New Light on the Neolithic of Northern England Gill Hey, Paul Frodsham, 2021-01-13 These papers highlight recent archaeological work in Northern England in the commercial academic and community archaeology sectors which have fundamentally changed our perspective on the Neolithic of the area Much of this was new work and much is still not published has been overlooked in the national discourse The papers cover a wide geographical area from Lancashire north into the Scottish Lowlands recognising the irrelevance of the England Scotland Border They also take abroad chronological sweep from the Mesolithic Neolithic transition to the introduction of Beakers into the area The key themes are the nature of transition the need for a much improved chronological framework regional variation linked to landscape character links within northern England and with distant places the implications of new dating for our understanding the axe trade the changing nature of settlement and agriculture the character early Neolithic enclosures the need to integrate rock art into wider discourse

Broadband Services in Wales Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee, 2012-09-17 In the Committee's report on broadband services it considers that the UK and Welsh Governments must work together and use all means available to bring broadband services in Wales up to speed with the rest of the UK and eradicate broadband slow spots and notspots as a matter of urgency Both Governments should consider promoting mobile and satellite technologies particularly in remote areas of Wales in order to deliver this and not rely solely on rolling out fibre optic cabling The availability of broadband has been consistently lower in Wales than the rest of the UK and although that gap has narrowed in recent years latest figures show the gap is widening again The existence of notspots and slowspots has hindered existing businesses and deterred new businesses from choosing to locate to Wales to the cost of the local economy The Welsh Government's target is a commitment to provide all Welsh businesses with access to next generation broadband by the middle of 2016 The Committee also says that both Governments must ensure that the roll out of superfast broadband is not achieved at the expense of delivering a good broadband service for all The Committee recommends that Ofcom undertake a study to evaluate whether satellite broadband should be supported more vigorously in Wales the delayed Spectrum auction now planned for 2013 must ensure that 4G mobile services are available to at least 98% of people in Wales and Ofcom must continue its efforts to open up access to infrastructure in Wales BT's market power must be regulated effectively to ensure efficient operation of the market

Earth Observation, Remote Sensing and Geoscientific Ground Investigations for Archaeological and Heritage Research Deodato Tapete, 2019-07-26 This book collects 15 papers written by renowned scholars from across the globe that showcase the forefront research in Earth observation EO remote sensing RS and geoscientific ground investigations to study archaeological records and cultural heritage Archaeologists anthropologists geographers remote sensing and archaeometry experts share their methodologies relying on a wealth of techniques and data including but not limited to very high resolution satellite images from optical and radar space borne sensors air borne surveys geographic information systems GIS archaeological fieldwork and historical maps A couple of the contributions highlight the value of noninvasive and nondestructive laboratory analyses e.g. neutron diffraction to reconstruct ancient manufacturing technologies and of geological ground investigations to corroborate hypotheses of historical events that shaped cultural landscapes Case studies encompass famous UNESCO World Heritage Sites e.g. the Nasca Lines in Peru remote and yet to discover archaeological areas in tropical forests in central America European countries south Asian changing landscapes and environments which are arid nowadays but were probably full of woody vegetation in the past Finally the reader can learn about the state of the art of education initiatives to train site managers in the use of space technologies in support of their activities and can understand the legal aspects involved in the application of EO and RS to address current challenges of African heritage preservation

Reading and Mapping Hardy's Roads Scott Rode, 2006-06-23 This book examines Thomas Hardy's representations of the road and the ways the archaeological and historical record of roads inform his work Through an analysis of the uneven and often competing road signs found within three of his major novels The Return of the Native Tess of the D'Urbervilles and Jude the Obscure and by mapping the road travels of his protagonists this book argues that the road as represented by Hardy provides a palimpsest that critiques the Victorian construction of social and sexual identities Balancing modern exigencies with mythic possibilities Hardy's fictive roads exist as contested spaces that channel desire for middle class assimilation even as they provide the means both to reinforce and to resist conformity to hegemonic authority Media Studies Paul

