East England Victoria Claire Allen, 2025-09-30 Industrial memory in North East England examines how the region's industrial myth and memory have been articulated in the renegotiation of northernness The book offers a critical contextualisation of the concept of northernness and the English North and introduces the concept of the PopCultural Portfolio a mixed methods approach to conjunctural analysis in cultural and memory studies The book provides six richly illustrated case studies to demonstrate the practical application of cultural studies expansive and inclusive understanding of texts bringing together materials from North East football folk indie and exhibition culture to establish how the North East's industrial past continues to be remembered and functionalised as industrial memory In turn the conjunctural analysis demonstrates how industrial memory is articulated and mythologised as north east-ness in contemporary popular culture

The North East of England on Film and Television James Leggott, 2021-06-28 This book analyses the representation of North East England in film and television It is a response to the way a number of important British films and programmes for example Get Carter 1971 Whatever Happened to the Likely Lads 1973-74 Our Friends in the North 1996 and Billy Elliot 2000 have used this particular setting to explore questions of class identity and history It argues for the significance and coherence of a North East corpus of film and television through a series of case studies relating to specific eras or types of representation These include regional writers working for television in the 1970s the achievements of the workshop movement in the 1980s and works produced within the genres of documentary crime drama comedy period drama and reality television The book discusses how the communities and landscapes of the region have been used to explore processes of cultural change and legacies of de-industrialisation Industry and Innovation in the North East of England Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: North East Regional Committee, 2009 In this report from the North East Regional Committee HCP 169 session 2009-10 ISBN 9780215542731 renewable industries could lead a recovery in the North East's manufacturing industry The Committee states that the region is well placed to benefit from the growing global market for green technologies but warns that British innovation and ideas could be lost as other countries benefit from quicker commercial development and implementation World class renewable energy companies in the North East such as the New and Renewable Energy Centre NaREC at Blyth the North East Process Industries Cluster NEPIC on Teesside and NETPark

the North East Technology park in County Durham could put the region at the forefront of the Government's efforts to turn the UK into a low carbon economy. The Committee warns though that the UK's cumbersome and slow planning process poses a significant risk to long term development in the North East as businesses from countries like China seek quicker guaranteed sites elsewhere in Europe. The report also states that the Government should explore incentives to encourage local development of renewable and clean energy. Also underinvestment in transport links is proving detrimental to investment in the region.

A Region in Transition John Tomaney, Neil Ward, 2017-07-05 In the context of the general trend towards regionalism as a focus for public policy and as a source of cultural and political identity an interdisciplinary team from Newcastle University combine to analyze how this affects the North East of England.
