Peake, Hilary Spurling, 1974-01-01 Miracle Enough William Gray, Peter Winnington, 2014-09-18 To mark the centenary of Mervyn Peake's birth the Sussex Centre for Folklore Fairy Tales and Fantasy University of Chichester organized an international conference in July 2011 entitled Mervyn Peake and the Fantasy Tradition Papers were presented by scholars artists and writers from all over the world and here we have a selection of them No other comparable collection of essays on Peake has ever been published The contributors take a wide variety of approaches to Peake's work The Craft of the Lead Pencil Mervyn Peake, 1946 Postmodern Existentialism in Mervyn Peake's Titus Books Lauren R. Moss, 2010-07-05 Much of the discussion about Peake's Titus Books has been about how to place them in the lexicon of English literature I am proposing that these books should be read as works of postmodern existentialism Both postmodern theory and existential theory are interested in the same issues such as the loss of grand narratives the rejection of totalizing world views the subjectivity of truth the nature of one's existence and the search for meaning in an increasingly incomprehensible world Societal issues such as political upheaval the growth of major cities war and advances in science and technology have led both postmodern and existentialist thinkers to view the world as chaotic and intrinsically unknowable and man's place within that world as increasingly unstable All of these concerns are addressed in Peake's texts Peake's novels reflect the existential struggle of its hero Titus Groan to break free of the Hegelian world view represented by Gormenghast and its traditions and into a world in which he is free to be an individual and to find his own truth Peake uses images of solitude and extreme isolation to represent the essential human condition as conceived by existentialist philosophers like Kierkegaard and Nietzsche It is when they are alone that his characters are truly free to be themselves without the social constraints imposed by the history and traditions of the castle Titus's rebellion against Gormenghast represents the rejection of totalizing world views a rejection found at the heart of postmodernism and existentialism Incredulity toward mass society and culture are also central issues in postmodernism and existentialism Nietzsche who is claimed by both existentialists and postmodernists as a forerunner of their respective philosophies claimed that God is dead a belief reflected in the distinct absence of God from the Titus books instead God is replaced by the ritual of Gormenghast In Titus Alone He is replaced by technology This also demonstrates the distrust felt by existentialists and postmodernists alike of a mass society in which the individual is consumed and becomes simply a part of the faceless crowd Peake expresses a deep suspicion of technology and scientific advancement a distinctly postmodern suspicion that was not uncommon among writers after the second World War By examining closely the concepts and themes associated with both postmodern and existential theory it is clear that Peake's

Titus Books are deeply concerned with both philosophies Though Peake does not successfully answer the philosophical questions his novels pose it is significant that his work attempts to do so Drawings of Mervyn Peake Mervyn Peake,Schocken Books Inc,Hilary Spurling,1999-11-01 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English Harry Blamires,2021-06-23 First published in 1983 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is a detailed and comprehensive guide containing over 500 entries on individual writers from countries including Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean India Ireland New Zealand Pakistan Sri Lanka and the UK The book contains substantial articles relating to major novelists poets and dramatists of the age as well as a wealth of information on the work of lesser known writers and the part they have played in cultural history It focuses in detail on the character and quality of the literature itself highlighting what is distinctive in the work of the writers being discussed and providing key biographical and contextual details A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is ideal for those with an interest in the twentieth century literary scene and the history of literature more broadly Belsen Joanne Reilly,1998 The military and medical liberation and British government and British population response to the disclosure of what occurred at Belsen Maps and Mapping in Children's Literature Nina Goga,Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer,2017-08-15 Maps and Mapping in Children s Literature is the first comprehensive study that investigates the representation of maps in children s books as well as the impact of mapping on the depiction of landscapes seascapes and cityscapes in children s literature The chapters in this volume pursue a comparative approach as they represent a wide spectrum of diverse genres and national children s literatures by examining a wealth of children s books from Canada Denmark Germany Italy Norway Russia the United Kingdom and the USA The theoretical and methodological approaches range from literary studies developmental psychology maps and geography literacy ecocriticism historical contextualization with both new historicist and political historical leanings and intermediality to materialist cartographies cultural studies island studies and genre studies By this this volume aims at embedding children s literature in a broader field of literary and cultural studies thus situating children s literature research within a general context of literary theory Paratexts James Gunn,2013-04-18 In the mid 1980s Easton Press began publishing a series of leather bound collector editions called Masterpieces of Science Fiction and Masterpieces of Fantasy which featured some of the most important works in these genres James Gunn was commissioned to write introductions to these works which allowed him to pay tribute to many authors who inspired and influenced his own work In Paratexts Introductions to Science Fiction and Fantasy Gunn has collected the most significant essays produced for the Easton series along with prefaces he wrote for reprints of his own novels Cited here are some of the most significant works of 19th and 20th century science fiction and fantasy such as The Island of Dr Moreau 1984 Stranger in a Strange Land A Clockwork Orange Speaker for the Dead The Postman Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep The Hitchhiker s Guide to the Universe The Dead Zone The Mists of Avalon Dragon s Eye Nine Princes in Amber Blue Mars The Last Unicorn and The Lord of the Rings Drawing upon Gunn s lifetime of

With Drawings by Mervyn Peake. [A Poem.] Quentin CRISP, Mervyn Peake, 1943 Reading the Ruins Leo Mellor, 2011-09-15 From fires to ghosts and from flowers to surrealist apparitions the bombsites of London were both unsettling and inspiring terrains Yet throughout the years prior to the Second World War British culture was already filled with ruins and fragments They appeared as content with visions of tottering towers and scraps of paper and also as form in the shapes of broken poetics But from the outbreak of the Second World War what had been an aesthetic mode began to resemble a proleptic template During that conflict many modernist writers such as Graham Greene Louis MacNeice David Jones J F Hendry Elizabeth Bowen T S Eliot and Rose Macaulay engaged with devastated cityscapes and the altered lives of a nation at war To understand the potency of the bombsites both in the Second World War and after Reading the Ruins brings together poetry novels and short stories as well as film and visual art
