Northwestern University School Of Speech A History:

Northwestern University School of Speech Lynn Miller Rein, 1981 A History of the School of Speech, Northwestern University James Lawrence Lardner, 1951 The SAGE Handbook of Performance Studies D. Soyini Madison, Judith Hamera, 2006 Publisher description The Most American Thing in America Charlotte Canning, 2005-09
Winner of the 2006 Barnard Hewitt Award for Excellence in Theatre History Between 1904 and the Great Depression Circuit Chautauquas toured the rural United States reflecting and reinforcing its citizens ideas attitudes and politics every summer through music the Jubilee Singers an African American group were not always welcome in a time when millions of Americans belonged to the KKK lectures Civic Revivalist Charles Zueblin speaking on Militancy and Morals elocutionary readers Lucille Adams reading from Little Lord Fauntleroy dramas the Ben Greet Players cleaned up version of She Stoops to Conquer orations William Jennings Bryan speaking about the dangers of greed and special programs for children parades and mock weddings Theatre historians have largely ignored Circuit Chautauquas since they did not meet the conventional conditions of theatrical performance they were not urban they produced no innovative performance techniques stage material design effects or dramatic literature In this beautifully written and illustrated book Charlotte Canning establishes an analytical framework to reveal the Circuit Chautauquas as unique performances that both created and unified small town America One of the last strongholds of the American traditions of rhetoric and oratory the Circuits created complex intersections of community American democracy and performance Canning does not celebrate the Circuit Chautauquas wholeheartedly nor does she describe them with the same cynicism offered by Sinclair Lewis She acknowledges their goals of community support informed public thinking and popular education but also focuses on the reactionary and regressive ideals they sometimes embraced In the true interdisciplinary spirit of Circuit Chautauquas she reveals the Circuit platforms as places where Americans performed what it meant to be American The Elocutionists Marian Wilson Kimber, 2017-01-19 Emerging in the 1850s elocutionists recited poetry or drama with music to create a new type of performance The genre dominated by women achieved remarkable popularity Yet the elocutionists and their art fell into total obscurity during the twentieth century Marian Wilson Kimber restores elocution with music to its rightful place in performance history Gazing through the lenses of gender and genre Wilson Kimber argues that these female artists transgressed the previous boundaries between private and public domains Their performances advocated for female agency while also contributing to a new social construction of gender Elocutionists proud purveyors of wholesome entertainment pointedly contrasted their acceptable feminine attributes against those of morally suspect actresses As Wilson Kimber shows their influence far outlived their heyday Women the primary composers of melodramatic compositions did nothing less than create a tradition that helped of negating his system By pointing out the connections among Aristotelian rhetoric the contemporary university and the contemporary writing teacher Neel shows that Aristotle s frightening social theories are as alive today as are Aristotelian notions of discourse Neel explains that by their very nature teachers must speak with a professional voice It is through showing how to hear one s professional voice that Neel explores the notion of professional discourse that originates with Aristotle In maintaining that one must pay a high price in order to speak through Aristotle s theory or to assume the role of professional he argues that no neutral ground exists either for pedagogy or for the analysis of pedagogy Neel concludes this discussion by proposing that Aristotelian sophistry is both an antidote to Aristotelian racism sexism and bigotry and a way of allowing Aristotelian categories of discourse to remain useful Finally as an Aristotelian a teacher and a writer Neel responds both to Aristotle and to professionalism by rethinking the influence of the past and reviving the voice of Aristotelian sophistry
