Not On The Label What Really Goes Into The Food On Your Plate:

Not On the Label Felicity Lawrence, 2004-05-06 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER THAT SHOWED US WHAT WAS REALLY IN OUR FOOD In 2004 Felicity Lawrence published her ground breaking book Not on the Label where in a series of undercover investigations she provided a shocking account of what really goes into the food we eat She discovered why beef waste ends up in chicken why a single lettuce might be sprayed six times with chemicals before it ends up in our salad why bread is full of water And she showed how obesity the appalling conditions of migrant workers ravaged fields in Europe and the supermarket on our high street are all intimately connected And when the horsemeat scandal hit the headlines in 2013 she uncovered how the great British public ended up eating horses Her discoveries would change the way we thought about the UK food industry for ever A brave examination of the calamities caused by a policy laughingly called one of cheap food Jeremy Paxman Observer Book of the Year Challenges each and every one of us to think again about what we buy and eat It is almost like uncovering a secret state within the state Andrew Marr BBC Radio 4 s Start The Week A thorough complex and shocking insight into the food we eat in the twenty first century Perhaps this should be sold as the most effective diet book ever written Daily Mail

Conflicting Philosophies and International Trade Law Michael Burkard, 2017-10-17 This book reveals how conflicting worldviews are at the root of public controversies on policy and trade issues It highlights the particularly controversial disputes at the level of the World Trade Organization in the case of regulating beef hormones and GMOs aiming to show how negotiators of international agreements members of dispute settlement bodies and policy makers in general could have recourse to concepts of other disciplines such as epistemology and philosophy in order to address deadlocked legal disputes Ultimately the book is a manifesto for independent and critical research

Climate Change and Poverty Tony Fitzpatrick, 2014-09-05 Available Open Access under CC BY NC licence Climate change is the main challenge facing developed countries in the 21st century To what extent does this agenda converge with issues of poverty and social exclusion Climate change and poverty offers a timely new perspective on the ecosocial understanding of the causes and symptoms of and solutions to poverty and applies this to recent developments across a number of areas including fuel poverty food poverty housing transport and air pollution Unlike any other publication the book therefore establishes a new agenda for both environmental and social policies which has cross national relevance It will appeal to students in social policy public policy applied social studies and politics and will also be of interest to those studying international development economics and geography

Digging the City Rhona McAdam, 2012 At the last census in 2006 just over 80 percent of Canada s population lived in urban centres How we feed that population and protect its food sources is an enduring subject of debate in food security circles these days As consumers and citizens we all need to take a hard look at the deficiencies in Canada s ability to feed the urban poor our dependence on imported foods and centralized food processing our detachment from our food sources the often problematic solutions to food security devised by governments municipalities and non profit groups and where we are headed if we change nothing in these times when change is urgently needed Many efforts are being made to introduce urban agriculture initiatives all across the country to address the problems we've created and to protect our cities from real and potential crises in the food supply With passion and lyricism Digging the City addresses the problems facing urban omnivores in the 21st century and looks at various policy grassroots and utopian solutions being developed and implemented while considering the pros and cons of plans such as vertical farms urban fish farms transition town initiatives seed banks permaculture and water conservation projects

The Routledge Handbook of White-Collar and Corporate Crime in Europe Judith van Erp, Wim Huisman, Gudrun Vande Walle, 2015-04-10 The study of white collar crime remains a central concern for criminologists around the world and research concentrates on its nature prevalence causes and responses However most books on white collar crime tend to focus on Anglo American examples which is surprising given the amount of rich data and research taking place in mainland Europe This new handbook seeks to reset the balance and for the first time presents an overview of state of the art research on white collar crime in Europe Adding to the existing Anglo American body of knowledge the Handbook will discuss specific European topics and typical European features of white collar crime The Routledge Handbook of White Collar and Corporate Crime in Europe consists of more than thirty chapters on topics ranging from the Icelandic Banking Crisis to the origins of the study of white collar crime to contemporary topics such as white collar crime in countries post transition from communist regimes the illegal e waste trade and white collar crime in professional football Furthermore the book contains extensive case study analyses of landmark European cases of white collar crime The editors have gathered together the leading voices in the field and a final section offers commentaries on white collar crime in Europe from eminent criminologists David Friedrichs and Hazel Croall This Handbook will thus serve as a work of reference for all scholars and students engaged in the study of corporate and white collar crime and will also set out directions for new research in the future

