Norwegian Local History:

Norwegian Local History Dennis Auburn Hill, 1989 , International Genealogy and Local History Ruth Hedegaard, Elizabeth Anne Melrose, 2008-08-27 This book contains the papers delivered at sessions organised by the Genealogy and Local History Section at the annual conferences of the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions IFLA between 2001 and 2005 many of these are updated versions of the original presentations A wide range of significant issues and trends in historical and family research is covered The authors all experts in their own fields address those engaged in delivering genealogy and local history services in libraries archives and museums across the world Moreover they focus on the growing army of enthusiasts directly engaged in tracing their own ancestral and local history Several papers give useful hints on how various resources can be used to further personal research These include the exciting opportunities offered by the digitisation of primary resources and by the impact of the powerful new technology among other things now on offer through DNA profiling Norwegian Newspapers in America Odd S. Lovoll, 2010 A comprehensive look at the Norwegian language press celebrating the tireless writers editors and publishers whose efforts helped guide Norwegian immigrants on their path to becoming Norwegian Americans Guide to Nordic Bibliography Erland Munch-Petersen, 1984 Zen and the Art of Local History Carol Kammen, Bob Beatty, 2014-08-14 Zen and the Art of Local History is an engaging interactive conversation that conveys the exciting nature of local history Divided into six major themes the book covers the scope and breadth of local history Being a Local Historian Topics and Sources Staying Relevant Getting it Right Writing History History Organizations Each chapter features one of Carol Kammen's memorable editorials from History News Her editorial is a call Each is followed by a response from one of more than five dozen prominent players in state and local history These Respondents include local and public historians archivists volunteers and history professionals across the kaleidoscopic spectrum of local history Among this group are Katherine Kane Robert Bob Richmond Charlie Bryan and Cinnamon Catlin Legutko The result is a series of dialogues on important topics in the field of local history This interactivity of these conversations makes Zen and the Art of Local History a unique offering in the public history field Dig Where You Stand Sven Lindqvist, 2023-03-14 On the 45th anniversary of its initial publication in Swedish Sven Lindqvist's polemic on history politics and power is finally available in English for the first time This volume brings Dig Where You Stand Sven Lindqvist's classic text on history power and politics to English speaking audiences for the first time First published in 1978 Dig Where You Stand is a rallying cry for workers to become researchers to follow the money take on the role as experts on their job and dig out its hidden histories in order to take a vital step towards social and economic transformation A how to guide that inspired an entire movement it makes the case that everyone not just academics can learn how to critically and rigorously explore history especially their own history and in doing so find a blueprint for how to transform society for the better In a world where the balance of power is overwhelmingly stacked against the working class

Dig Where You Stand's manifesto for the empowerment of workers through self education historical research and political solidarity is as important and relevant today as it was in 1978

The Norwegian Mission's Literacy Work in Colonial and Independent Madagascar Ellen Veä Rosnes, 2018-12-07 Offering an original historical perspective on literacy work in Africa this book examines the role of the Norwegian Lutheran mission in Madagascar and sheds light on the motivations that drove colonizing powers literacy work Focusing on both colonial and independent Madagascar Rosnes examines how literacy practices were facilitated through mission schools and the impact on the reading and writing skills to Malagasy children and youth Analysing how literacy work influenced identity formation and power relations in the Malagasy society the author offers new insights into the field of language and education in Africa