Long, Beth Johnson, Shana MacDonald, Schem Rogerson Bader, Tim Wall, 2021-08-19 This thoroughly revised and updated third edition provides a comprehensive introduction to the various approaches to the field explaining why media messages matter how media businesses prosper and why media is integral to defining contemporary life The text is divided into three parts Media texts and meanings Producing media and Media and social contexts exploring the ways in which various media forms make meaning are produced and regulated and how society culture and history are defined by such forms Encouraging students to actively engage in media research and analysis each chapter seeks to guide readers through key questions and ideas in order to empower them to develop their own scholarship expertise and investigations of the media worlds in which we live Fully updated to reflect the contemporary media environment the third edition includes new case studies covering topics such as Brexit podcasts Love Island Captain Marvel Black Lives Matter Netflix data politics the Kardashians President Trump fake news the post Covid world and perspectives on global media forms This is an essential introduction for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies film studies the sociology of the media and popular culture 52 Wildlife Weekends James Lowen, 2018-04-06 This first guide to British wildlife researching family history online while avoiding inaccurate incomplete or misleading information The internet has revolutionized family history research every day new records and resources are placed online and new methods of sharing research and communicating become available Never before has it been so easy to research family history and to gain a better understanding of who we are and where we came from But as British genealogist Chris Paton demonstrates in this straightforward practical guide while the internet is an enormous asset it is also something to be wary of Researchers need to take a cautious approach to the information they acquire on the web Where did the original material come from Has it been accurately reproduced Why was it put online What has been left out and what is still to come As he leads researchers through the multitude of resources that are now accessible online with an emphasis on UK and Ireland sites Chris Paton helps to answer these questions He shows what the internet can and cannot do and he warns against the various traps researchers can fall into along the way

A Guide to Tracing Your Family History using the Census Emma Jolly,2020-08-30 The census is an essential survey of our population and it is a source of basic information for local and national government and for various organizations dealing with education housing health and transport Providing the researcher with a fascinating insight into who we were in the past Emma Jolly s new handbook is a useful tool for anyone keen to discover their family history With detailed accessible and authoritative coverage it is full of advice on how to explore and get the most from the records Each census from 1841 to 1911 is described in detail and later censuses are analyzed too The main focus is on the census in England and Wales but censuses in Scotland Ireland the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man are all examined and the differences explained Particular emphasis is placed on the rapidly expanding number of websites that offer census information making the process of research far easier to carry out The extensive appendix gathers together all the key resources in one place Emma Jolly s guide is an ideal introduction and tool for anyone who is researching the life and times of an ancestor Hillforts: Britain, Ireland and the Nearer Continent Gary Lock,Ian Ralston,2019-06-27 The Atlas of Hillforts of Britain and Ireland project 2012 2016 compiled a massive database on hillforts by a team drawn from the Universities of Oxford Edinburgh and Cork This volume outlines the history of the project offers preliminary assessments of the online digital Atlas and presents initial research studies using Atlas data Digital inclusion in Wales Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee,2009-08-04 The Wales Office and the Welsh Assembly Government must ensure UK digital inclusion initiatives meet Welsh needs and build on existing good work to deliver on Welsh digital ambitions says the Welsh Affairs Committee in a report published today This report Digital Inclusion in Wales examines the use of digital technologies in Wales highlights the urgent need for the eradication of broadband notspots areas with limited or no access to high speed internet connections and says this issue must continue to receive priority attention There should be more support to help a wider range of people use technology effectively Employers told the Committee they need staff with better IT skills and more training opportunities The Committee recommends the Welsh Assembly Government explicitly includes this issue in its digital inclusion strategy The digital inclusion agenda is a complex mix of reserved and devolved matters This brings a risk that key issues can be overlooked for example no account has been taken of Welsh language speakers needs in the Government s Digital Inclusion Action Plan The Secretary of State for Wales must ensure that bodies in Wales across all sectors are fully engaged with initiatives and that the next stage of Digital Britain adequately reflects Welsh needs Higher education institutions also have a vital role to play and should be involved in any new research opportunities The Welsh Assembly already has successful digital inclusion projects in Wales and it should find a way to become fully involved with the UK digital inclusion and Digital Britain work so it does not miss out on policy developments and funding opportunities The Committee also recommends the creation of a one stop shop providing advice on the risks for young people using technology and commends the Assembly s work tackling internet related crimes which it says should be promoted as part of the economic development strategy in Wales Grammatical Variation in British English Dialects Benedikt Szmrecsanyi,2013 An exploration of grammatical differences between British English dialects drawing on authentic speech data collected in over thirty counties The book presents a new approach known as corpus based dialectometry which focuses on the joint quantitative measurement of dozens of grammatical features to gauge regional differences Shaw's Tourist's Picturesque Guide to North Wales.
