North Sea Cooperation:

Maritime Cooperation in Semi-Enclosed Seas Keyuan Zou, 2019-05-07 Maritime Cooperation in Semi Enclosed Seas edited by Keyuan Zou brings together distinguished scholars to discuss how and to what extent Article 123 of the LOSC has been implemented in state practice in East Asia and Europe and what kind of existing experiences can be observed and lessons drawn so as to promote maritime cooperation in semi enclosed seas An interdisciplinary approach has been taken to broaden the scope of discussion on how to strengthen the implementation of the LOSC The book is divided into four parts International Legal Framework for Semi Enclosed Seas Cooperative Management of Marine Resources Handling Non Traditional Security Issues and New Challenges to Semi Enclosed Seas Cooperation In addition to general discussions on semi enclosed seas the volume offers special geographic coverage of the East China Sea and South China Sea in East Asia and the North Sea and Mediterranean Sea in Europe Maritime Regime Building Mark J. Valencia, 2021-10-18 The past few decades have witnessed the emergence of a vast array of regional arrangements and institutions dealing with all aspects of ocean management The level of cooperation ranges from minimal dispute avoidance to relatively comprehensive ocean governance at the regional level As concrete examples reasonably successful and comprehensive regional regimes have been created for the Baltic the North and the Mediterranean Seas and the South Pacific And attempts at regional regime building are ongoing in Southeast Asia the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean Although there are broad similarities between the semi enclosed seas of Western Europe and Northeast Asia no regional maritime regime has yet been initiated in Northeast Asia The papers in this volume are authored by leading authorities on not only the maritime affairs of their particular region of focus but on maritime policy in general They describe and explain existing or incipient regional maritime regimes in an unusually broad comparative context and extract lessons learned that may be applicable elsewhere including Northeast Asia The case studies are neatly sandwiched between an introduction to concepts and principles on regional co operation and concluding chapters on lessons learned and their applicability to Northeast Asia Moreover the papers raise and address several questions of relevance to policy For example what factors are conducive to maritime regime initiation expansion and positive evolution and which constrain regime formation and evolution Why has maritime regime building been successful in Europe and largely unsuccessful in Asia And which if any lessons learned in the European context are applicable in Asia Given the growing interest in regime formation and effectiveness in general and maritime regimes in particular this book will be of considerable interest to both analysts and policymakers International Agreements to Protect the Environment and Wildlife United States International Trade Commission, United States. International Regimes and Norway's Environmental Policy Jon Birger Skjrseth, 2018-02-06 Since the former Norwegian prime minister Gro Harlem Brundtland led the World Commission on Sustainable Development Norway has played an important role in international environmental co operation This volume looks at how this one state engaged international regimes in order to pursue its own national goals in the following issue areas climate change biodiversity ozone depletion air pollution marine pollution and whaling In doing so it offers an innovative new approach to the study of international regime effectiveness and on linkages or interactions between international regimes The effectiveness of multilateral environmental agreements, 1996 Research On China's Strategy And Policy In Northeast Asia Qingcai Liu, 2024-11-27 Research on China's Strategy and Policy in Northeast Asia offers a comprehensive in depth and systematic analysis of China's strategy and policy in Northeast Asia It examines the region's political economic security related and cultural dynamics with a focus on key issues and territorial sovereignty disputes The research integrates theoretical applied strategic and policy based research methods to provide a multifaceted perspective The analysis is framed through the lens of major country diplomacy with Chinese characteristics and China's foreign policy towards Northeast Asia This book explores China's strategic vision for Northeast Asia emphasizing the evolving international system in the region and China's strategic responses It argues for the establishment of a new order of international relations in Northeast Asia characterized by equality mutual trust good neighborliness and cooperation Additionally the book addresses three fundamental issues security threats and the development of security mechanisms energy security challenges and energy system development and the enhancement of trade investment facilitation and regional economic cooperation This book is an engaging read for scholars specializing in political economic security and cultural research on Northeast Asia as well as policymakers and strategists focused on China's foreign policy and diplomatic efforts in the region International Environmental Agreements

Steinar Andresen, Elin Boasson, Geir Hønneland, 2012-03-12 International environmental agreements provide a practical basis for countries to address environmental issues on a global scale This book explores the workings and outcomes of these agreements and analyses key questions of why some problems are dealt with successfully and others ignored By examining fundamental policies and issues in environmental protection this text gives an easily comprehensible introduction to international environmental agreements and discusses problems in three areas air water and on land It traces the history of agreements in broad thematic areas related to long distance air pollution ozone depleting and greenhouse gases ocean management biological diversity agricultural plant diversity and forest stewardship Drawing on experts in their respective fields this book provides an insightful evaluation of the successes and failures and analysis of the reasons for this Concluding with an insightful examination of research to show how performance of agreements can be improved in the future this volume is a vital contribution to our understanding of the politics associated with establishing international environmental consensus International Environmental Agreements will be of interest to scholars students and researchers in global environmental politics international relations and political science Steinar Andresen is Senior Research Fellow at the Fridtjof Nansen Institute Norway and formerly professor at the Dept of Political Science University of Oslo Elin Lerum Boasson is Research Fellow at the Fridtjof Nansen Institute Norway Geir Hønneland is Research Director at the Fridtjof Nansen Institute and adjunct professor at the University of Tromsø Governing Europe's Marine Environment Michael Gilek, 2016-03-03 Governing Europe's Marine Environment is a coherent up to date multidisciplinary analysis of current approaches and challenges to the sustainable governance of Europe's marine environment Structured in three parts Part 1 outlines general theoretical ideas about governance governing and governability and serves as a starting point for analysing the development of marine governance in Europe from the perspective of different disciplines Part 2 includes studies of EU marine governance Part 3 focuses on Europe's regional seas namely the Baltic Sea the North Sea the Black Sea and the Mediterranean Sea This book presents a better understanding of the fragmented governance of marine governance in Europe and in particular the tension between the Europeanization of regional seas and the regionalization of EU policies

