The Cambridge Companion to American Methodism Jason E. Vickers, 2013-10-07 A comprehensive introduction to various forms of American Methodism exploring the beliefs and practices around which the lives of these churches have revolved

Embodying Wesley's Catholic Spirit Daniel Castelo, 2017-03-16 To what degree is Wesleyan theology part of the church's catholic witness This book explores this question from a number of angles and goes on to embody some of these possibilities in conversation with other major traditions and figures within the Christian church Overall the volume shows that Wesleyan theology does draw from and can contribute to conversations related to the catholic Christian witness A Living

Tradition Dr. Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore, 2013-09-17 This book engages in a critical recovery and reconstruction of the Wesleyan theological legacy in relation to current theological concepts and Christian practices with the intent to present opportunities for future directions The contributors address urgent questions from the contexts in which people now live particularly questions regarding social holiness and Christian practices To that end the authors focus on historical figures John Wesley Susanna Wesley Harry Hoosier and Richard Allen historical developments such as the ways in which African Americans appropriated Methodism and theological themes such as holistic healing work and vocation and prophetic grace The purpose is not to provide a comprehensive historical and theological coverage of the tradition but to exemplify approaches to historical recovery and reconstruction that follow appropriately the mentorship of John Wesley and the living tradition that has emerged from his witness Contributors W Stephen Gunter Richard P Heitzenrater Diane Leclerc William B McClain Randy L Maddox Rebekah L Miles Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore Amy G Oden and Elaine A Robinson

Reshaping Ecumenical Theology Paul Avis, 2010-02-11 Reshaping Ecumenical Theology is a major contribution to the study of the Church It provides clear and authoritative orientation for the student while probing deep into a range of key issues in ecclesiology and ecumenical dialogue from a critical standpoint that will stimulate discussion among scholars and ecumenists It reclaims some old orthodoxies while challenging some new ones and points to a deeper and more personal engagement with the major traditions of the Christian Church as the way to fuller unity and more effective mission Reshaping Ecumenical Theology argues that the values of difference and diversity and the priority of mission and evangelisation must shape our picture of unity It transcends old arguments about establishment by showing that all churches are compelled to develop a constructive relationship to the modern state wherever possible if they are to be effective in mission The central ecumenical notion of reception is reinterpreted not as the faithful unquestioningly receiving the teaching of church authorities but as the process whereby the whole Church discerns the truth of new developments The mantra baptism is complete sacramental initiation is challenged and the place of confirmation is secured within a total process of initiation The ministry of the episcopate is affirmed but only by being related to the gospel on which the Church is founded The nature of communion is examined and the imperative of maintaining it against divisive tendencies is affirmed

The hermeneutics of unity shows that we are shaped by each other through the conflict or rivalry of traditions We are what we are because you are what you are

Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence

Rachel Starr,2018-04-17 Domestic violence is a significant threat to women s survival But Christian understandings of marriage often prevent women from resisting abusive relationships Can the Church s teaching on marriage be reshaped so that it helps women to survive rather than encourage them to submit to their husband bear their cross or sacrifice themselves for the sake of their marriage Focusing on everyday practices of marriage in two very different contexts Argentina and England Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence considers how Christian understandings of marriage as a covenant or sacrament relate to the lived experience of marriage Drawing on Augustine s notion of the goods of marriage and on belief in the saving power of marriage this book suggests that only when the wellbeing of bodies is central to a marriage can it have the power to save

Embracing the Past—Forging the Future Wm. Andrew Schwartz,John M. Bechtold,2015-09-17 The times they are a changin As such our theology needs to adapt to be responsive to the changing landscape The idea for Embracing the Past Forging the Future A New Generation of Wesleyan Theology came from our assessment that Wesleyan theology has yet to fully adapt to this changing landscape and that the future of Wesleyan theology requires the bringing together of old and new voices The difficult task of balancing between continuity and change keeping up with the developments of our culture and staying true to the roots of our tradition requires the dual focus of looking forward and backward simultaneously In this volume we have brought together contributions by young Wesleyan scholars graduate students and junior faculty as a way of illustrating and articulating a new generation of Wesleyan theology These younger voices demonstrate the desire to push Wesleyan theology in new directions Additionally we have included contributions from senior scholars who have been doing important work and who have already made significant contributions to Wesleyan theology This is not simply the old guard but the voices of scholars who continue to make a profound impact on Wesleyan theology

