Northern Ireland Time Of Choice:

The Gun in Politics J. Bowyer Bell, 2017-07-12 Irish history sounds a long litany of grievance and vengeance lost battles escaped earls and institutionalized injustice The gun certainly in this century has played a prominent part In The Gun in Politics J Bowyer Bell presents the story of one Ireland the Ireland of the Troubles and about an approach to understanding political violence In particular he examines the Irish Republic Army the longest enduring unsuccessful revolutionary organization He describes the covert world of gunmen and the great game they play in the street His is a lively telling account of sophisticated weapons transfer of the impact of civil war on society and of appropriate democratic responses to terrorism Bell's association with active Republicans his endless tea seminars at the United Irishman drinks at Hennessy's and constant conversation throughout Ireland on political matters over a period of twenty years has provided the author with unique background for this guide to a fascinating though brutal undercurrent of Irish history

A Democratic South Africa? Donald L. Horowitz, 2023-04-28 A Democratic South Africa Constitutional Engineering in a Divided Society explores the formidable challenges of building a democratic system in a society as racially and ethnically divided as South Africa The book underscores the complexity of crafting institutions and processes that can foster inclusivity and stability in a deeply polarized setting South Africa's history of apartheid has left a legacy of distrust and ideological division with extreme political forces at both ends of the spectrum threatening the democratic experiment The author addresses critical questions of constitutional design minority rights protection and electoral systems emphasizing the necessity of innovative solutions to counter conflict and promote intergroup cooperation The study situates South Africa's democratization within a broader comparative context highlighting its potential as a case study for other divided societies It examines how democratic processes can transform relationships among political actors even in unpromising conditions By focusing on the interplay between constitutional processes and institutional design the book offers insights into how participation negotiation and decision making shape democratic outcomes Ultimately it presents South Africa as a quintessential challenge to democratic conflict management where success could provide valuable lessons for fostering democracy in similarly fragmented contexts This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991

Northern Ireland Richard Rose, 1976-12-01 The Northern Ireland Assembly Sean Haughey, 2023-09-08 Northern Ireland's power sharing Assembly is understudied in the legislative studies literature Having been suspended or de facto suspended for around 40% of its existence conversation has tended to focus more on the wider political problems in which the Assembly has been enmeshed and less on its day to day functions as a legislature This book is the first to examine how the Assembly fulfils the four core functions of a legislature representation linkage scrutiny and policy making Using Members of the Legislative Assembly MLAs as the primary unit of analysis the book explores who and how MLAs represent their approach to cultivating links with constituents their use of parliamentary scrutiny tools and their contribution to law making The book grounds its analysis in original data sourced from elite interviews surveys parliamentary questions legislation and the Official Report of parliamentary proceedings Readers will therefore be able to reflect on whether the Assembly's often poor reputations comport with empirical realities This book contributes to debates in the legislative studies and consociational power sharing literatures and will be of interest to students and scholars of parliaments devolution and Northern Ireland politics

Decision Costs and Democracy Robert E. Bohrer II, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 This text addresses the variations in democratic institutional design and seeks to determine not only if these differences matter but also to explain how they matter Using data from established economically well off systems the book shows that not only are there a multitude of ways to construct a democracy but also how a democracy is constructed influences the outcomes produced by that system That is to say institutional differences create distinct incentives for behaviour that in turn influence the type of outcome produced

State and Nation in the United Kingdom Michael Keating, 2021-04-08 The United Kingdom has often been seen as a unitary nation state This book argues that it should be understood as a plurinational union in which the key elements of demos telos and ethos are contested Except in the mid twentieth century its territorial boundaries have been contested and the matter of sovereignty has never definitely been settled Since the end of the twentieth century devolution to Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland has made this more apparent With the weakening of the British national project tensions between the centre and the peripheral nations have grown greatly exacerbated by Brexit Eurosceptics have long argued that membership of the European Union is inconsistent with the sovereignty of the British people and Parliament On another reading however both the UK and the EU are plurinational unions and highly compatible The EU indeed served as an important external support system for the devolution settlement Brexit destabilizes it Unionism historically served as a doctrine and a set of practices seeking to reconcile a unitary state with a plurinational reality Since devolution it has struggled to come to terms with the new constitutional reality or embrace the idea of shared sovereignty The Union is under increasing strain but there is no simple way of resolving these strains either by secession of the component nations or a return to the unitary state The peoples of these islands need to find new constitutional concepts for living together in a world in which traditional ideas of national sovereignty have lost their relevance