Norway's EU Experience and Lessons for the UK John Erik Fossum, Christopher Lord, Fay Madeleine Farstad, Arild Aurvåg Farsund, Merethe Dotterud Leiren, Espen D. H. Olsen, Marianne Riddervold, Johanne Døhlle Saltnes, Øyvind Svendsen, Jarle Trondal, 2023-10-13 This book examines Norway's affiliation to the EU and systematically assesses the potential suitability of this arrangement for the UK as a viable EU affiliation post Brexit Framing the book within the framework of the broader European context the authors ask how much autonomy and room to manoeuvre tightly integrated non member states have under this arrangement They present an in depth assessment of Norway's close EU affiliation and provide insight into what this may reveal to us about the post Brexit European political order The book's analytical framework centred on autonomy under complex interdependence has relevance well beyond the confines of the Norway case This includes the UK not least since the EU UK Trade and Cooperation Agreement TCA leaves considerable uncertainty It contains transitory elements there will be implementation reviews and there may be many more bilateral and multilateral agreements before the trade relationship is fully defined This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European Union politics Norwegian politics British politics European integration and more broadly to European studies and international relations American Cooperation American Institute of Cooperation, 1925 1968 include Land Grant University Conference on Farmers Cooperatives Papers The European Territory Jacques Robert, 2014-05-09 Originally published in French as Le territoire européen des racines aux enjeux globaux this book reflects the enormous changes that Europe has seen in the past half century In a period of immense upheaval the continent has experienced increased integration largely through the development of the European Union heightened urbanization and a changing rural landscape while economic and commercial activities have impressed their stamp on the whole scene In this book Jacques Robert deploys the experience amassed throughout his 35 years experience as adviser to European institutions in the field of territorial and regional development The chapter on cities explains the emergence of the European urban hierarchy and the driving forces and inertia behind its evolution while a following chapter looks at the changing role of rural areas This material provides a historic overview of relevant policies and a discussion of future challenges The third chapter discusses evolving paradigms of regional economic development and their impact on European regions Next there is a chapter on the historical roots and current processes within territorial integration The book concludes with an examination of Europe's place in the world at large focussing particularly on globalization effects climate change and new energy paradigms which will present real challenges for decades to come The book is unique in its combination of in depth analysis of the evolution of European territorial policies and paradigms but also in its geographically comprehensive approach integrating the experience of both Western and Eastern Europe It will be of interest to academics and professionals within territorial development and spatial planning Energiewende "Made in Germany" Christian von Hirschhausen, Clemens Gerbaulet, Claudia Kemfert, Casimir Lorenz, Pao-Yu Oei, 2018-12-24 This book provides an in depth analysis of the energy transformation process ongoing in Germany now commonly referred to as Energiewende in the European context with a focus on the electricity sector It presents an expert look at the origins of the German Energiewende its concrete implementation its impacts within the European context as well as medium and long term perspectives The authors internationally recognized energy electricity and climate economists at the German Institute for Economic Research DIW Berlin and Berlin University of Technology conclude that the first years of the Energiewende have successfully laid the foundation for a renewables based electricity system in Germany but that challenges remain in relation to decarbonizing the electricity system and phasing out nuclear energy The authors also provide ground breaking insights to inform energy policy in other countries and at the European level In the outlook the authors explore upcoming issues such as coupling between the electricity and other sectors and behavioral changes of industry and households The book addresses readers in the energy industry energy and climate policymakers regulators and others interested in the low carbon energy system transformation in Germany Europe and worldwide Many Rivers to Cross Joris Verwijmeren, Marcus Antonius Wiering, 2007 River basin management is a key concept in contemporary water policy Since the management of rivers is best designed and implemented at the scale of the river basin it seems obvious that we should not confine ourselves to administrative or geographical borders In other words river basin management implies crossing borders Experience with river policies shows that this is easier said than done though This book reveals how cross border co operation in river management looks today It first analyses the literature in this field of policy and research and then goes on to describe five cases of cross border initiatives in quite different corners of Europe By using well developed indicators and an elaborate analytical framework it deals systematically with opportunities for and barriers to cross border co operation on European rivers Including chapters about the following rivers Rhine Verwijmeren IJssel Feld Locker Gr tjen Vecht Lulofs Coenen Evros Bug

Modern Law of the Sea David Anderson, 2008 These collected essays examine different aspects of the modern law of the sea They address many key provisions in the United Convention on the Law of the Sea including its historical development the substantive rules governing navigation resources the regime of the high seas maritime jurisdiction the protection of the marine environment and the delimitation of maritime boundaries as well as the settlement of disputes The essays also review the Implementation Agreement of 1994 concerning deep seabed mining and the Implementation Agreement of 1995 concerning Straddling and Highly Migratory Fish Stocks The author presents purely personal views on many negotiations and cases in which he participated The essays written between 1988 and 2006 will be of interest to everyone involved in the law of the sea Davis Anderson is a former legal adviser to the Foreign and Commonwealth Office 1960 1996 and judge of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea 1996 2005

A Principled Approach to State Failure Chiara Giorgetti, 2010-03-08 This book is the first legal study of state failure in international law Building on a comprehensive analysis of the phenomenon Dr Giorgetti provides a definition of state failure that informs her study of how international actors may operate in situations of emergencies occurring in failed and failing states The book specifically focuses on actions taken in health environmental and human rights emergencies to provide generally applicable conclusions Indeed the Principles for Action distilled in the final chapter will provide concrete instruments to the international community to act in emergency situations and will prove to be an important contribution to the development of international law
