The Short Story and Photography, 1880's-1980's Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1998 For over a hundred years stories about photographs and photography have reflected the profound uncertainties and inconclusive endings of the modern world For many writers photography supposedly the most realistic of the arts turns out to be the most ambiguous As Jane Rabb observes in her introduction a number of the stories in this collection involve mysteries perhaps because photography has a capacity for both documentary reality and moral and psychological ambiguity Many nineteenth century writers represented here including Thomas Hardy and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle helped make short fiction as respectable as the novel Some of them were even serious photographers themselves The twentieth century is arguably a golden age for both the short story and photography This collection includes examples from a worldly group of writer Eug ne Ionesco Julio Cort zar Michel Tournier and Italo Calvino as well as the Chinese writer Bing Xin and John Updike Cynthia Ozick and Raymond Carver In this wide range of stories varying from sentimental to obsessive to sinister to tragic and even fatal the reader will find provocative examples of the confluence of the short story and photography both once considered the bastard stepchildren of literature and art

French Philosophy: A Very Short Introduction Stephen Gaukroger, Knox Peden, 2020-07-23 French culture is unique in that philosophy has played a significant role from the early modern period onwards intimately associated with political religious and literary debates as well as with epistemological and scientific ones While Latin was the language of learning there was a universal philosophical literature but with the rise of vernacular literatures things changed and a distinctive national form of philosophy arose in France This Very Short Introduction covers French philosophy from its origins in the sixteenth century up to the present analysing it within its social political and cultural context Beginning with psychology and epistemology Stephen Gaukroger and Knox Peden then move onto the emergence of radical philosophy in the eighteenth century before considering post revolutionary philosophy in the nineteenth century philosophy in the world wars the radical thought of the 1960s and finally French philosophy today Throughout they explore the dilemma sustained by the markedly national conception of French philosophy and its history of speaking out on matters of universal concern

The Short Story Andrew Kahn,2021-12-09 What defines a modern short story is much more than a question of length Despite the efforts of early pioneers like Edgar Allan Poe the genre was originally synonymous with the anecdote or tale and seen more as entertainment than art However it has become far more than that and this Very Short Introduction considers afresh the form s ongoing innovations in plot construction capacity for psychological insight and ability to offer intensely concentrated perceptions This book charts the rise of the short story from its original appearance in magazines and newspapers largely in the United States and Great Britain For much of the nineteenth century tales were written for the press and the form s history is marked by engagement with popular fiction From the later nineteenth century the short story earned a reputation for its skillful use of plot design and character study distinct from the novel After the First World War it found outlets in high brow publications and single author collections as well as anthologies were regularly published Exploring the form s techniques and themes Andrew Kahn considers the continuity and variation in key structures and techniques such as the beginning the creation of voice the ironic turn or plot twist and how writers manage endings Throughout he draws on examples from an international and flourishing corpus of work with close analysis of classic and lesser known stories by American Canadian Irish Australian Russian and French masters such as James Baldwin Grace Paley Alice Munro Elizabeth Taylor William Trevor Helen Garner Chekhov and Guy de Maupassant Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Great Short Books Kenneth C.
