North Gloucestershire At War Britain In Old Photographs S:

North Gloucestershire at War Peter Gill,1995 This addition to the Britain in Old Photographs series brings together a collection of black and white pictures spanning the late 19th and early 20th centuries Drawn from family albums local collections and professional photographers they show the way things were and how they have changed Every photograph is captioned providing names and dates where possible revealing historical and anecdotal detail and giving life to the scenes and personalities captured through the camera lens Bringing together all aspects of daily life celebrations and disasters work and leisure people and buildings the collection should inspire memories as well as serve as an introduction to visitors

Defending Gloucestershire and Bristol Mike Osborne,2024-06-03 Gloucestershire s strategic location straddling the Severn is reinforced by Bristol s importance as a port The Forest of Dean and the Cotswolds are densely populated by prehistoric hillforts and Gloucester Cirencester and Winchcombe were important throughout the Roman and Anglo Saxon periods The Normans built substantial castles at Bristol Gloucester and Berkeley scene of Edward II s murder with many more of earth and timber Many figured in the conflicts between rival factions culminating in the Battle of Tewkesbury In the Civil War Bristol underwent two sieges and Gloucester another and one of the last battles at Stow followed continuous skirmishing The next centuries saw volunteer forces established formalised by the State by the end of Victoria s reign to counter threats external and internal A nascent aircraft industry would develop into aircraft factories and airfields in the First World War with further development of training and aircraft storage facilities for the newly formed RAF during the inter War period Anti invasion defences were constructed in the Second World War but the primary effort was in logistics bases for arriving US troops RAF and USAAF training airfields and depots and communications facilities This last aspect along with intelligence gathering continued into the Cold War and beyond The Illustrated War News ,1917 Never for Want of Powder C. L. Bragg,2007 Lavishly illustrated with seventy four color plates and fifty black and white photographs and drawings Never for Want of Powder tells the story of a world class munitions factory constructed by the Confederacy in 1861 the only large scale permanent building project undertaken by a government often characterized as lacking modern industrial values In this comprehensive examination of the powder works five scholars a historian physicist curator architectural historian and biographer bring their combined expertise to the task of chronicling gunpowder production during the Civil War In doing so they make a major contribution to understanding the history of wartime technology and Confederate ingenuity Early in the war President Jefferson Davis realized the Confederacy s need to supply its own gunpowder Accordingly Davis selected Col George Washington Rains to build a gunpowder factory An engineer and West Point graduate Rains relied primarily on a written pamphlet rather than on practical experience in building the powder mill yet he succeeded in designing a model of efficiency and safety He sited the facilities at Augusta Georgia because of the city s central location canal transportation access to water power railroad facilities and relative security from attack As much a story of people as of machinery Never for Want of Powder recounts the ingenuity of the individuals involved with the project A cadre of talented subordinates including Frederick Wright C Shaler Smith William Pendleton and Isadore P Girardey assisted Rains to a degree not previously appreciated by historians This volume also documents the coordinated outflow of gunpowder and ammunition and Rains s difficulty in preparing for the defense of Augusta Today a lone chimney along the Savannah River stands as the only reminder of the munitions facility that once occupied that site With its detailed reproductions of architectural and mechanical schematics and its expansive vista on the Confederacy Never for Want of Powder restores the Augusta Powder Works to its rightful place in American lore Military Affairs Catalog United States.
