Women's University Fiction, 1880-1945 Anna Bogen, 2015-10-06 The rise of the middle classes brought a sharp increase in the number of young men and women able to attend university Developing in the wake of this increase the university novel often centred on male undergraduates at either Oxford or Cambridge Bogen argues that an analysis of the lesser known female narratives can provide new insights

The Development of Neolithic House Societies in Orkney Colin Richards, Richard Jones, 2016-04-30 Considering that Orkney is a group of relatively small islands lying off the northeast coast of the Scottish mainland its wealth of Neolithic archaeology is truly extraordinary An assortment of houses chambered cairns stone circles standing stones and passage graves provides an unusually comprehensive range of archaeological and architectural contexts Yet in the early 1990s there was a noticeable imbalance between 4th and 3rd millennium cal BC evidence with house structures and villages being well represented in the latter but minimally in the former As elsewhere in the British Isles the archaeological visibility of the 4th millennium cal BC in Orkney tends to be dominated by the monumental presence of chambered cairns or tombs In the 1970s Claude Lévi Strauss conceived of a form of social organization based upon the house societies in order to provide a classification for social groups that appeared not to conform to established anthropological kinship structures In this approach the anchor point is the house understood as a conceptual resource that is a consequence of a strategy of constructing and legitimizing identities under ever shifting social conditions Drawing on the results of an extensive program of fieldwork in the Bay of Firth Mainland Orkney the text explores the idea that the physical appearance of the house is a potent resource for materializing the dichotomous alliance and descent principles apparent in the archaeological evidence for the early and later Neolithic of Orkney It argues that some of the insights made by Lévi Strauss in his basic formulation of societies are extremely relevant to interpreting the archaeological evidence and providing the parameters for a social narrative of the material changes occurring in Orkney between the 4th and 2nd millennia cal BC The major excavations undertaken during the Cuween Wideford Landscape Project provided an unprecedented depth and variety of evidence for Neolithic occupation bridging the gap between domestic and ceremonial architecture and form exploring the transition from wood to stone and relationships between the living and the dead and the role of material culture The results are described and discussed in detail here enabling tracing of the development and fragmentation of societies over a 1500 year period of Northern Isles prehistory Post-office Directory for 1866 John Disturnell, 1865 Place of Performance Chukwuma Okoli, 2020-05-28 This book provides an unprecedented analysis on the place of performance The central theme is that the place of performance is of considerable significance as a connecting factor in international commercial contracts This book challenges and questions the approach of the European legislator for not explicitly giving special significance to the place of performance in determining the applicable law in the absence of choice for commercial contracts It also contains inter alia an analogy to matters of foreign country mandatory rules and the coherence between jurisdiction and choice of law It concludes by proposing a revised Article 4 of Rome I Regulation which could be used as an international solution by legislators judges arbitrators and other stakeholders who wish to reform their choice of law rules Annual Report of the Department of Agriculture and Food Ontario. Dept. of Agriculture and Food, 1907 Consists of individuals reports of each of the branches of the department New York to Boston and the White Mountains. of Oxford Cinema Memories Deborah Allison, Hiu Man Chan, Daniela Treveri Gennari, 2023-03-15 The Phoenix is one of only a handful of British cinemas to have remained active for the past 100 years This is the story of Oxford's oldest continuously operating cinema as told by its staff and customers Featuring first hand reminiscences dating back to the days of silent movies and illustrated with a fabulous collection of over 100 images many of which have never appeared in print until now The Phoenix Picturehouse presents a wide ranging account of a popular local institution whose changing fortunes exemplify a century of British cinema and cinemagoing history
