Clark,2014-11-03 Italians were among the first European settlers in California as fishermen from Italy arrived in the 1830s After gold was discovered in 1848 immigrants from all over the world came for the opportunity that California presented For the Italians they encountered a terrain and climate so similar to their homeland that many stayed on to make California their new home In San Joaquin County the Italian influence remains profound with the immigrants and their descendants helping develop the areas cultural agricultural and business climate into what it is today The legacy of the Italian pioneers has enriched San Joaquin County in immeasurable ways Every aspect of life here has been touched molded and made better by this industrious group who came to a distant land to make a better life United States Army in World War II Harry L. Coles, Albert K. Weinberg,1986 A documentary history with brief narrative introductions illustrating the evolution of civil affairs policy and practice in the Mediterranean and European theaters Most important of all in World War II soldiers became governors in a much broader sense than ever before so much more than was foreseen that the Army's specialized training proved scant preparation for perhaps the most important phase of their role. They became not merely the administrators of civilian life for the Army's immediate needs but at the same time the executors and at times even by force of circumstances the proposers of national and international political policy. This broader role arose from the fact that in World War II the Allies strove to realize from the very beginning of occupation political aims that had usually not been implemented during war or if during war at all not until active hostilities had ended. Thus in enemy countries civil affairs officials were immediately to extirpate totalitarian governmental and economic systems; in liberated countries they were as soon as possible to aid in restoring indigenous systems and authorities; and in both types of countries they were to make an all-out effort to effect gradual transition toward the envisaged postwar national and international order.
