Not Far From The Tree Fictionalized Memoirs:

Not Far From the Tree Esther C. Gropper, 2005-01-12 Sacred Realism Noël Valis, 2010-04-27 In this thoughtful and compelling book leading Spanish literature scholar Noël Valis re-examines the role of Catholicism in the modern Spanish novel. While other studies of fiction and faith have focused largely on religious themes, Sacred Realism views the religious impulse as a crisis of modernity, a fundamental catalyst in the creative and moral development of Spanish narrative. Mad Muse Jeffrey Berman, 2019-09-03 Many of the well-respected scholarly studies of autobiographical writing have little or nothing to say about mental illness. This book uncovers the mysterious relationship between mood disorders and creativity through the lives of seven writers, demonstrating how mental illness is sometimes the driving force behind creativity.

Nixon Under the Bodhi Tree and Other Works of Buddhist Fiction Kate Wheeler, 2004-06-15 An exciting, inventive, and multifaceted collection that includes everything from visionary short stories to fictionalized personal memoirs. New Woman Fiction A. Heilmann, 2000-08-09 The New Woman was the symbol of the shifting categories of gender and sexuality and epitomized the spirit of the fin de siècle. This informative monograph offers an interdisciplinary approach to the growing field of New Woman studies by exploring the relationship between first-wave feminist literature, the nineteenth-century women's movement, and female consumer culture. The book expertly places the debate about femininity, feminism, and fiction in its cultural and socio-historical context, examining New Woman fiction as a genre whose emerging theoretical discourse prefigured concepts central to second-wave feminist theory. The Body Is a Doorway: A Memoir Sophie Strand, 2025-03-04 A LIT HUB MOST ANTICIPATED BOOK OF 2025 In this lyrical, radically expansive self-portrait, celebrated poet, author, and lecturer Sophie Strand explores with searing insight and honesty the intersecting spaces of her own chronic illness, the complex ecology of a changing world, and the very nature of the stories we tell ourselves. At age sixteen, Sophie Strand, bright, agile, fearless, is suddenly beset by unexplained, debilitating illness while on a family trip abroad. Her once vibrant life becomes a tangled miasma of medication, specialists, anaphylaxis, and seemingly never-ending attempts to explain what has gone so terribly wrong. And for many years thereafter, Sophie's life becomes subsumed with ideas, not of health, but of explanation and the narrative of how and why she became sick. But slowly, through both profound fatigue with the medical industrial complex and a deeply entwined relationship with the natural world, she comes to another, more fundamental understanding of what has happened to her body. What if sickness is not a separation from the body? What if health is not quite so easy to see? What if physical pain leaves us no choice but to return to our bodies, the pinpricks and lightning of illness stitching us back into a physical presence our society has taught us to ignore? In a work both expansively tender and shockingly frank, Sophie Strand offers readers a window onto her own winding journey through the maze of chronic illness, a web not unlike those created by the mycorrhizal fungi whose networks she begins to see as a metaphor for the profound connections between all species and the earth. Grounded deeply in the mountains of the Hudson Valley, each moment of this far reaching narrative snakes its way through the multi layered ecology of the land around us from the stunningly powerful pollen of a phlox plant to the unexpected beauty and wisdom of the woodchuck The Body Is a Doorway dives into the murky waters of sickness and trauma as well as the resonant challenges and joys of friendship young adulthood first love and fertility Throughout in precise sparkling language it explores questions both personal and universal Is there healing beyond the human Beyond the hope for a cure or a happy ending Is there something wilder and more symbiotic beyond narrow ideas of well being The works of Robert Burns; with dr. Currie's memoir of the poet, and an essay on his genius and character by prof. Wilson Robert Burns,1844

Fragments: A Memoir Kemlyn Munn,2016-03-04 A broken mirror autobiography which pieces together different levels of experience and dimensions of reality to finally hopefully present the reader and the writer with something approaching a whole

Colette's Republic Patricia A. Tilburg, 2009

In France's Third Republic secularism was for its adherents a new faith a civic religion founded on a rabid belief in progress and the Enlightenment conviction that men and women could remake their world And yet with all of its pragmatic

smoothing over of the supernatural edges of Catholicism the Third Republic engendered its own fantastical ways of seeing by embracing observation corporeal dynamism and imaginative introspection How these republican ideals and the new national education system of the 1870s and 80s the structure meant to impart these ideals shaped belle poque popular culture is the focus of this book The author reassesses the meaning of secularization and offers a cultural history of this period by way of an interrogation of several fraught episodes which although seemingly disconnected shared an attachment to the potent moral and aesthetic directives of French republicanism a village s battle to secularize its schools a scandalous novel a vaudeville hit featuring a nude celebrity and a craze for female boxing Beginning with the writer and performer Colette 1873 1954 as a point of entry this re evaluation of belle poque popular culture probes the startling connections between republican values of labor and physical health on the one hand and the cultural innovations of the decades preceding World War I on the other

The Works of T. Adams ... With Memoir by Joseph Angus Thomas Adams, 1861 Blades of Grass Lao She, 1999-10-01

If you want to write good short stories, Lao She once observed, you have to give it everything you've got. The world will allow the existence of a very imperfect novel, but it won't be that polite with a short story. Art, after all, is not like a pig: the fatter the better. Lao She's stories proved to be very good indeed, moving and delighting readers for many years and establishing him as a master of classic modern fiction. Thankfully, we now have access to a rich collection of his short stories in superb English translations. These stories showcase the varied facets of Lao She's impressive talent and draw us effortlessly into his world, and we emerge the better for it. This is a writer eternally immersed in and fascinated by the kaleidoscope of humankind. The stories are characterized by humor and by intensely sympathetic explorations of human relationships. Some of them are unsettling. Many are poignant. Most of them make us laugh. All evoke the color and energy of life. For Lao She is also a connoisseur of the everyday, with a keen appreciation of the concrete detail: A plate of steaming dumplings, the gleam of gold capped front teeth, rickshaws dragging along alleys, punishing winter winds, rolls of bright silk, a pair of chopsticks—these things are the stuff of Lao She's fiction, and the essence of his metaphors, and he cherishes such little details of life more than the abstractions of politics or philosophy.
