Nostalgia For The Present:

Modernity At Large Arjun Appadurai, 1996 Nostalgia for the Present Kofi Natambu, 1985 Nostalgia for the Present Андрей Вознесенский, Edward Moore Kennedy, Arthur Miller, 1978 Nostalgia for the Present Andrei Voznesenskii, Max Hayward, 1980 Work in Progress Rieke Jordan, 2019-05-02 Work in Progress Curatorial Labor in Twenty First Century American Fiction interrogates contemporary texts that showcase forms of reading practices that feel anachronistic and laborious in times of instantaneity and short buffering times Objects of analysis include the graphic narrative Building Stories by Chris Ware the music album Song Reader by the indie rock artist Beck Hansen and the computer game Kentucky Route Zero by the programming team Cardboard Computer These texts stage their fragmentary nature and alleged unfinishedness as a quintessential part of both their narrative and material modus operandi These works in and of progress feel both contemporary and retro in the 21st century They draw upon and work against our expectations of interactive art in the digital age incorporating and likewise rejecting digital forms and practices This underlines the material and narrative flexibilities of the objects for no outcome or reading experience is the same or can be replicated It becomes apparent that the texts presuppose a reader who invests her spare time in figuring these texts out diagnosing a contorted work leisure dichotomy working these stories out is a significant part of the reading experience for the reader curatorial labor This conjures up a reader who as the author argues is turned into a curator and creative entity of and in these texts for she implements and reassembles the options made available Nostalgia for the Present Nicole Drapeau, 2015-04-20

Computational and Cognitive Approaches to Narratology Ogata, Takashi, Akimoto, Taisuke, 2016-07-15 Studying narratives is often the best way to gain a good understanding of how various aspects of human information are organized and integrated the narrator employs specific informational methods to build the whole structure of a narrative through combining temporally constructed events in light of an array of relationships to the narratee and these methods reveal the interaction of the rational and the sensitive aspects of human information Computational and Cognitive Approaches to Narratology discusses issues of narrative related information and communication technologies cognitive mechanism and analyses and theoretical perspectives on narratives and the story generation process Focusing on emerging research as well as applications in a variety of fields including marketing philosophy psychology art and literature this timely publication is an essential reference source for researchers professionals and graduate students in various information technology cognitive studies design and creative fields Bruce Springsteen, Cultural Studies, and the Runaway American Dream Jerry Zolten, 2016-05-23 There is little question about the incredible power of Bruce Springsteen's work as a particularly transformative art as a lyrical and musical fusion that never shies away from sifting through the rubble of human conflict As Rolling Stone magazine's Parke Puterbaugh observes Springsteen is a peerless songwriter and consummate artist whose every painstakingly crafted album serves as an impassioned and literate pulse taking of a generation's fortunes He is the foremost live performer in the history of rock and roll a self described prisoner of the music he loves for whom every show is played as if it might be his last In recent decades Puterbaugh adds Springsteen s music developed a conscience that didn t ignore the darkening of the runaway American Dream as the country greedily blundered its way through the 1980s and into the sociocultural detritus of a new century paralysed by isolation and uncertainty Bruce Springsteen Cultural Studies and the Runaway American Dream reflects the significant critical interest in understanding Springsteen s resounding impact upon the ways in which we think and feel about politics religion gender and the pursuit of the American Dream By assembling a host of essays that engage in interdisciplinary commentary regarding one of Western culture s most enduring artistic and socially radicalizing phenomena this book offers a cohesive intellectual and often entertaining introduction to the many ways in which Springsteen continues to impact our lives by challenging our minds through his lyrics and music The Mnemonic Imagination E. Keightley, M. Pickering, 2012-07-31 An exploration of some of the key theoretical challenges and conceptual issues facing the emergent field of memory studies from the relationship between experience and memory to the commercial exploitation of nostalgia using the key concept of the mnemonic imagination Post-Narratology Through Computational and Cognitive Approaches Ogata, Takashi, Akimoto, Taisuke, 2019-02-01 Studying narratives is an ideal method to gain a good understanding of how various aspects of human information are organized and integrated The concept and methods of a narrative which have been explored in narratology and literary theories are likely to be connected with contemporary information studies in the future including those in computational fields such as AI and in cognitive science This will result in the emergence of a significant conceptual and methodological foundation for various technologies of novel contents media human interface etc Post Narratology Through Computational and Cognitive Approaches explores the new possibilities and directions of narrative related technologies and theories and their implications on the innovative design development and creation of future media and contents such as automatic narrative or story generation systems through interdisciplinary approaches to narratology that are dependent on computational and cognitive studies While highlighting topics including artificial intelligence narrative analysis and rhetoric generation this book is ideally designed for designers creators developers researchers and advanced level students Melancholic Landscapes Barak David Green, 1998 Against Exoticism Bruce Kapferer, Dimitrios Theodossopoulos, 2016-12-01 Anthropology begins in the encounter with the exotic what stands outside of and challenges conventional or established understandings This volume confronts the distortions of orientalism ethnocentrism and romantic nostalgia to expose exoticism defined as the construction of false and unsubstantiated difference Its aim is to re found the importance of the exotic in the development of anthropological knowledge and to overcome methodological dualisms and dualistic approaches Chapters look at the risk of exoticism in the perspectivist approach the significant exotic corrective of L vi Strauss vis vis an imperializing Eurocentrism our nostalgic relationship with the ethnographic record and the attempts of local communities to readapt previous exoticized referents renegotiate their identity and counter exoticize This volume demonstrates a range of approaches that will be valuable for researchers and students seeking to effectively establish comparative methodological frameworks that transcend issues of relativism and universalism The Pursuit of History John Tosh,2021-08-11 This classic introduction to the study of history invites the reader to stand back and consider some of its most fundamental questions what is the point of studying history How do we know about the past Does an objective historical truth exist and can we ever access it In answering these central questions John Tosh argues that despite the impression of fragmentation created by Postmodernism in recent years history is a coherent discipline which still bears the imprint of its nineteenth century origins Consistently clear sighted he provides a lively and compelling guide to a complex and sometimes controversial subject while making his readers vividly aware of just how far our historical knowledge is conditioned by the character of the sources and the methods of the historians who work on them History does not stand still and this updated seventh edition deals with complex and wide ranging material in a clear and accessible way that is up to date with current historiographical trends A fuller treatment is given to the importance of digitization both in the section on source criticism and in relation to public history reflecting its growing importance within historical study Both the text and references have been expanded to include a fuller range of both American and global scholarship and the book concludes with a forthright reminder that historical perspective illuminates major problems in the present Lucid and engaging this edition retains the user friendly features that make it a favourite with both students and lecturers including marginal glosses illustrations and suggestions for further reading Along with its companion website this is an essential guide to the theory and practice of history Stanford Literature Review ,1993 The Sentimental in Chinese Cinema Hui Miao,2022-03-30 This book explores manifestations and perpetuations of the sentimental in Mainland Chinese cinema from the 1990s to the 2000s A sentimental Chinese cinema one that articulates notions of homecoming and belonging emerged in the 1990s with its distinctive styles The representations and configurations of this evolving style of Chinese cinematic expression are not only thought provoking in their own right but also in the way they contrast with past forms of Chinese sentimental cinema and with sentimental aesthetics elsewhere in the world These new representations have transformed established family centred expressions of the sentimental in Chinese cinema The new sentimental emphasises togetherness and a yearning for belonging which often appear in the themes of homecoming and home longing This also forms a cultural resistance towards the increasingly alienating and isolating forces of globalisation and urbanisation This book analyses the sociocultural conditions that have allowed for a renewed understanding of the sentimental and the cultural identity markers that are perpetually under contestation History and Tropology F. R. Ankersmit,1994-01-01 00 The chief business of twentieth century philosophy is to reckon with twentieth century history claimed Collingwood In this remarkable collection of essays many published for the first time Frank Ankersmit demonstrates the prescience of that remark and goes a long way toward meeting its challenge Responding to the work of Hayden White Arthur Danto and Hans Georg Gadamer he examines such issues as the difference between historical representation and artistic expression the status of metaphor in historical description and the relation of postmodernism to historicism Ankersmit's fluent grasp of European thought and his ability to incorporate concepts from literary theory art history the philosophy of science and political thought into his analyses assure that this collection will interest readers throughout the humanities The chief business of twentieth century philosophy is to reckon with twentieth century history claimed Collingwood In this remarkable collection of essays many published for the first time Frank Ankersmit demonstrates the prescience of that remark and goes a long way toward meeting its challenge Responding to the work of Hayden White Arthur Danto and Hans Georg Gadamer he examines such issues as the difference between historical representation and artistic expression the status of metaphor in historical description and the relation of postmodernism to historicism Ankersmit's fluent grasp of European thought and his ability to incorporate concepts from literary theory art history the philosophy of science and political thought into his analyses assure that this collection will interest readers throughout the humanities

