homegrown talent has produced more number one hit singles per capita than anywhere else in the world. In 2008 Liverpool will celebrate its crown as European Capital of Culture. Paul Du Noyer's acclaimed book takes us on a tour of the rich musical history of his hometown from the world famous Cavern Club in Mathew Street, host to the Beatles debut performance in 1961, to the city's musical future with contemporary bands like The Zutons. Featuring interviews with key figures of the music scene, this book reveals the creative impulse behind Britain's most musical city. Find out why Liverpool is not just a place where music happens. The city is the reason music happens. Voices from the Titanic Geoff Tibballs, 2012-01-19. The graphic first hand story of the first voyage and disastrous sinking of RMS Titanic told by the survivors themselves. The story of the sinking of the great liner Titanic has been told countless times since that fateful night on 14th April 1912 by historians, novelists and film producers alike but no account is as graphic or revealing as those who were actually there. Through survivors' tales and contemporary newspaper reports from both sides of the Atlantic here are eye witness accounts full of details that range from poignant to humorous stage by stage from the Liner's glorious launch in Belfast to the sombre sea burial services of those who perished on her first and only voyage In the book the voices of the survivors record their own stories as well as the official records press reports and investigations into what went wrong that night

Tracing Your Liverpool Ancestors Mike Royden, 2010-03-10 Tracing Your Liverpool Ancestors gives a fascinating insight into everyday life in the Liverpool area over the past four centuries Aimed primarily at the family and social historian Mike Royden's highly readable guide introduces readers to the wealth of material available on the city's history and its people In a series of short information packed chapters he describes in vivid detail the rise of Liverpool through shipping manufacturing and trade from the original fishing village to the cosmopolitan metropolis of the present day Throughout he concentrates on the lives of the local people on their experience as Liverpool developed around them He looks at their living conditions at poverty and the laboring poor at health and the ravages of disease at the influence of religion and migration at education and the traumatic experience of war He shows how the lives of Liverpudlians changed over the centuries and how this is reflected in the records that have survived His useful book is a valuable tool for anyone researching the history of the city or the life of an individual ancestor

Merseypride John Belchem, 2006 With a new introduction that takes account of the extraordinary renaissance that Liverpool is currently enjoying the second edition of this collection by one of the leading scholars of the city's history offers a timely and perceptive examination of the origins and persistence of Liverpool's exceptionalism

Text and Drugs and Rock 'n' Roll Simon Warner, 2013-03-14 Text and Drugs and Rock n Roll explores the interaction between two of the most powerful socio cultural movements in the post war years the literary forces of the Beat Generation and the musical energies of rock and its attendant culture Simon Warner examines the interweaving strands seeded by the poet novelists Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg William Burroughs and others in the 1940s and 1950s and cultivated by most of the major rock figures who emerged after 1960 Bob Dylan the Beatles Bowie the Clash and Kurt Cobain to name just a few This fascinating cultural history delves into a wide range of issues Was rock culture the natural heir to the activities of the Beats Were the hippies the Beats of the 1960s What attitude did the Beat writers have towards musical forms and particularly rock music How did literary works shape the consciousness of leading rock music makers and their followers Why did Beat literature retain its cultural potency with later rock musicians who rejected hippie values How did rock musicians use the material of Beat literature in their own work How did Beat figures become embroiled in the process of rock creativity These questions are addressed through a number of approaches the influence of drugs the relevance of politics the effect of religious and spiritual pursuits the rise of the counter culture the issue of sub cultures and their construction and so on The result is a highly readable history of the innumerable links between two of the most revolutionary artistic movements of the last 60 years Red Men John Williams,2011-04-01 In Red Men a unique and exhaustively researched history of Liverpool Football Club John Williams explores the origins and divisive politics of football in the city of Liverpool and profiles the key men behind the emergence of the club and its early successes The first great Liverpool manager Tom Watson piloted the club to its first league championships in 1901 and 1906 before taking the club to the FA Cup final in 1914 Watson and the key members of those early Liverpool teams are analysed in depth as is the role of the club and its fans in the city as Merseyside balanced self improvement and cosmopolitanism with almost unimaginable problems of poverty Liverpool secured consecutive league titles in 1922 and 1923 with the incomparable goalkeeper Elisha Scott as its totemic star and the darling of the Kop In the 20s Liverpool was also the first British club to internationalise its playing staff The club s next league title came in 1947 but in the bleak 50s the Liverpool board ruled with an iron fist and controlled the purse strings until Bill Shankly arrived and won that elusive first FA Cup in 1965 The recent tragedies that have shaped the club s contemporary identity are also covered here as are the new Continental influences at Liverpool and of course the glory of Istanbul in 2005 Red Men is the definitive history of a remarkable football club from its formation in 1892 to the present day told in the wider context of the social and cultural development of the city of Liverpool and its people Liverpool Paul Du Noyer,2002 Even before it gave us the Beatles Liverpool produced the first true rock n roll star to be born outside America Billy Fury There has been a stream of star names ever since from the Merseybeat time of the Beatles Cilla Black and the Searchers to Echo and the Bunnymen Elvis Costello Frankie Goes To Hollywood The La s The Lightning Seeds and Atomic Kitten Liverpool even rules the dance floor through its very own super club Cream Cargo of Eagles Margery Allingham,2023-04-28 A lively British mystery from one of the greatest mid 20th century practitioners of the detective novel Alexander McCall Smith Strange things are happening in Saltey The little village on the Essex coast is invaded by bikers and a parade of peculiar visitors a newly released prisoner is rumored to be in the area Mr Lugg has bought a bungalow there the Saltey Demon is on the loose again and Albert Champion is looking for the disappearance of thousands of pounds of gold coinage This is Margery Allingham s final novel featuring her famous gentleman sleuth overflowing with evil arch villains and classic thuggery against the atmospheric backdrop of postwar England Allingham has that rare gift in a novelist the creation of characters so rich and so real that they stay with the reader forever Sara Paretsky

