Well-being Past and Present Siobhan Hyland, Paul Jackson, Mark Rothery, 2025-09-18 In this exciting interdisciplinary volume researchers archivists curators and social scientists offer a fresh exploration of the concept of well being in Britain throughout history and in the present day Well being Past and Present examines the various ways well being has been invoked as a concept or term throughout historical periods attending to its multifarious meanings and its significance on the way we live our lives Focusing on the interactions between historical research and heritage and archival methods and practices the volume bridges the gap between historical experiences of well being and contemporary well being interventions by institutions and communities Across sixteen chapters the authors in Well being Past and Present travel from the battlefield to the library the orchard to the archive and the country house to the hospital ward examining well being's own historical and contemporary position in discourses like leisure health and happiness The key questions this volume asks are has the concept of well being become too nebulous to carry any real meaning What happens to the term when we place it in the range of very different contexts that it finds a home in How do past discourses of well being connect to the present How widely is well being and associated activities spread across our diverse societies Well being Past and Present is a timely volume and contributes not just to our historical understanding of well being but how we can utilise history and heritage to establish communities of care in Britain The River Pollution Dilemma in Victorian England Leslie Rosenthal, 2016-02-17

Nineteenth century Britain witnessed a dramatic increase in its town population as a hitherto largely rural economy transformed itself into an urban one Though the political and social issues arising from these events are well known little is known about how the British legal process coped with the everyday strains that emerged from the unprecedented scale of these changes This book explores the river pollution dilemma faced by the British courts during the second half of the nineteenth century when the legal process had to confront the new incompatible realities arising from the increasing amounts of untreatable waste flowing into the rivers This dilemma struck at the heart of both Victorian urban and rural society as the necessary sanitary reformation of the swelling cities and expanding industry increasingly poisoned the rivers threatening the countryside and agricultural rents and livelihoods Focusing on ten legal disputes the book investigates the dilemma that faced the courts namely how to protect the traditional and valued rights of landholders whose rivers and lands were being polluted by industrial waste and untreated sewage whilst not hindering the progress of sanitary reform and economic progress in the towns The case studies considered involve major industrialising centres such as Birmingham Leeds Northampton Wolverhampton and Barnsley but also include smaller towns such as Tunbridge Wells Leamington Spa and Harrogate The fundamental issues raised remain as important today as they did in Victorian times The need for the courts to balance a variety of conflicting needs and rights within the limits of contemporary technological capabilities often played out in surprising ways with outcomes not always in line with theoretical expectations As such the historical context of the disputes provide fascinating insights into nineteenth century legal process and the environmental and social attitudes of the times Northampton 1835-1985 Cynthia Brown,1990-01-01 Northamptonshire Past & Present ,2000 The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863 ,1864 Economic History of a Factory Town Vera Shlakman,1935 The London Gazette Great Britain,1835 The Practical Mechanic's Journal ,1863 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1835 The Encyclopedia Americana ,1962 The New-York Mirror ,1835 A Century of British Brewers, 1890-1990 Norman Barber,1994 The Engineer ,1875 The Statist ,1898 The Encyclopedia Americana: Civil List-Coronium ,1961 British Biographical Index David Bank,Theresa McDonald,1998 Este ndice recoge los registros de BBA I y BBA II Estos dos archivos contienen referencias biograficas de personajes del Reino Unido y de las colonias inglesas The American Peoples Encyclopedia ,1953 Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association,1939 The Artizan ,1857 Writings on American History ,1939
