Poetry and the Making of the English Literary Past,

1660-1781 Richard G. Terry, 2001 The book concludes that the opening up and ordering of the English literary past occurs earlier than is generally supposed and the same also applies to the process by which women writers achieve their own distinctive form of canonical recognition BOOK JACKET

Volcanic Reflections: a Bilingual Anthology of Contemporary Ecuadorian Poetry Ronald Haladyna, 2011-08-26 Volcanic Reflections A Bilingual Anthology of Contemporary Ecuadorian Poetry is the third in a series of books that aspires to address a dearth of information in the English speaking world about South American poetry of the past thirty years The nineteen outstanding poets included here represent a wide diversity of themes styles and perspectives in one of South Americas smaller nations All of them have published extensively have been recognized through literary awards and inclusion in national and international anthologies and continue writing and publishing today For readers unfamiliar with Ecuador the Introduction provides a brief background of its geography history politics economy and society This is followed by an ample selection of representative poems published previously in Spanish with translations in English on facing pages The book concludes with a brief biographical sketch of each poet and an unprecedented bibliography of primary and secondary sources for those readers who might want to pursue further reading or research on any poet of interest Contemporary Uruguayan Poetry A Bilingual Anthology and Exotic Territory A Bilingual Anthology of Contemporary Paraguayan Anthology are two companion volumes that offer similar exposure to poetry that deserves to be better known in the English speaking world Urdu/Hindi: An Artificial Divide Abdul Jamil Khan,2006 The lingua franca of the Indo Pakistani people is one language claims Khan called Hindi when written in Nagari and Urdu when written in Arabic He says it is not descended from Sanskrit as conventionally believed but is 10 12 000 years old and was influenced early by the Austric Munda and Dravidian language families Leaving aside any religious

A History of Finland's Literature George C. Schoolfield,1998-01-01 The literature of Finland is bilingual with lively and extensive traditions in both Finnish and Swedish This history covers both literary traditions in detail The volume s first section on Finnish language literature consists of a series of connected chapters by leading authorities within the field It opens with a consideration of the folk literature in Finnish that flourished during the Middle Ages and then examines the more recent history of Finnish language literature with special emphasis placed on writings from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The second part of the book provides an examination of Finland s Swedish language literature from the late fifteenth century through the early nineteenth century Subsequent chapters trace developments in Finland s Swedish language literature during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries A survey of children s literature from both the Finnish and Swedish language traditions concludes this exceptionally thorough volume The Cambridge Companion to Latin American Poetry Stephen M. Hart,2018-03-22 This Companion provides a chronological survey of Latin American poetry analysis of modern trends and six succinct essays on the major figures POETIC COMPARATIVE TEXTS IN NOBIIN Nubantood Khalil,2024-09-23 This book offers poetic translations into the Nile Nubian language Nobiin of renowned literary works from diverse poets worldwide It includes introductions to the poets and explanations of key Nobiin vocabulary aiming to bridge the gap between the original texts and readers The book highlights the importance of poetic translation in promoting and preserving the Nobiin language spoken in Sudan and Egypt A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts,2008-06-09 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century