Margery Allingham stands out like a shining light Agatha Christie RED AND WHITE LOVE Mustafa Dönmez,2024-10-02 The year 1892 is the birthdate of a football giant one of the rare legends of the 21st century that does not smell of blood and tears It is the year when a club writing a history that should not only be read but also memorized said hello to the world Shortly after its founding it became the nightmare of all national league teams and then all of world football There was hardly a team it did not beat hardly a rival fan it did not sadden In 125 years it won 18 league championships 5 European cups 7 FA cups 8 league cups 3 UEFA Super Cups 15 Charity Shield Cups and 3 FA Youth Cups As the club gained success its coffers filled and its fans grew in number It captured the hearts of approximately 600 million people worldwide its name and song were on the lips of its fans every day Joy and sorrow night and day death and life always follow each other just like victory and defeat From the early 1990s the club ship began to take on water As it slowly lost its strength and its rivals grew stronger its popularity both in its own league and around the world began to wane Executives became unhappy fans hopeless and the team tense Derby victories won from time to time were just consolation prizes for the fans Fans who wanted to be happy now either delved into nostalgic memories or childlike dreams However its love never ended and will never end Because it is not just a football club it is an excitement a desire to win a passion and a love Yes it is a love and that love is red and white And this book is written to express the expectations and dreams of those in love with the red and white colors and is a message thrown into the ocean of the future in a bottle Will the bottle reach a shore will those living on the shore find the bottle and read the message inside will the words in the message mean anything to the reader No one knows this Fleet Air Arm Boys Steve Bond,2023-09-14 Steve Bond is back with the final volume in this popular series Unlike his previous three tomes with their focus on aircraft and rotorcraft this book is uniquely dedicated to the personnel of the Fleet Air Arm FAA themselves Each chapter will concentrate on the memories of contributors who served in a range of roles including those below the flight deck Accounts will focus on the everyday life upon an aircraft carrier as well as the extraordinary challenges faced during operations There is a fascinating chapter covering exchange services with the RAF and other navies including the French and US and also insight into the Indian navy s experience with the Sea Hawk and Sea Harrier Within the previous volumes we met some true characters and there is a chapter devoted to people s memories of them The closing section entitled Thoughts sees contributors reflect on their FAA career with many deeply moving responses and discourses on the future of the service The book is heavily illustrated throughout in color and black and white with personal photographs from the contributors artwork and tongue in cheek cartoons for which the FAA is famous Volume Four is the perfect conclusion to the ongoing post war story of a truly astounding branch of the armed forces A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry, 1960 - 2015 Wolfgang Gortschacher,David Malcolm,2020-12-10 A comprehensive and scholarly review of contemporary British and Irish Poetry With contributions from noted scholars in the field A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960 2015 offers a collection of writings from a diverse group of experts They explore the richness of individual poets genres forms techniques traditions concerns and institutions that comprise these two distinct but interrelated national poetries Part of the acclaimed Blackwell Companion to Literature and Culture series this book contains a comprehensive survey of the most important contemporary Irish and British poetry The contributors provide new perspectives and positions on the topic This important book Explores the institutions histories and receptions of contemporary Irish and British poetry Contains contributions from leading scholars of British and Irish poetry Includes an analysis of the most prominent Irish and British poets Puts contemporary Irish and British poetry in context Written for students and academics of contemporary poetry A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960 2015 offers a comprehensive review of contemporary poetry from a wide range of diverse contributors