The Morville Year Katherine Swift, 2012-03-01 One of the most admired gardening writers of her generation Katherine Swift returns to describe a year in the life of her garden she created over twenty years in the grounds of the Dower House at Morville Shropshire meditating on everything from the terrain and its history to the plants and trees and the odd habits of the animals and humans who inhabit the garden Following the turning wheel of the Morville seasons from the green shoots of spring through summer and autumn to the stark beauty of winter and back to spring again The Morville Year is a journal full of surprises and enchantments that will appeal not only to gardeners but to all who enjoy the natural world

Climate Change Begins at Home Dave Reay, 2005-10-21 Climate change is one of the greatest threats that humankind faces in the twenty first century But while government and industry fail to act this book argues we could all work to reduce greenhouse gas emissions by 60% the level necessary to halt the current trend according to the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change Packed with provocative case studies calculations and lifestyle comparisons this entertaining and authoritative book makes the complexities of climatology tractable and challenges readers to rethink their notions of doing their bit Searching for Resilience in Sustainable Development John Blewitt, Daniella Tilbury, 2013-08-15 Resilience is a term that is gaining currency in conservation and sustainable development though its meaning and value in this context is yet to be defined Searching for Resilience in Sustainable Development examines ways in which resilience may be created within the web of ecological socio economic and cultural systems that make up the world in The authors embark upon a learning journey exploring both robust and fragile systems and asking questions of groups and individuals actively involved in building or maintaining resilience Through a series of wide ranging interviews the authors give voice to the many different approaches to thinking of and building resilience that may otherwise stay rooted in and confined by specific disciplinary professional or spatial contexts The book documents emerging trends shifting tactics and future pathways for the conservation and sustainable development movement post Rio 20 arriving at a set of diverse but connected conclusions and questions in relation to the resilience of people and planet This book is ideal for students and researchers working in the fields of conservation sustainable development education systems thinking and development studies It will also be of great interest to NGOs and government officers whose interests and responsibilities focus on conserving or reconstructing biodiversity and system resilience ThirdWay, 2006-03 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture The Oxford Handbook of Criminology Mike Maguire, Rodney Morgan, Robert Reiner, 2007 teachers and students of criminology and is a sourcebook for professionals Animal Harm Angus Nurse, 2016-04-15 Why do people harm injure torture and kill animals This book evaluates the reasons why these crimes are committed and outlines the characteristics of the animal offender It considers ethical and value judgements made about animals and the tacit acknowledgement and justification of unacceptable criminal behaviour towards the harming of animals made by offenders Situating animal abuse wildlife crime illegal wildlife trading and other unlawful activities directed at animals firmly within Green Criminology the book contends that this is a distinct multi dimensional type of criminality which persists despite the introduction of relevant legislation Taking a broad approach the book considers the killing and harming of animals in an international context and examines the effectiveness of current legislation policy and sentencing Including a section on further reading and useful organizations this book is a valuable exploration into perspectives on the responsibility owed by man to animals as part of broader ecological and legal concerns It will interest criminologists ecologists animal protectionists and those interested in law and society and law and the environment Life Balance Sue Mayfield, 2014-12-08 Focusing on getting the right life balance between rest work and play this course in five interactive sessions aims to help groups explore how to build Sabbath time into the crazy pressures of everyday life and how Sabbath attitudes can transform the way we spend our time Sugar James Walvin, 2018-04-03 How did sugar grow from prize to pariah Acclaimed historian James Walvin looks at the history of our collective sweet tooth beginning with the sugar grown by enslaved people who had been uprooted and shipped vast distances to undertake the grueling labor on plantations The combination of sugar and slavery would transform the tastes of the Western world Prior to 1600 sugar was a costly luxury the domain of the rich But with the rise of the sugar colonies in the New World over the following century sugar became cheap ubiquitous and an everyday necessity Less than fifty years ago few people suggested that sugar posed a global health problem And yet today sugar is regularly denounced as a dangerous addiction on a par with tobacco Masterfully insightful and probing James Walvin reveals the relationship between society and sweetness over the past two centuries and how it explains our conflicted relationship with sugar today

