continuity in the intersections of ethnic discrimination social deviance and citizenship from the 1950s to the collapse of communism this book comes to terms with a variety of questions that have not yet been adequately addressed in the literature What underlying assumptions informed the socialist regime's understanding of Gypsiness and how did these conceptions relate to notions of citizenship equality and normality How and why did the meaning of the terms Gypsies and Roma become imbued in popular discourse with ideas of unhealthiness and social deviance What implications does translating perceived cultural traits and lifestyles of Roma into non ethnic frames of reference have for understanding racism and ethnic sensibilities in the country today The work emphasizes historical continuities between contemporary xenophobia and the strategies which the communist regime used to deal with the Gypsy question Focusing on the discrepancies between written laws and policies as well as their implementation this study exposes the intricate relationships between official beliefs institutional policies and popular consciousness under the communist regime For it was these relationships which together created the mechanisms of social control that facilitated discrimination of Czechoslovak Roma under the guise of social welfare

Spirituality as Ideology in Black Women's Film and Literature Judylyn S. Ryan, 2005 Given the ways in which spirituality functions in the work of such Black women writers and filmmakers as Toni Morrison Ntozake Shange Maya Angelou Julie Dash and Euzhan Palcy Judylyn Ryan proposes in this challenging new study that what these women embrace in their narrative construction and characterization is the role and responsibility of the priestess bearing and distributing life force to sustain the community of people who read and view their work Central to these women's vision of transformation is what Ryan calls a paradigm of growth and an ethos of interconnectedness which provide interpretive models for examining and teaching a broad range of artistic cultural and social texts The focus on theology provides a new way of viewing the connections among New World African diaspora religious traditions challenging the widespread and reductive assumption that Afro Christianity shares no philosophical commonalities with Santeria Candomble Voodoo and other traditions that are not christological In addition to exploring spirituality as epistemology the book also provides an inter textual reading of Black women's literary and film texts that examines the ways in which these works expose mediate and interpret the cultural social and historical conditions surrounding their production While most discussions of Black women's engagement with and contribution to the discursive space of the culture assume an oppositional or reactive stance Ryan argues that the disposition reflected in the texts she examines tends to be relational and proactive conferring an autonomy that the gravitational pull between opposites lacks This inter textual reading constitutes a multimedia auteur criticism of a collective artistic vision