Hard Choices Hillary Rodham Clinton, 2014-06-10 HILLARY RODHAM CLINTON'S INSIDE ACCOUNT OF THE CRISIS CHOICES AND CHALLENGES SHE FACED DURING HER FOUR YEARS AS AMERICA'S 67TH SECRETARY OF STATE AND HOW THOSE EXPERIENCES DRIVE HER VIEW OF THE FUTURE INCLUDING A NEW EPILOGUE All of us face hard choices in our lives Hillary Rodham Clinton writes at the start of this personal chronicle of years at the centre of world events Life is about making such choices Our choices and how we handle them shape the people we become In the aftermath of her 2008 presidential run she expected to return to representing New York in the United States Senate To her surprise her formal rival for the Democratic Party nomination newly elected President Barack Obama asked her to serve in his administration as Secretary of State This memoir is the story of the four extraordinary and historic years that followed and the hard choices that she and her colleagues confronted Secretary Clinton and President Obama had to decide how to repair fractured alliances wind down two wars and address a global financial crisis They faced a rising competitor in China growing threats from Iran and North Korea and revolutions across the Middle East Along the way they grappled with some of the toughest dilemmas of US foreign policy especially the decision to send Americans into harm's way from Afghanistan to Libya to the hunt for Osama bin Laden By the end of her tenure Secretary Clinton had visited 112 countries travelled nearly one million miles and gained a truly global perspective on many of the major trends reshaping the landscape of the twenty first century from economic inequality to climate change to revolutions in energy communications and health Drawing on conversations with numerous leaders and experts Secretary Clinton offers her views on what it will take for the United States to compete and thrive in an interdependent world She makes a passionate case for human rights and the full participation in society of girls youth and LGBT people An astute eyewitness to decades of social change she distinguishes the trendlines from the headlines and describes the progress occurring throughout the world day after day Secretary Clinton's descriptions of diplomatic conversations at the highest levels offer readers a masterclass in international relations as does her analysis of how we can best use smart power to deliver security and prosperity in a rapidly changing world one in which America remains the indispensable nation

Scotland's Choices Iain McLean, 2014-05-30 Scotland's Choices now fully revised for the critical last few months before the referendum explains the choice that Scotland will have to make in September 2014

The authors clearly explain the issues and how each of the options would be put into place Shaping health policy Mark Exworthy, Stephen Peckham, Martin Powell, Alison Hann, 2011-10-28 This collection examines the role that case studies play in understanding and explaining British health policy Overall the chapters cover the key health policy literatures in terms of the policy process analytical frameworks and some of the seminal moments of the NHS They have been written by leading health policy researchers in sociology social policy management and organisation studies The collection explores and promotes the case study as an under used method and thereby encourages a more reflective approach to policy learning by practitioners and academics The book will appeal to undergraduates post graduates and academics in social policy public management and health services research Educational Choices, Transitions and Aspirations in Europe Aina Tarabini, Nicola

Ingram, 2018-06-13 Educational Choices Transitions and Aspirations in Europe analyses educational choices and transitions in eight different European countries regions and provides an engaging means of considering issues of inequality through international comparisons The book is underpinned by explorations of theoretical perspectives and methodological approaches which share the common goal of highlighting and challenging educational inequalities in relation to political imaginings and discursive constructions of notions of aspirations and choice Beginning with an overview of the theoretical landscape the book posits ways of understanding transitional experiences through both a social and a political lens Comprising of chapters that explore these issues within the context of specific countries and at different stages of young people s transitions the collection examines the features of different European education systems and how they frame transitions and choices before providing an overall analysis of systemic institutional and subjective constraints on these processes The book uniquely opens and develops an intellectual conversation about different education systems with similar educational challenges and outcomes Assimilating key issues and solutions this volume also makes general recommendations for policy and practice that would help to promote greater equity and social justice The book covers a range of transition points and countries which should make it essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students with an interest in international perspectives on education It will be particularly useful for those working in education sociology social policy geography and politics
