Northside Poetry:

Northside Poetry Tone One, 2000-01-20 From Northside Poetry Growing up wasn't easy but it wasn't hard Mama just wanted me to be okay with my brothers sisters and myself All I wanted was to be okay with myself I don't need fame because fortune would be enough The people I've met in my life just heard me but didn't listen If people just took the time to listen to our problems there wouldn't be problems with us today It's not about who is smarter or richer it's about who is ahead of the class and how long can you stay there only the strong can survive I still feel the same way as I did then Step on them or they will step on you But in my joyful times I'm the lion who sleeps and the child in God's eyes My ladies and gentlemen I don't need you to gossip about me Cause it's still going on with my family Or I don't need a spotlight to determine who is the bad guy I know who I am Because we all have our own hell and it's killing me everyday thinking about mine If only I could go back in time where I started it all I would but I'm not God And I'm living my life just as you one day at a time I wrote this letter and poetry to all those who I love and all that I hate Thank you for listening to my confessions and my cries at night
