Metaphor And Metonymy In Comparison And Contrast:

Metaphor and Metonymy in Comparison and Contrast René Dirven, Ralf Pörings, 2002 The book elaborates one of Roman Jakobson's many brilliant ideas i.e. his insight that the two cognitive strategies of the metaphoric and the metonymic are the end points on a continuum of conceptualization processes This elaboration is achieved on the background of Lakoff and Johnson's twodomain approach i.e. the mapping of a source onto a target domain of conceptualization Further approaches dwell on different stretches of this metaphor metonymy continuum Still other papers probe into the specialized conceptual division of labor associated with both modes of thought Two new breakthroughs in the cognitive linguistics approach to metaphor and metonymy have recently been developed one is the three domain approach which concentrates on the new blends that become possible after the integration or the blending of source and target domain elements the other is the approach in terms of primary scenes and subscenes which often determine the way source and target domains interact

Metaphor, Metonymy and Lexicogenesis Andrew Goatly, 2024-11-15 This book investigates the interaction between new English lexis and metaphor metonymy figures meticulously defined and contrasted in terms of similarity contiguity It advances three main hypotheses i derived lexis is more likely to be figurative in meaning and usage than the bases from which it is derived ii derivation obscures the figurative origins of this lexis to varying degrees depending on differing processing strategies iii lexicalisation is determined by Relevance in Sperber and Wilson's sense to the needs of a culture or its powerful interest groups where culture following Norman Fairclough is characterised as an ensemble of recognised action discourse genres This volume is distinctive in exploring the relations between grammar and metonymy and providing numerous examples of metaphorical and metonymic lexis as it reflects society's changing needs and contested ideologies

Studies in Figurative Thought and Language Angeliki Athanasiadou, 2017-04-26 This volume contains original research and innovative analyses that deepen our understanding of figurative thought and language The selected papers focus on the multi-faceted aspect of figuration its function in thought and its impact on areas of grammar and communication Key topics explored include metaphor metonymy and their relationship to each other as well as the less studied figure of hyperbole and its relation to the fundamental figures of metaphor and metonymy Collectively the papers examine the pragmatic reasoning processes triggered by figurative thought the lexicogrammatical motivations and/or constraints on figurative language the impact of deeply entrenched figurative thought on the lexicon of natural languages the cultural origins of figurative thought and the psycholinguistic motivations for figuration The comprehensive treatment of these issues is fundamental for future research on figurative thought and language particularly on questions of universality vs specificity of figuration the impact of figuration on constructions cross-linguistic comparisons of figurative language and cognitive pragmatic approaches to figurative meaning

The ^AOxford Handbook of Cognitive Linguistics Dirk Geeraerts, Hubert Cuyckens, 2010-06-09 The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Linguistics presents a comprehensive overview of the main theoretical concepts and descriptive theoretical models of Cognitive Linguistics and covers its various subfields theoretical as well as applied

Multimodal Metaphor Charles Forceville, Eduardo Urios-Aparisi, 2009 Metaphor pervades discourse and may govern how we think and act But most studies only discuss its verbal varieties This book examines metaphors drawing on combinations of visuals language gestures sound and music Investigated texts include ad

Cognitive Modelling in Language and Discourse across Cultures Annalisa Baicchi, Erica Pinelli, 2017-08-21 This volume deals with core issues in figurative language and figurative thought It also explores areas of convergence between idealised cognitive models and language across fourteen European and non-European languages Croatian English German Greek Italian Japanese Persian Polish Russian Old Saxon Sicilian Spanish Swedish and Turkish The collection foregrounds the relationship that holds between literalness and figurativeness in meaning construction it emphasises the role of conceptual metonymy and metaphor as the main cognitive tools at work in inferential activity and as generators of discourse ties and it also depicts the import of cognitive models in the production and interpretation of multimodal communication In addition a number of more specific topics are addressed from different perspectives such as language variation and cultural models the argumentative role of metaphor in discourse and the role of empirical work in cognitive linguistics Figurative Language in Biblical Prose

Narrative Andrea Weiss, 2006-03-01 This study applies several linguistic approaches to the book of Samuel in order to investigate the defining features of metaphor and the way metaphor and other forms of figurative language operate in biblical narrative The book begins with an exploration of how to identify and interpret the metaphors in 1 Samuel 25 Next the metaphors in 2 Samuel 16 16 17 14 are compared with other tropes primarily metonymy and simile Then the notion of dead metaphors is challenged while examining the figurative language in 1 Samuel 24 An in depth analysis of the figurative language in these texts results in a better understanding of the mechanics of metaphor and a richer more nuanced reading of these stories their characters and language Metonymies and Metaphors for Death Around the World Wojciech

