Sports David Shribman, Richard "Pete" Peterson, 2012-09-01 A century of Pittsburgh's rich sports history is celebrated through 50 greatest moments in this volume culled from the coverage by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. Among the storied past of athletics in the Pennsylvania city, this collection highlights such events as the Pirates at the World Series, Steelers Super Bowls, the Penguins with their back-to-back Stanley Cups, the era when Carnegie Tech, Duquesne, and Pitt were all playing college bowls, and boxing title bouts fought by Harry Greb, Teddy Yaroz, and Billy Conn. These moments and others from the wide spectrum of franchises and Hall of Fame athletes in Pittsburgh's history are celebrated in a commemorative format that illustrates why Pittsburgh has earned the title of the Best Sports City more than once and why City of Champions has come to describe the town time and time again.

Gods at Play: An Eyewitness Account of Great Moments in American Sports Tom Callahan, 2020-09-22 A beautifully observed narrative of American sport character, grit, tragedy, unremarked heroism, and always the illuminating story behind the story. As a columnist for Time magazine among many other publications, Tom Callahan witnessed an extraordinary number of defining moments in American sport across four decades. He takes us from Roberto Clemente clinching his 3,000th and final regular season hit in Pittsburgh to ringside for the Muhammad Ali-George Foreman fight in Zaire and to Arthur Ashe announcing at a news conference that he'd tested positive for HIV. There are also little-known private moments: Joe Morgan whispering "thank you" to a virtually blind Jackie Robinson on the field at the 1972 World Series or Kareem Abdul Jabbar saying he was more interested in being a good man than in being the greatest basketball player. Brimming with colorful vignettes and enlivened by Callahan's eye for detail, Gods at Play offers surprising portraits of the most celebrated names in sports. Roger Rosenblatt calls Callahan the most complete sportswriter in America. He knows the most and writes the best.
