Paraguayan Musical Nationalism in the Symphonies of Florentín Giménez Alfredo Colman, 2025-09-30

This study of the music and career of Florentín Giménez discusses the various ways in which he expressed his Paraguayan cultural identity and musical nationalism through his symphonies. Florentín Giménez 1925-2021 stands as one of the most prolific Paraguayan composers of both concert and folk music style works. Colman argues that not only Giménez's musical nationalism was a lens to reflect an ideal Paraguayan cultural identity but indeed a means to develop it. Topics are approached with a threefold goal in mind to provide a biography of the composer to consider the various cultural themes associated with his compositions and to give an overview of his symphonies. A chronological list of his compositions including the dates of their premieres soloists ensembles and conductors appears in the Appendix as a reference guide

The Fragmented Novel in Mexico Carol Clark D'Lugo, 2010-01-01 From Mariano Azuela's 1915 novel Los de abajo to Rosamarie Roffiel's Amora of 1989 fragmented narrative has been one of the defining features of innovative Mexican fiction in the twentieth century. In this innovative study Carol Clark D'Lugo examines fragmentation as a literary strategy that reflects the social and political fissures within modern Mexican society and introduces readers to a more participatory reading of texts. D'Lugo traces defining moments in the development of Mexican fiction and the role fragmentation plays in each. Some of the topics she covers are nationalist literature of the 1930s and 1940s, self-referential novels of the 1950s that focus on the process of reading and writing the works of Carlos Fuentes, novels of La Onda that came out of rebellious 1960s Mexican youth culture, gay and lesbian fiction and recent women's writings. With its sophisticated theoretical methodology that encompasses literature and society, this book serves as an admirable survey of the twentieth century Mexican novel. It will be important reading for students of Latin American culture and history as well as literature.

1902: La magia del cine Juan Felipe Leal y Eduardo Barraza, Eduardo Barraza, 2014-12-12 En 1902 cuando se colocó la primera piedra de la columna de los héroes de la Independencia el México porfiriano de estilo y gusto tan afrancesados veía crecer una vez más un entretenimiento todavía novedoso el cinematógrafo nacido en París en 1895. En aquel contexto un pionero francés Carlos Mongrand hizo una verdadera profesión de sus actividades como exhibidor. A las artes del ilusionismo y la prestidigitación Mongrand sumó el arte de las relaciones públicas y con ellas y sus equipos a cuestas venció la orografía mexicana. Los autores del presente volumen enriquecido con nueva información y datos narran la forma en que Mongrand llevó por el país a día de hoy un deslumbrante espectáculo de las imágenes en movimiento y fue así precursor de la cultura cinematográfica en el país. Por Mongrand los espectadores accedieron a vistas de actualidades como la guerra en China, los desastres naturales en la Martinica o la coronación de Alfonso XIII en España. Paralelamente las mentes ilustradas disertaban sobre dos aspectos fundamentales del cine: Sus posibilidades para la preservación de la historia viva por la inmortalidad de las imágenes y la facultad del cinematógrafo para revivir la historia a través de filmes como Juana de Arco o La pasión de Cristo. El primer aspecto recuperaba una idea precursora de 1898 del polaco Boleslaw Matuszewski respecto al cine como una nueva fuente de la historia y lo que en el futuro sería en las cinematotecas. La segunda cuestión seminal para la reflexión sobre la forma en que el cine refiere la historia nos remite también al hecho de que en un proceso cultural como el cine está implicada la creación de objetos para los sujetos y la creación de sujetos consumidores usuarios espectadores en fin para los nuevos productos. Mongrand y los pioneros referidos en este volumen contribuyeron a crear los públicos de un nuevo espectáculo y un nuevo proceso de comunicación social. Los espectadores se adentraban por los mundos de la fantasía con filmes como Las mil y una
