Many of us live our lives day by day while others dream about a 5 or a 10 year goal Our destinies were created before the beginning of time by God before he created us in our mother s womb There are two roads to life that one has the choice of making The road that leads to blessings prosperity and eternal life or the road that leads to curses poverty and damnation I welcome you this day to take a look inside the life of a woman who decided upon her own merits to take the road to life There were many hardships pitfalls and disappointments however there were times of happiness joy love peace and victories A woman who decided that she would take a stand amongst all of her disadvantages and made it work A woman who today who has lived a life escaping every trap that the enemy set for her Welcome to the world of which no one dares to expose another side of ministry and how I survived the church hurt that was designed to destroy my destiny There I was with two small children running from my pain that had finally caught up with me for the past three years Death had finally taken its toll leaving me motherless and a single parent with no one to turn to My mother had a nervous breakdown and in her womb I was introduced to psychotropic medication and the emotional status of my mother s inner warfare as she sat in a mental institution waiting to birth me into the world Walk through the pages of my life and see how God turned my mess into a blessing and a ministry Los Angeles Magazine , 2002-08