Liverpool: The Hurricane Port Andrew Lees,2013-03-22 Scousers believe they live in a special place one that has more in common with Salvador da Bahia New Orleans or Gdansk than anywhere in England and the city has always punched above its weight In less than a hundred years however Liverpool s image has declined from a major mercantile player known as the Second City of the Empire to what some social commentators have described as a cultural backwater remembered largely as the place where the Beatles were born In Liverpool The Hurricane Port Andrew Lees reveals how Liverpool s pre eminence in the slave trade left an indelible scar on the psychogeography of the city He also explores the roots of Liverpool s contrary nature its rebelliousness and its hedonism as well as some of the recent hurricanes that have battered the city including the anger of Toxteth the Hillsborough disaster and the murder of James Bulger In this distinctly personal account Lees defines the characteristics of this Celtic enclave with her loudmouthed big hearted people who have created a city quite different from anywhere else in the world

The Mersey Mistress Sheila Riley,2021-04-06 The start of a new gripping family saga series from Liverpool's very own bestselling author Sheila Riley. Everyone needs a good Samaritan, especially on Christmas Eve. Liverpool Docks 1910. Ruby Swift is a hard-working straight-talking woman of substance who does not suffer fools gladly. But when tragedy strikes on a bitter Christmas Eve, Ruby and her beloved husband Archie take matters into their own hands when a trusted employee's house is mysteriously engulfed by flames and lives are lost. Orphaned by the fire, Ruby welcomes heartbroken sixteen-year-old Anna Cassidy into her home but is unable to save Anna's twelve-year-old brother Sam, who is sent by the Church to Canada as a Homeboy. Can Ruby help mend a broken heart and can these two children ever be reunited, or is there another higher game in play?

Mersey Mistress takes you on a journey to another time, another place. From the banks of the River Mersey to the frozen waters of the Canadian Saint Lawrence River. Perfect for fans of Chrissie Walsh, Katie Flynn, and Dilly Court. If you love Mersey Mistress, you'll love Reckoners Row and the Dockside Saga series. Catch the epic next book Mersey Angels, available now. Praise for Sheila Riley: This author knows the Liverpool she writes about masterly storytelling from a true Mersey Mistress. Lizzie Lane. A thoroughly enjoyable powerful novel. Lyn Andrews. Loved it. Love all of Sheila Reilly's books. Good down to earth stories about real people. Can't wait to read the next book in the series. Reader Review. An enchanting warm and deeply touching story. Cathy Sharp. Liked this book very much. Interesting right from the beginning which I like. Kept me wanting to read more every day. Can't wait for the next book in the saga. Reader Review. What a great read from this amazing author. You don't want to put this book down. Thoroughly enjoyed it from start to finish. Reader Review. A powerful and totally absorbing family saga that is not to be missed. I turned the pages almost faster than I could read. Carol Rivers. This book was everything I love in a read. Historical drama at its best. Set in Liverpool depicting the tasking way of life around the set of WW1. Reader Review. A fabulous story of twists and turns, a totally unputdownable page-turner that had me cheering on the characters. I loved it. Rosie Hendry.

The voice of many waters Frances Osborne, 1848 Design Culture in Liverpool 1888-1914 Christopher Crouch, 1999-04-01

By the 1930s the Liverpool School of Architecture was the most famous British school of architecture in the world, promoting modern architecture and city planning internationally. This book looks at the cultural environment in Liverpool at the turn of the twentieth century, which enabled such an important institution to come to fruition. It examines attitudes towards design practice through the work of patrons, practitioners, institutions, and theorists in the city and considers the way their ideas were formed by national and international trends. From a city microcosm of contesting design aesthetics emerged a unique synthesis that was to exert a profound international influence in architectural and planning design.
