every direction beckon us even push us toward better and faster technology with the promise of more wealth more pleasure and consequently more happiness But have we become so bewitched by the siren song of material progress that we've lost the ability not just to achieve but to discern what true happiness is What criteria do we use to plan for the future for retirement At the end of our earthly lives how will we measure our fruitfulness In this book Marcus Grodi discusses what he relationship to nature and to nature's Creator that apply regardless of where a person lives He offers wonderful reflections