Wachowski, Karen Sullivan, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the ways in which metonymy and metaphor are used conceptually and linguistically to mitigate the more difficult dimensions of death and dying setting out a unique line of research within Conceptual Metaphor Theory The volume argues that metonymic and metaphoric descriptions of death and dying reflect taboos concealment and other considerations not found in figurative descriptions of life producing distinct forms of euphemism frames and mental spaces particular to conceptualizations of death The first part takes a closer look at metonymy to illuminate the ways in which it allows a person to zoom in on death's more inoffensive dimensions or zoom out from its more troubling aspects The second part focuses on the more palatable concepts which metaphorically structure and help to better understand death A wide range of classical and modern examples from European Asian Australian and African languages and cultures showcase points of overlap and divergence Opening up new lines of inquiry into research on death and dying and offering a linguistically focused complement to anthropological and religious studies on the topic this book will be of interest to scholars in cognitive linguistics sociolinguistics cross cultural communication and cultural studies

Metaphor from the Ground Up Daniel C. Strack, 2019-02-20 Metaphor from the Ground Up introduces Conceptual Filtering Theory a theory of mental processing that describes figurative language communication in terms of conceptual domain projection and contextual disambiguation In an attempt to match theoretical observations from cognitive semantics and pragmatics with related knowledge about mental processes from cognitive neuroscience CFT first examines the distributed nature of conceptualization and then uses this background information to explain metonymic binding and metaphoric mapping Once the perceptual origins of metonymy and metaphor have been demonstrated CFT offers a detailed account of how salient aspects of conceptualization differentially combine to achieve predictable inferencing results in linguistic communication In addition CFT characterizes the role of contextual effects in pruning salient inferencing options and demonstrates how situational frames can be manipulated to guide semantic outcomes The book as a whole will assert that figurative language processing cannot be characterized in terms of a generically constituted base system that receives inputs and spits out predictable results according to logical probability in a situational vacuum Rather it is a dynamic context sensitive process that continually reweights the underlying system so as to rapidly select situation relevant lines of inferencing from among a variety of salient inferencing options

Cognitive Linguistics Gitte Kristiansen, Michel Achard, René Dirven, Francisco J. Ruiz de Mendoza Ibáñez, 2008-08-22 Cognitive Linguistics Current Applications and Future Perspectives is an up to date survey of recent research in Cognitive Linguistics and its applications by prominent researchers The volume brings together generally accessible syntheses and special studies of Cognitive Linguistics strands in a sizable format and is thus an asset not only to the Cognitive Linguistics community but also to neighbouring disciplines and linguists in general The volume covers a wide range of fields and combines wide accessibility with a highly specific information value Key features An excellent source for the study of Applied Cognitive Linguistics one of the most popular and fastest growing areas in Linguistics Authoritative and detailed survey articles by leading scholars in the field Accessible to a general audience yet also characterized by a highly specific information value

Multimodality and Cognitive Linguistics María Jesús Pinar Sanz, 2015-10-15 The aim of this volume is to advance our theoretical and empirical understanding of the relationship between Multimodality and Cognitive Linguistics The innovative nature of the volume in relation to those existing in the field lies in the fact that it brings together contributions from three of the main approaches dealing with Multimodality Cognitive Linguistics and multimodal metaphors Forceville Urios Aparisi 2009 social semiotics and systemic functional grammar and multimodal interactional analysis Jewitt 2009 highlighting the importance of multimodal resources and showing the close relationship between this field of study and Cognitive Linguistics applied to a variety of genres ranging from comics films cartoons picturebooks or visuals in tapestry to name a few Originally published in Review of Cognitive Linguistics Vol 11 2 2013

Memory, Identity and Cognition: Explorations in Culture and Communication Jacek Mianowski, Michał Borodo, Paweł Schreiber, 2019-03-26 The book analyses a variety of topics and current issues in linguistics and literary studies focusing especially on such aspects as memory identity and cognition Firstly it discusses the notion of memory and the idea of reimagining as well as coming to terms with the past Secondly it studies the relationship between perception cognition and language use It then investigates a variety of practices of language users language learners and translators such as the use of borrowings from hip hop and slang The book is intended for researchers in the fields of linguistics and literary studies lecturers teaching undergraduate and master s students on courses in language and literature

