Non-Traditional Security Challenges in Asia ShebontiRay Dadwal, 2017-07-05 Asia is challenged by a number of non traditional security issues including the foodenergywater nexus climate change transnational crime terrorism disaster relief and economic performance This volume categorizes and clarifies some key emerging issues in the area and looks at their interconnectedness and implications The essays explore how non traditional issues can manifest as security challenges and the role of the state and military in dealing with these Issue based and area specific they rely on facts and interpretation of data avoiding alarmist predictions A nuanced and analytical approach into an uncharted area this book will be essential for policymakers researchers and students of security and strategic studies foreign policy sociology and political economy as well as the general readers

China Stands Up David Scott, 2007-05-21 Using a rich tapestry of sources and imagery ranging from governmental media academic and popular settings China Stands Up looks at relations and perceptions between the People's Republic of China and the international system since 1949 and into the future

Fractured China Lee Jones, Shahar Hameiri, 2021-10-28 Is China's rise a threat to international order Fractured China shows that it depends on what one means by China for China is not the monolithic unitary actor that many assume Forty years of state transformation the fragmentation decentralisation and internationalisation of party state apparatuses have profoundly changed how its foreign policy is made and implemented Today Chinese behaviour abroad is often not the product of a coherent grand strategy but results from a sometimes chaotic struggle for power and resources among contending politico business interests within a surprisingly permissive Chinese style regulatory state Presenting a path breaking new analytical framework Fractured China transforms the central debate in International Relations and provides new tools for scholars and policymakers seeking to understand and respond to twenty first century rising powers Drawing on extensive fieldwork in China and Southeast Asia it includes three major case studies the South China Sea non traditional security cooperation and development financing to demonstrate the framework s explanatory power Maritime Security in the Indian Ocean Region V. R. Raghavan,2008 The Indian Ocean has emerged as a critical maritime space in the Asia Pacific Littoral in view of the transformed strategic security and economic significance of the region The Indo Asia Pacific region is the greatest maritime littoral space that has the largest concentration of population resources developing economies congested sea lanes and contested territorial spaces It is thus significant in a geo political geo economic and geo strategic sense The Centre for Security Analysis in collaboration with the Hanns Seidel Foundation organized an international symposium on The Changing Oceanic Landscape of the Indian Ocean Region Issues of Debate fro 13 15 December 2006 at Chennai Analysts practitioners and academicians from Australia Germany India Japan Malaysia Philippines Singapore Taiwan and USA participated in the event This book is a compendium of the papers presented and discussed at the symposium The Global Obama Dinesh Sharma,Uwe P. Gielen,2013-12-17 The Global Obama examines the president s image in five continents and more than twenty countries It is the first book to look at Barack Obama s presidency and analyze how Obama and America are viewed by publics governments and political commentators around world The author of Barack Obama in Hawaii and Indonesia The Making of a Global President Top 10 Black History Book scaled the globe to gather opinions cultural historical and political analyses about Obama s leadership style Writers journalists psychologists consultants and social scientists present their views on Obama s leadership popularity and many of the global challenges that still remain unresolved As a progress report this is the first book that tries to grasp the Obama phenomenon in totality as perceived by populations around the world with special focus on America s leadership in the 21st Century Transforming Gender and Food Security in the Global South Jemimah Njuki,John Parkins,Amy Kaler,2016-11-25 Drawing on studies from Africa Asia and South America this book provides empirical evidence and conceptual explorations of the gendered dimensions of food security It investigates how food security and gender inequity are conceptualized within interventions assesses the impacts and outcomes of gender responsive programs on food security and gender equity and addresses diverse approaches to gender research and practice that range from descriptive and analytical to strategic and transformative The chapters draw on diverse theoretical perspectives including transformative learning feminist theory deliberative democracy and technology adoption As a result they add important conceptual and empirical material to a growing literature on the challenges of gender equity in agricultural production A unique feature of this book is the integration of both analytic and transformative approaches to understanding gender and food security The analytic material shows how food security interventions enable women and men to meet the long term nutritional needs of their households and to enhance their economic position The transformative chapters also document efforts to build durable and equitable relationships between men and women addressing underlying social cultural and economic causes of gender inequality Taken together these combined approaches enable women and men to reflect on gendered divisions of labor and resources related to food and to reshape these divisions in ways which benefit families and communities Co published with the International Development Research Centre Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1966-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world A New East Asia Kazuko Mōri,Ken'ichirō Hirano,2007 East Asia is normally identified as a group of countries lying along the western edge of the Pacific Ocean but scholars have begun thinking about a East Asia that is a community rather than a set of sovereign states This book looks at East Asia from a Northeast Asian perspective Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1993-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Saving the Security State Inderpal Grewal,2017-10-27 In Saving the Security State Inderpal Grewal traces the changing relations between the US state and its citizens in an era she calls advanced neoliberalism Marked by the decline of US geopolitical power endless war and increasing surveillance advanced neoliberalism militarizes everyday life while producing the exceptional citizens primarily white Christian men who reinforce the security state as they claim responsibility for protecting the country from racialized others Under advanced neoliberalism Grewal shows others in the United States strive to become exceptional by participating in humanitarian projects that compensate for the security state s inability to provide for the welfare of its citizens In her analyses of microfinance programs in the global South security moms the murders at a Sikh temple in Wisconsin and the post 9 11 crackdown on Muslim charities Grewal exposes the fissures and contradictions at the heart of the US neoliberal empire and the centrality of race gender and religion to the securitized state Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1969-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Korea Focus on Current Topics ,1994 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1996-03 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world The Fifteenth Century XX Linda Clark, Customer James Ross,2024-08-27 This series pushes the boundaries of knowledge and develops new trends in approach and understanding ENGLISH HISTORICAL REVIEW As is appropriate in a volume honouring the distinguished scholarship in this field of Dr Rowena E Archer wealthy and influential ladies most notably Alice Chaucer duchess of Suffolk take centre stage alongside successive queens consort of the period whose councils helped to implement justice Alice s almshouse at Ewelme provides a
