Northeast Asian Critical Security N. Renwick, 2004-12-07 This book explores non traditional critical security issues in Northeast Asia This exploration adopts an approach to critical security that emphasizes the play of identity and culture in the apprehension of insecurity understood primarily in existential terms The study thus focuses upon the apprehension of insecurity derived from demographic pressures resource limitations ecological degradation food politics identificatory challenges health threats and political change The study seeks to assess existing approaches to such threats and to propose alternatives that stress the importance of transnational co operation as the principal means of tackling the complexity of contemporary societal insecurities in Northeast Asia Northeast Asian Critical Security N. Renwick, 2004-12-07 This book explores non traditional critical security issues in Northeast Asia This exploration adopts an approach to critical security that emphasizes the play of identity and culture in the apprehension of insecurity understood primarily in existential terms The study thus focuses upon the apprehension of insecurity derived from demographic pressures resource limitations ecological degradation food politics identificatory challenges health threats and political change The study seeks to assess existing approaches to such threats and to propose alternatives that stress the importance of transnational co operation as the principal means of tackling the complexity of contemporary societal insecurities in Northeast Asia Non-Traditional Security Challenges in Asia ShebontiRay Dadwal, 2017-07-05 Asia is challenged by a number of non traditional security issues including the foodenergywater nexus climate change transnational crime terrorism disaster relief and economic performance This volume categorizes and clarifies some key emerging issues in the area and looks at their interconnectedness and implications The essays explore how non traditional issues can manifest as security challenges and the role of the state and military in dealing with these Issue based and area specific they rely on facts and interpretation of data avoiding alarmist predictions A nuanced and analytical approach into an uncharted area this book will be essential for policymakers researchers and students of security and strategic studies foreign policy sociology and political economy as well as the general readers China Stands Up , Fractured China Lee Jones, Shahar Hameiri, 2021-10-28 Is China's rise a threat to international order Fractured China shows that it depends on what one means by China for China is not the monolithic unitary actor that many assume Forty years of state transformation the fragmentation decentralisation and internationalisation of party state apparatuses have profoundly changed how its foreign policy is made and implemented Today Chinese behaviour abroad is often not the product of a coherent grand strategy but results from a sometimes chaotic struggle for power and resources among contending politico business interests within a surprisingly permissive Chinese style regulatory state Presenting a path breaking new analytical framework Fractured China transforms the central debate in International Relations and provides new tools for scholars and policymakers seeking to understand and respond to twenty first century rising powers Drawing on extensive fieldwork in China and Southeast Asia it includes three major case studies the South China Sea non traditional security cooperation and development financing to demonstrate the framework s explanatory power The Protection and Promotion of Human Security in East Asia B. Howe,2013-10-01 Although many of the states of East Asia have achieved startling success not all have benefited from the region s development Many of the most vulnerable sections of East Asian populations still face tremendous challenges in their daily lives have yet to enjoy the rewards of the Asian Century and may even be further imperiled as a result of the forces of development Brendan Howe examines the measurements of success in East Asian development and governance from a human centered perspective He assesses obstacles to the protection and promotion of human security and development through detailed case studies of the most challenged states in the region including Burma Timor Leste Japan and North and South Korea He looks at the roles that East Asian actors can play and have been playing in protecting and promoting human security at the theoretical and practical level Maritime Security in the Indian Ocean Region V. R. Raghavan,2008 The Indian Ocean has emerged as a critical maritime space in the Asia Pacific Littoral in view of the transformed strategic security and economic significance of the region The Indo Asia Pacific region is the greatest maritime littoral space that has the largest concentration of population resources developing economies congested sea lanes and contested territorial spaces It is thus significant in a geo political geo economic and geo strategic sense The Centre for Security Analysis in collaboration with the Hanns Seidel Foundation organized an international symposium on The Changing Oceanic Landscape of the Indian Ocean Region Issues of Debate from 13-15 December 2006 at Chennai Analysts practitioners and academicians from Australia Germany India Japan Malaysia Philippines Singapore Taiwan and USA participated in the event This book is a compendium of the papers presented and discussed at the symposium The Global Obama Dinesh Sharma,Uwe P. Gielen,2013-12-17 The Global Obama examines the president s image in five continents and more than twenty countries It is the first book to look at Barack Obama s presidency and analyze how Obama and America are viewed by publics governments and political commentators around world The author of Barack Obama in Hawaii and Indonesia The Making of a Global President Top 10 Black History Book scaled the globe to gather opinions cultural historical and political analyses about Obama s leadership style Writers journalists psychologists consultants and social scientists present their views on Obama s leadership popularity and many of the global challenges that still remain unresolved As a progress report this is the first book that tries to grasp the Obama phenomenon in totality as perceived by populations around the world with special focus on America s leadership in the 21st Century Transforming Gender and Food Security in the Global South Jemimah Njuki,John Parkins,Amy Kaler,2016-11-25 Drawing on studies from Africa Asia and South America this book provides empirical evidence and conceptual explorations of the gendered dimensions of food security It investigates how food security and gender inequity are conceptualized within interventions assesses the impacts and outcomes of gender responsive programs on food security and gender equity and addresses diverse approaches to gender research and practice that range from descriptive and analytical to strategic and transformative The chapters draw on diverse theoretical perspectives including transformative learning feminist theory deliberative democracy and technology adoption As a result they add important conceptual and empirical material to a growing literature on the challenges of gender equity in agricultural production A unique feature of this book is the integration of both analytic and transformative approaches to understanding gender and food security The analytic material shows how food security interventions enable women and men to meet the long term nutritional needs of their households and to enhance their economic position The transformative chapters also document efforts to build durable and equitable relationships between men and women addressing underlying social cultural and economic causes of gender inequality Taken together these combined approaches enable women and men to reflect on gendered divisions of labor and resources related to food and to reshape these divisions in ways which benefit families and communities Co published with the International Development Research Centre