Confronting Metaphor in Use Mara Sophia Zanutto, Lynne Cameron, Marilda C. Cavalcanti, 2008-03-27 It is timely for researchers to approach metaphor as social and situated as a matter of language and discourse and not just as a matter of thought Over the last twenty five years scholars have come to appreciate in depth the cognitive motivated and embodied nature of metaphor but have tended to background the linguistic form of metaphor and have largely ignored how this connects to its role in the discourses in which our lives are constructed and lived This book brings language and social dimensions into the picture offering snapshots of metaphor use in real language and in real lives across the very different cultures of Europe and Brazil and contributing to the theorizing of metaphor in discourse Cognitive Linguistics Francisco José Ruiz de Mendoza Ibáñez, M. Sandra Peña Cervel, 2005 The book testifies of the great tolerance of Cognitive Linguists towards internal variety within itself and towards external interaction with major linguistic subdisciplines Internally it opens up the broad variety of CL strands and the cognitive unity between convergent linguistic disciplines Externally it provides a wide overview of the connections between cognition and social psychological pragmatic and discourse oriented dimensions of language which will make this book attractive to scholars from different persuasions The book is thus expected to raise productive debate inside and outside the CL community Furthermore the book examines interdisciplinary connections from the point of view of the internal dynamics of CL research itself CL is rapidly developing into different compatible frameworks with extensions into levels of linguistics description like discourse pragmatics and sociolinguistics among others that have only recently been taken into account in this orientation The book covers two general topics i the relationship between the embodied nature of language cultural models and social action ii the role of metaphor and metonymy in inferential activity and as generators of discourse ties More specific topics are the nature and scope of constructional meaning language variation and cultural models discourse acts the relationship between communication and cognition the argumentative role of metaphor in discourse the role of mental spaces in linguistic processing and the role of empirical work in CL research These features endow the book with internal unity and consistency while preserving the identity of each of the contributions therein

Aspects of Cognitive Terminology Studies Silvia Molina-Plaza, Nava Maroto, 2024-06-17 The book sets out to describe new developments in terminology from a cognitive perspective It encompasses a wide range of theoretical and practical approaches covering different areas of knowledge and drawing on interdisciplinary research in corpus linguistics neology discourse analysis and translation studies International scholars present accounts of developments in the interface between terminology and cognitive linguistics

Embodiment via Body Parts Zouheir A. Maalej, Ning Yu, 2011-08-18 Research on the embodiment hypothesis within cognitive linguistics and beyond is growing steadily aiming to bridge language culture and cognition This volume seeks to address the question regarding what specific roles individual body parts play in the embodied conceptualization of emotions mental faculties character traits cultural values and so on in various cultures as manifested in their respective languages It brings together some linguistic evidence that sheds light on the embodied nature of human cognition from languages as diverse as Arabic Chinese Danish English Estonian German Greek Indonesian Japanese Persian Spanish and Turkish The studies in this volume also show how embodiment is mediated in those languages through such cognitive mechanisms as metonymy and metaphor

Metaphor in Legal Discourse Inesa Šeškauskienė, 2022-02-22 This book explores different aspects of metaphoricity in legal discourse from court proceedings and written institutionalised texts to judges argumentation and in spoken records among others It brings together linguists and law professionals from six different countries to investigate metaphor as a conceptual phenomenon accessible through language and more specifically through actual linguistic contexts of use Visual Metaphors Réka Benczes, Veronika Széld, 2022-09-15 Whenever we think about the world including its concrete and abstract entities we typically see a series of so called mental images in front of our eyes that aid us in everyday problem solving and navigating ourselves in the world Visual metaphors similarly to their linguistic counterparts largely build on such images Nevertheless the interplay of metaphorical metonymical text and imagery is not necessarily and not usually straightforward and raises complex theoretical and methodological questions The eleven chapters in this collection address a wide range of such challenges such as what are visual metaphors in the first place how can they be identified what is their relationship to linguistic metaphors what are their most common manifestations what knowledge structures are required for their interpretation and how do they interact with metonymies The studies cut across linguistics politics philosophy poetry art and history highlighting the ubiquitous role that visual metaphor plays in everyday life and conceptualizations Originally published as special issue of Cognitive Linguistic Studies 7 1 2020
