Not God After All:

Not God's Type Holly Ordway, 2014-07-29 This is the story of a glorious defeat Ordway an atheist academic was convinced that faith was superstitious nonsense As a well educated college English professor she saw no need for just so stories about God Secure in her fortress of atheism she was safe or so she thought from any assault by irrational faith So what happened How did she come to lay down her arms in surrender to Christ and then a few years later enter the Catholic Church This is the moving account of her unusual journey It is the story of an academic becoming convinced of the truth of Christianity on rational grounds but also the account of God's grace acting in and through her imagination It is the tale of an unfolding developing relationship with God told with directness and honesty and of a painful surrender at the foot of the Cross It is the account of a lifelong transformative love of reading and the story of how a competitive fencer put down her sabre to pick up the sword of the Spirit Above all this book is a tale of grace acting in and through human beings but always issuing from God and leading back to Him And it is the story of a woman being brought home

Not Ashamed of the Gospel Morna D. Hooker, 2004-10-08 Convinced that Christ's crucifixion cannot be interpreted in isolation from his resurrection Morna Hooker here gives a comprehensive and inspiring survey of the New Testament's teaching about the death of Christ By looking closely at the great variety of images and metaphors employed in the writings of Paul and in Mark Matthew Luke Acts John Hebrews 1 Peter 1 John and Revelation Hooker discusses the different ways in which the authors of the New Testament searched for and then discovered meaning in the death and resurrection of Christ Hooker shows that the concept of substitutionary atonement does not take us far enough in understanding the profound truth taught especially by Paul that Christ became what we are in order that we might become what he is He took his place as one of us and died our death in order that we might be identified with him both in his death and in his resurrection She also demonstrates in meaningful new ways that the message of the cross the message that lies at the heart of the gospel is as relevant and as disturbing to the present generation as it was to its first hearers Provocative at times even controversial this volume will be highly stimulating to readers who are prepared to take a fresh look at the New Testament evidence

Robbins,Clayton Crockett,2018-11-08 This book is a work of theological resistance It is not so much about the presidency of Donald Trump as it is about what his popularity and rise to power reveal about the state of Christianity and the moral character of the evangelical Right in the United States today More specifically it is about the threat of white Christian nationalism which is the particular form that the nationalist populist movement of Trumpism has adopted for itself The contributors are all fellows from the Westar Institute's academic seminar on God and the Human Future and include many of the leading figures in theology and Continental philosophy of religion. This volume provides a form of theopolitical resistance based on intersectionality. The authors recognize how the various forms of oppression interrelate to contribute to a vast dynamic and seeming impenetrable network of systemic injustice and marginalization. These essays demonstrate that politics need not be played as a zero-sum game with a winner-take-all mentality and that a critical theology is as urgently needed and as relevant now as ever.