Undaunted Charles H. Russell, 2005-10-20 Elise Waerenskjold is known to fans of Texas women writers as the lady with the pen from the title of a book of her writings A forward looking journalist she sent letters and articles back to Norway that encouraged others to follow her footsteps to Texas where a small colony of Norwegian settlers were making a new life alongside but distinct from other European immigrants Undaunted is the first full biography of Waerenskjold during her Texas years a life story that shows much about Texas especially in the Norwegian colonies from 1847 until near the end of the century Moreover it tells the story of a strong and independent thinker who championed women's rights was pro Union and against slavery though her husband was in the Confederate army and was subsequently murdered in Reconstruction era violence and left an intriguing body of writing about life on the edges of Texas settlement Charles Russell's vivid account of Waerenskjold describes not only her influence among her countrymen but also her own life which was a saga of considerable drama itself It offers a clear and entertaining window onto immigrant life in Texas and the issues that shaped women's lives and elicited their talents in an earlier century Beyond Memory Alexandre Dessingué, Jay Winter, 2015-08-14 Beyond Memory Silence and the Aesthetics of Remembrance analyses the intricate connections between silence acts of remembrance and acts of forgetting and relates the topic of silence to the international research field of Cultural Memory Studies It engages with the most recent work in the field by viewing silence as a remedy to the traditionally binary approach to our understanding of remembering and forgetting The international team of contributors examine case studies from colonialism war politics and slavery from across the globe as well as drawing examples from literature philosophy and sites of memory to draw three main conclusions Firstly that the relationship between remembering and forgetting is relational rather than hermetic and the space between the two is often occupied by silence Secondly silence is a force in itself capable of stimulating more or less remembrance Finally that silence is a necessary and key element in the interaction between the human mind and the outer world and enables people to challenge their understanding of art music literature history and memory With an introduction by the editors discussing Memory Studies and concluding remarks by Astrid Erll this collection demonstrates that acceptance and consideration of silence as having both a performative and aesthetic dimension is an essential component of history and memory studies Women in War Kjersti Ericsson, 2016-03-09 This book examines what happens to women and gender relations in times of upheaval The experience of Norway during World War II with some visits to other parts of the world as well is used to demonstrate general gendered issues that are actualized in wars both past and present The authors explore whether gendered cultural conceptions influence the way war is remembered and represented both collectively and individually The collection discusses the various roles of women during the war from resistance fighter to German tart and how they were dealt with and treated in the aftermath The chapters examine the position of Jewish victims of persecution foreign female labourers and gay men as well as the gendered response exhibited by the courts in post war trials of female state police employees The book concludes by following the struggle to bring women's role in war and peacebuilding onto the international agenda This book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of criminology as well as peace and conflict studies political science sociology of law history social work social pedagogy psychology and gender studies Norwegian settlers in Alberta Jan Harold Brunvand, 1974-01-01 A preliminary study of the ethnocultural traditions of Norwegian settlers in the Camrose area Alberta Published in English Norwegian Migration to America ... Theodore Christian Blegen, Norwegian-American Historical Association, 1931 Newsletter - The Norwegian-American Historical Association Norwegian-American Historical Association, 2000 Nordic Childhoods 1700-1960 Reidar Aasgaard, Marcia Bunge, Merethe Roos, 2017-08-04 This volume strengthens interest and research in the fields of both Childhood Studies and Nordic Studies by exploring conceptions of children and childhood in the Nordic countries Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden Although some books have been written about the history of childhood in these countries few are multidisciplinary focus on this region as a whole or are available in English This volume contains essays by scholars from the fields of literature history theology religious studies intellectual history cultural studies Scandinavian studies education music and art history Contributors study the history of childhood in a wide variety of sources such as folk and fairy tales legal codes religious texts essays on education letters sermons speeches hymns paintings novels and school essays written by children themselves They also examine texts intended specifically for children including text books catechisms newspapers songbooks and children s literature By bringing together scholars from multiple disciplines who raise distinctive questions about childhood and take into account a wide range of sources the book offers a fresh and substantive contribution to the history of childhood in the Nordic countries between 1700 and 1960 The volume also helps readers trace the historical roots of the internationally recognized practices and policies regarding child welfare within the Nordic countries today and prompts readers from any country to reflect on their own conceptions of and commitments to children

The Promise Fulfilled Odd Sverre Lovoll,1998 Library and Information Studies for Arctic Social Sciences and Humanities Spencer Acadia,Marthe Tolnes Fjellestad,2020-11-26 Library and Information Studies for Arctic Social Sciences and Humanities serves as a key interdisciplinary title that links the social sciences and humanities with current issues trends and projects in library archival and information sciences within shared Arctic frameworks and geographies Including contributions from professionals and academics working across and on the Arctic the book presents recent research theoretical inquiry and applied professional endeavours at academic and public libraries as well as archives museums government institutions and other organisations Focusing on efforts that further Arctic knowledge and research papers present local regional and institutional case studies to conceptually and empirically describe real life research in which the authors are engaged Topics covered include the complexities of developing and managing multilingual resources working in geographically isolated areas curating combinations of local regional national and international content collections and understanding historical and contemporary colonial industrial influences in indigenous knowledge Library and Information Studies for Arctic Social Sciences and Humanities will be essential reading for academics researchers and students working the fields of library archival and information or data science as well as those working in the humanities and social sciences more generally It should also be of great interest to librarians archivists curators and information or data professionals around the globe
