Not In Vain The Story Of North Africa Mission:

Not in Vain Francis Rue Steele,1981 The Story of Faith Missions Klaus Fiedler,1994 Interdenominational Faith Missions in Africa Klaus Fiedler,2018-03-13 It was not the European and American churches which evangelised Africa but the mission societies The missions from the Great Awakening such as the London Missionary Society and Church Missionary Society or the Holy Ghost Fathers and the White Fathers which started the process of Sub Saharan Africa becoming a Christian continent are well known and documented Less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of Africa North Africa the Sudan Belt and the Congo Basin Missions such as the Africa Inland Mission or Sudan Interior Mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ECWA in Nigeria and Africa Inland Church in Kenya It is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched Africa

Uncharted Mission D. C. Keane,2021-11-02 Too Soon to Celebrate Too Soon to Quit Lord why another mission agency There are already so many good ones Greg Livingstone cried out on a beach in 1983 But as he made his case to God that he should find someone else to change the world the answer became clear the world needed a new agency operating in a new way that would focus entirely on all Muslim peoples So began the wild risky worthy story told in Uncharted Mission a book that is more than the history of the founding of Frontiers D C Keane weaves together interviews with over one hundred missionaries who refused to accept the status quo in missions and were willing to go where no one had gone before to the Muslim frontiers In this inspiring true story you ll meet pastors engineers artists pilots and others whose lives changed course when they discovered that Muslims were largely left out of historic missionary efforts This is a book for innovators who ask as Greg Livingstone always asks How can we do this better How can we improve Don t simply admire the groundbreakers who went before us in this compelling narrative there is still work to be done There are still frontiers of mission for the next generation of Christians who want to change the world

American Evangelicals in Egypt Heather J. Sharkey, 2015-07-28 In 1854 American Presbyterian missionaries arrived in Egypt as part of a larger Anglo American Protestant movement aiming for worldwide evangelization Protected by British imperial power and later by mounting American global influence their enterprise flourished during the next century American Evangelicals in Egypt follows the ongoing and often unexpected transformations initiated by missionary activities between the mid nineteenth century and 1967 when the Six Day Arab Israeli War uprooted the Americans in Egypt Heather Sharkey uses Arabic and English sources to shed light on the many facets of missionary encounters with Egyptians These occurred through institutions such as schools and hospitals and through literacy programs and rural development projects that anticipated later efforts of NGOs To Egyptian Muslims and Coptic Christians missionaries presented new models for civic participation and for women s roles in collective worship and community life At the same time missionary efforts to convert Muslims and reform Copts stimulated new forms of Egyptian social activism and prompted nationalists to enact laws restricting missionary activities Faced by Islamic strictures and customs regarding apostasy and conversion and by expectations regarding the proper structure of Christian Muslim relations missionaries in Egypt set off debates about religious liberty that reverberate even today Ultimately the missionary experience in Egypt led to reconsiderations of mission policy and evangelism in ways that had long term repercussions for the culture of American Protestantism

Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe s most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba, 2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines

Religious Conversions in the Mediterranean World N. Marzouki, O. Roy, 2013-08-22 While globalization undermines ideas of the nation state in the Mediterranean conversions reveal how religion can unsettle existing political and social relations Through studies of conversions across the region this book examines the challenges that conversions represent for national legal and policy ways of dealing with religious minorities The Evangelization of the World: Jacques A. Blocher, Jacques Blandenier, 2012-12-06 Written in an engaging style and intended largely for a lay audience The Evangelization of the World tells the remarkable story of how Christianity grew from an insignificant Jewish sect in the first century until by the beginning of the twenty first century it had become the world s first truly global religion The book is careful to explain historical context and mission theory but the foci of the narrative are the great personalities of mission the Apostle Paul St

Martin of Tours St Patrick St Francis Xavier John Eliot Count Von Zinzendorf William Carey Robert Morrison David Livingstone Mary Slessor Albert Schweitzer and many others who make this account of the expansion of the church a fascinating and often dramatic tale In addition the book does not neglect the great mission conferences of the twentieth century nor does it avoid the controversial aspects of mission that in many instances continue to vex the movement today

Bebbington is a highly regarded historian. He holds a chair at the University of Stirling, has been President of the Ecclesiastical History Society, and has delivered numerous endowed lecture series as well as being deeply involved in the Dr Williams's Dissenting Academies Project. He is both a popular and influential academic historian whose writings have significantly shaped our thinking about the history of evangelicalism, Baptist life, and political developments. In Pathways and Patterns, colleagues, former research students, and friends who are indebted to Professor Bebbington and value his contribution to scholarship join together to pay tribute to his outstanding work. Not only has he stimulated academic endeavour, he has also given much personal support, not least to those in the Baptist Historical Society and in Colleges among them Spurgeon's College and Baylor University USA, where he is a Distinguished Visiting Professor. This volume reflects his wide involvements and the grateful esteem in which he is held. Among Professor Bebbington's achievements has been both instituting and masterminding the very important International Conference on Baptist Studies (ICOBBS) held every three years in different parts of the world. It is appropriate then that this volume was presented to him at the Seventh ICOBBS Conference held in Manchester, July 2015.

Cultural Conversions Heather J. Sharkey, 2013-08-29. The essays in this volume study cultural conversions that arose from missionary activities in the Middle East, Africa, and South Asia during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Both Catholic and Protestant missionaries effected changes that often went beyond what they had intended, sometimes backfiring against the missions. These changes entailed wrenching political struggles to redefine families, communities, and lines of authority. This volume's contributors examine the meanings of conversion for individuals and communities in light of loyalties and cultural traditions and consider how conversion as a process was often ambiguous. The history of Christian missions emerges from these pages as an integral part of world history that has stretched beyond professing Christians to affect the lives of peoples who have consciously rejected or remained largely unaware of missionary appeals.
