Young, 2002-10-30 Most historical studies bury us in wars and politics paying scant attention to the everyday effects of pop culture Welcome to America's other history the arts activities common items and popular opinions that profoundly impacted our national way of life The twelve narrative chapters in this volume provide a textured look at everyday life youth and the many different sides of American culture during the 1930s Additional resources include a cost comparison of common goods and services a timeline of important events notes arranged by chapter an extensive bibliography for further reading and a subject index The dark cloud of the Depression shadowed most Americans' lives during the 1930s Books movies songs and stories of the 1930s gave Americans something to hope for by depicting a world of luxury and money Major figures of the age included Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers Irving Berlin Amelia Earhart Duke Ellington the Marx Brothers Margaret Mitchell Cole Porter Joe Louis Babe Ruth Shirley Temple and Frank Lloyd Wright Innovations in technology and travel hinted at a Utopian society just off the horizon group sports and activities gave the unemployed masses ways to spend their days and a powerful new demographic the American teenager suddenly found itself courted by advertisers and entertainers The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 Rewriting the Thirties Keith Williams, Steven Matthews, 2014-09-25 Rewriting the Thirties questions the myth of the anti-modernist decade Conversely the editors argue it is a symptomatic transitional phase between modern and post-modern writing and politics at a time of cultural and technological change The text reconsiders some of the leading writers of the period in the light of recent theoretical developments through essays on the ambivalent assimilation of Modernist influences among proletarian and canonical novelists including James Barke and George Orwell and among poets including Auden MacNeice Swingler and Bunting and in the work of feminist writers Vera Brittain and Winifred Holtby In this substantial remapping the complexity and scope of literary critical debate at the time is discussed in relation to theatrical innovation audience attitudes to the mass medium of modernity cinema the poetics of suburbia consumerism and national ideology as well as the discursive strategies of British and American documentarism

Japanese Media at the Beginning of the 21st Century Katsuyuki Hidaka,2016-12-01 Hailed by Japanese critics as a milestone in the study of contemporary Japanese media this book explores the contemporary boom in Japanese media representations of the recent past Recent years have seen the production of an unprecedented number of films animation manga and television programmes representing a deeply nostalgic longing for the Japanese heyday of high economic growth in the 1960s and occasionally the 1970s known in Japan as the Sh wa 30s and 40s Hidaka provides a comprehensive account of an under researched contemporary Japanese media phenomenon by exploring why this nostalgia has been sparked at this particular historical juncture and how that period is represented in the Japanese media today The book accomplishes this through a detailed textual and narrative analysis of representative films and television programmes in relation to their social and cultural context While these nostalgic media renderings are seen by many critics as innocuous this study demonstrates that they do not show a simple yearning for the period but reflects a growing discontent with Japanese post war society In this regard this book concludes that the current nostalgia wave is a critical reaction to the recent past as it seeks to revise historiography through a processes of introspection within popular conceptions of the meta narrative of nostalgia Winner of the Japan Communication Association 2015 Outstanding Book Award Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971