The Human Face of Church

Sara Savage, Eolene Boyd-Macmillan, 2007-10-30 Until now Fresh Expressions has been about starting and sustaining mission initiatives among people with little or no church contact As these projects mature pastoral problems easily arise how do you integrate the old with the new How do you get an established congregation to change its views and practices How do you cope with conflict What if newcomers challenge set patterns of church behaviour rather than conform with them The publication is structured for use for training in local churches theological colleges and as a research tool in postgraduate study

Terrors of the Table Walter Gratzer, 2006-11-22 Terrors of the Table is an absorbing account of the struggle to find the necessary ingredients of a healthy diet and the fads and quackery that have always waylaid the unwary and the foolish when it comes to the matter of food and health Walter Gratzer tells the tale of nutrition's heroes heroines and charlatans with characteristic crispness and verve We find an array of colourful personalities from the distinguished but quarrelsome Liebig to the enterprising Lydia Pinkham But we also find the slow recognition that the lack of vital ingredients can cause terrible illnesses scurvy rickets beriberi These diseases stalked the poor in the West even into the 20th century and scandalously remain in poorer parts of the world today The narrative stretches from classical times to the modern day and gives a valuable historical perspective to our current understanding It also highlights some of the problems faced by the developed world regarding health today in particular diabetes and obesity And despite our far greater understanding of what our body needs there are still many who would fall for fads and fancy diets some dangerous others just daft Of course the story of nutrition does not end there We have discovered the key vitamins and minerals our body needs but research continues on the connections between diet health and disease The body's biochemistry is complex and there are no easy answers no magic formula that applies to all individuals The safest and most rational course would seem to be a sensible moderate and varied diet not forgetting that a little of what you fancy does you good It's Not Easy Being Green Dick Strawbridge,2013-09-30 It's Not Easy Being Green follows Dick Strawbridge and his family as they leave their comfortable home in the Midlands to tackle a remarkable self sufficiency project New House Farm in Cornwall Their main objective is to have as little negative impact on the planet as possible by producing no waste and removing their dependency upon fossil fuels all without compromising on their comfortable modern 21st century lifestyles It's a laudable aim but they are definitely not eco warriors With his hands on flamboyant approach Dick offers practical tips on everything from constructing water wheels gadgets and greenhouses to the trials of living with animals and knocking up proper wholesome food Packed with information about the cost of power sourcing building materials taking up permaculture and finding transport alternatives It's Not Easy Being Green highlights the small steps that can change your life and is a simple inspirational guide for everyone considering the path to green living

The Economics Anti-Textbook Rod Hill,Professor Tony Myatt,2010-03-11 Mainstream textbooks present economics as an objective science free from value judgements that settles disputes by testing hypotheses that applies a pre determined body of principles and contains policy prescriptions supported by a consensus of professional opinion The Economics Anti Textbook argues that this is a myth one which is not only dangerously misleading but also bland and boring It challenges the mainstream textbooks assumptions arguments models and evidence It puts the controversy and excitement back into economics to reveal a fascinating and a vibrant field of study one which is more an art of persuasion than it is a science The Economics Anti Textbook's chapters parallel the major topics in the typical text beginning with a boiled down account of them before presenting an analysis and critique Drawing on the work of leading economists the Anti Textbook lays bare the blind spots in the texts and their sins of omission and commission It shows where hidden value judgements are made and when contrary evidence is ignored It shows the claims made without any evidence and the alternative theories that aren't mentioned It shows the importance of power social context and legal framework The Economics Anti Textbook is the students guide to decoding the textbooks and shows how real economics is much more interesting than most economists are willing to let on *Tasty.
