Method as Identity Christopher M. Driscoll, Monica R. Miller, 2020-07-02 Method as Identity Manufacturing Distance in the Academic Study of Religion emphasizes the inexorable influence that social identities exert in shaping methodological choices within the academic study of religion as witnessed in sui generis appeals to particularity and reliance on or rejection of identity based standpoints Can data speak back and if so would scholars have ears to listen With a refreshing hip hop sensibility Miller and Driscoll argue that what cultural theorist Jean Fran ois Bayart refers to as a battle for identity forces a necessary confrontation with the impact of social identities and their histories haunting our fields of study These complex categorical specters make it nearly impossible to untether the categories of identity that we come to study from the identity of categories shaping our methodological lenses Treating method as an identity revealing technique of distance making between the proper scholar and the less than scholarly advocate for religion Miller and Driscoll examine a variety of discursive milieus of vagueness consider for instance essentialism origins authenticity at work in the contemporary discussion of critical methods that lack the necessary specificity for doing the heavy lifting of analytically handling the asymmetrical dimensions of power part and parcel to social identification Through interdisciplinary discussions that draw on thinkers including Charles H Long Bruce Lincoln Russell T McCutcheon Theodor Adorno Jacques Derrida C Wright Mills Laurel C Schneider William D Hart Tomoko Masuzawa Anthony B Pinn bell hooks Roderick Ferguson John L Jackson Jasbir Puar and Jean Fran ois Bayart among others Method as Identity intentionally blurs the lines classifying proper scholarly approach and proper objects of study With an intentional effort to challenge the de facto disciplinary segregation marking the field and study of religion today Method as Identity will be of interest to scholars involved in discussions about theory and method for the study of religion and especially researchers working at the intersections of identity difference and classification and the politics thereof

Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B Pinn, 2010-03-01 Liberation Theologies in the United States reveals how the critical use of religion can be utilized to challenge and combat oppression in America In the nascent United States religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism poverty and other types of oppression Stacey M Floyd Thomas and Anthony B Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development context theory and goals of a range of U S born liberation theologies Black Theology Anthony B Pinn Womanist Theology Stacey M Floyd Thomas Latina Theology Nancy Pineda Madrid Hispanic Latino a Theology Benjam n Valent n Asian American Theology Andrew Sung Park Asian American Feminist Theology Grace Ji Sun Kim Native Feminist Theology Andrea

Noel, 2009-04-27 This book situates the study of Black Religion within the modern temporal and historical structures in the Atlantic World It describes how black people and Black Religion made a phenomenological appearance in modernity simultaneously and were signified in the identity formation of whites and their religion

Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue

Theology in the Mode of Monk: An Aesthetics of Barth and Cone on Revelation and Freedom, Volume 1 Raymond Carr, 2024-11-07 This captivating study engages two of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century Karl Barth the Swiss Protestant theologian who constructed his theology from above and engaged the powers in the background of Nazi Germany and James H Cone the father of Black Theology in America who constructed his theology from below and confronted white racism the most intractable issue in America's history In this three volume project Carr employs the aesthetic thinking of the jazz legend Thelonious Monk to reconceptualize restructure and advance the theologies of Barth and Cone This first volume appeals to the Bebop tune Epistrophe as the analogical framework for reconceptualizing the historical form and hermeneutical backgrounds of Karl Barth and James H Cone Monk's mode of musical thinking establishes the aesthetic theological architecture Carr uses to reiterate and reimagine the revolutionary theological contributions of Barth and Cone

Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity John H. McClendon III, 2019-05-03 Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal constitutes a philosophical inquiry on Black Theology and its attendant Black Christology Explicitly the philosophical examination of Black Theology conceptually maps its quest for establishing Black Christology as an authentic form within Christian theology This text critically expounds on the methodologies and arguments which guide how Black Theology specifically affirms Black Christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic Christianity Significantly the racialized character of Black Theology immediately sets this discourse within the context of philosophy of race Clearly the philosophy of race in terms of its substance and scope is continually expanding Notably the philosophy of religion in its conceptual association with the African American experience considerably enriches the content of the philosophy of race Therefore Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal stands as a unique contribution to philosophy of race Summarily while this book tackles the formidable problem of Christian theological subject matter nonetheless the reader must be aware that this is not a work executed methodologically in any theological manner inclusive of Christian theology Subsequently while the object of our investigation substantively remains theological in character the method of investigation is guided by philosophical inquiry which is based on secular principles Furthermore although most mainstream works in philosophy of religion along with theology neglect to examine African American theologians and philosophers the subject matter of Black Christology substantially facilitates in filling this intellectual void

Economic Ethics & the Black Church Wylin D. Wilson, 2017-09-07 This book examines the relationship between race religion and economics within the black church The book features unheard voices of individuals experiencing economic deprivation and the faith communities who serve as their refuge Thus this project examines the economic ethics of black churches in the rural South whose congregants and broader communities have long struggled amidst persistent poverty Through a case study of communities in Alabama s Black Belt this book argues that if the economic ethic of the Black Church remains accommodationist it will continue to become increasingly irrelevant to communities that experience persistent poverty Despite its historic role in combatting racial oppression and social injustice the Church has also perpetuated ideologies that uncritically justify unjust social structures Wilson shows how the Church can shift the conversation and reality of poverty by moving from a legacy of accommodationism and toward a legacy of empowering liberating economic ethics      Race and Secularism in America Jonathon S. Kahn,Vincent W. Lloyd,2016-03-01 This anthology draws bold comparisons between secularist strategies to contain privatize and discipline religion and the treatment of racialized subjects by the American state Specializing in history literature anthropology theology religious studies and political theory contributors expose secularism s prohibitive practices in all facets of American society and suggest opportunities for change      Women's Studies in Transition Kate Conway-Turner,1998 This anthology represents original work presented at a conference commemorating the twentieth anniversary of Women s Studies at the University of Delaware The central theme focuses on the interdisciplinary links within contemporary women s studies scholarship addressing the need for this scholarship to cut across disciplines to be located within a feminist framework to continually redefine and develop appropriate methodologies and to translate the academic work into products that address critical issues and concerns facing women and women s creative scholarship      Indigenous Black Theology J. Clark,2012-10-10 This work is concerned with the way Black Christian formation because of the acceptance of universal absolute and exclusive Christian doctrines seems to justify and even encourage anti African sentiment