Old or New School Methodism? Kevin M. Watson, 2019-03-01 On September 7 1881 Matthew Simpson Bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church in a London sermon asserted that As to the divisions in the Methodist family there is little to mar the family likeness Nearly a quarter century earlier Benjamin Titus B T Roberts a minister in the same branch of Methodism as Simpson had published an article titled in the Northern Independent in which he argued that Methodism had split into an Old School and New School He warned that if the new school were to generally prevail then the glory will depart from Methodism As a result Roberts was charged with unchristian and immoral conduct and expelled from the Genesee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church MEC Old or New School Methodism examines how less than three decades later Matthew Simpson could claim that the basic beliefs and practices that Roberts had seen as threatened were in fact a source of persisting unity across all branches of Methodism Kevin M Watson argues that B T Roberts s expulsion from the MEC and the subsequent formation of the Free Methodist Church represent a crucial moment of transition in American Methodism This book challenges understandings of American Methodism that emphasize its breadth and openness to a variety of theological commitments and underemphasize the particular theological commitments that have made it distinctive and have been the cause of divisions over the past century and a half Old or New School Methodism fills a major gap in the study of American Methodism from the 1850s to 1950s through a detailed study of two of the key figures of the period and their influence on the denomination

Retrieving the Tradition and Renewing Evangelicalism Daniel H. Williams, 1999 A learned and uniquely constructive book that gently urges suspicious Christians to reclaim the patristic roots of their faith This is the first book of its kind meant to help Protestant Christians recognize the early church fathers as an essential part of their faith

Writing primarily to the evangelical independent and free church communities who remain largely suspicious of church history and the relationship between Scripture and tradition D H Williams clearly explains why every branch of today's church owes its heritage to the doctrinal foundation laid by postapostolic Christianity Based on solid historical scholarship this volume shows that embracing the catholic roots of the faith will not lead to the loss of Protestant distinctiveness but is essential for preserving the Christian vision in our rapidly changing world

The Quest for a Theological Connection with the (African Holocaust) Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade in Africans Dr. Robinson A. Milwood, 2017-09-13 The quest for a theological connection with the heinous transatlantic chattel slave trade in Africans is an academically and intellectually lignum vitae nut to crack It must be cracked by all means necessary to do a measured dose of justice to the subject of the slave trade that British academic and encomium scholars have been treating for centuries with impunity that it has no relevance theologically and philosophically ignoring the historical and racial facts that British proslavery groups defended and opposed the abolition of the brutal and immoral forced enslavement of Africa on biblical grounds with a bent theology and misleading hermeneutics The notebook of Rev Dr James Ramsay is a solid evidence of how British proslavery movement operated This attitude was false groundless deceptive and above all a massive cover up of the iniquities and abomination of the slave trade in Africa by an extraordinary committee of presidium syndication which I shall deal with during the evolution of this significant thesis

Election, Barth, and the French Connection Pierre Maury, 2016-07-29 Karl Barth's famous account of the doctrine of election in his mammoth Church Dogmatics has been described as the heart of his theology a great hymn to the grace of God in Christ He maintained that we must look away from all others and excluding all side glances or secondary thoughts we must look only upon the name of Jesus Christ God's election is primarily about his self decision or self determination not about his election of individuals In this book we discover Barth's fascinating French connection pastor theologian Pierre Maury 1890-1956 His close friendship and especially a paper he gave in 1936 helped stimulate Barth's reflection Also included are some never before translated works of Maury as well as a revision of a previously published piece on predestination Four theologians then reflect on their significance for us today from historical textual pastoral and theological standpoints and seek to draw conclusions for us in our contemporary setting sixty to eighty years from their original composition