Modernity, Domesticity and Temporality in Russia Rebecca Friedman, 2020-07-09 Revolution war dislocation famine and rivers of blood these traumas dominated everyday life at turn of the century Russia As Modernity Domesticity and Temporality in Russia explains amidst such public turmoil Russians turned inwards embracing and carefully curating the home in an effort to express both personal and national identities From the nostalgic landed estate with its backward gaze to the present focused and efficient urban apartment to the utopian communal dreams of a Soviet future the idea of time was deeply embedded in Russian domestic life Rebecca Friedman is the first to weave together these twin concepts of time and space in relation to Russian culture and in doing so this book reveals how the revolutionary domestic experiments reflected a desire by the state and by individuals to control the rapidly changing landscape of modern Russia Drawing on extensive popular and literary sources both visual and textual this fascinating book enables readers to understand the reshaping of Russian space and time as part of a larger revolutionary drive to eradicate however ambivalently the 19th century gentrified sloth in favour of the proficient Soviet comrade

No Return, No Refuge Howard Adelman, Elazar Barkan, 2011-07-05 Refugee displacement is a global phenomenon that has uprooted millions of individuals over the past century In the 1980s repatriation became the preferred option for resolving the refugee crisis As human rights achieved global eminence refugees' right of return fell under its umbrella Yet return as a right and its practice as a rite created a radical disconnect between principle and everyday practice and the repatriation of refugees and Internally Displaced Persons IDPs remains elusive in cases of forced displacement of victims by ethnic conflict Reviewing cases of ethnic displacement throughout the twentieth century in Europe Asia and Africa Howard Adelman and Elazar Barkan juxtapose the empirical lack of repatriation in cases of ethnic conflict unless accompanied by coercion The emphasis on repatriation during the last several decades has obscured other options leaving refugees to spend years warehoused in camps Repatriation takes place when identity defined by ethnicity or religion is not at the center of the displacing conflict or when the ethnic group to which the refugees belong are not a minority in their original country or in the region to which they want to return Rather than perpetuate a ritual belief in return as a right without the prospect of realization Adelman and Barkan call for solutions that bracket return as a primary focus in cases of ethnic conflict China Review ,2003 The Allure of Sports in Western Culture John Zilcosky,Marlo Alexandra Burks,2019-11-08 Sports are the most popular spectator events in the history of the world This volume demonstrates how sports shape societies and individuals The essays offer critical new insights and historical case studies from historians theorists literature scholars and athletes
