Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse Magali Cornier Michael, 1996-07-03 Analyzes the intersections between feminist politics and postmodern aesthetics as demonstrated in recent Anglo American fiction

Ash of stars, A critical appreciation of the acclaimed science fiction writer and his works

The Fiction of Doris Lessing Ratna Raman, 2021-10-15 Doris Lessing 1919 2013 a prolific contemporary author was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2007 for her life work Examining five decades of Lessing's unique life narrative strategies and the literary traditions that she drew upon and improvised this book highlights her extraordinary significance as a writer of our times and for our times Lessing's fiction and non fiction provide a seminal understanding of the key issues that shaped the twentieth century Autodidactic and keenly interested in the world around her Lessing flagged the problems of racism in Africa the inequity of class in modern England the limitations of white middle class women's movements that overlooked the rights of women across race and class the marginalisation of individuals the horror of nuclear war and the need for disarmament and the hazardous global expansion in the face of unrelenting technological progress Further she raised the concern of the atomisation of modern families violence and the urgent need for alternate modes of viewing voicing anxieties decades ahead of other contemporary writers Making futuristic projections through innumerable genres of writing such as realistic narratives memoirs diaries and science fiction Lessing examines myth psychoanalysis and Marxist perspectives engaging with a gamut of experiences that have defined modernity and sets up feminist blueprints that challenge atrophying patriarchal hegemonies

Literature and the Writer ,2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts

Changing the Story Gayle Greene,1992-01-22 Changing the Story gives an excellent and well informed account of the differences between the American Canadian British and French attitudes towards feminism and feminist fiction and literary theory a very readable book which reminds us that literature can change us and that through it we can change ourselves Margaret Drabble A distinctive contribution clear elegant precise and well read to the feminist discussion of narrative of Anglo Canadian white North American novelists and to contemporary fiction Greene tracks how feminist novelists draw upon and negotiate with traditional narrative patterns and how their critical approach implicates and provokes social change The book brings us to an intelligent post humanism which does not scant the social meanings of metafictional critique And in addition this book remembers hope Rachel Blau DuPlessis Changing the Story is an invaluable guide to the feminist classics of the last three decades This is cultural criticism at its best engaged re visionary and politically astute Nancy K Miller Greene tells a very good tale about how feminist fiction emerged developed made changes in the world and now threatens to wane The Women s Review of Books Her probing analysis should captivate general readers as well as academics WLW Journal Changing the Story is an important work of feminist criticism certain to spark controversy within the feminist community American Literature The feminist fiction movement of the 1960s 1980s was and is as significant a movement as Modernism Gayle Greene focuses on the works of Doris Lessing Margaret Drabble Margaret Atwood and Margaret Laurence to trace the roots of this feminist literary explosion She also speculates on the future of feminist fiction in the current regressive period of post feminism

A Companion to British Literature, Volume 4 Robert DeMaria, Jr.,Heesok Chang,Samantha Zacher,2013-12-13 A Companion to British Literature Victorian and Twentieth Century Literature 1837 2000 Journal of Education ,1915 Massachusetts Studies in English ,1982 Contemporary Women Writers Look Back Alice Ridout,2011-01-13 Long before John Barth announced in his famous 1967 essay that late 20th century fiction was The Literature of Exhaustion authors have been retelling and recycling stories Barth was however right to identify in postmodern fiction a particular self consciousness about its belatedness at the end of a long literary tradition This book traces the move in contemporary women s writing from the self conscious ironic parodies of postmodernism to the nostalgic and historical turn of the 21st century It analyses how contemporary women writers deal with their literary inheritances offering an illuminating and provocative study of contemporary women writers re writings of previous texts and stories Through close readings of novels by key contemporary women writers including Toni Morrison Doris Lessing Margaret Atwood Zadie Smith Emma Tennant and Helen Fielding and of the ITV adaptation Lost in Austen Alice Ridout examines the politics of parody and nostalgia exploring the limitations and possibilities of both in the contexts of feminism and postcolonialism

offers compelling insights into the ethical implications of disguised autobiography and roman clef Doris Lessing and the Forming of History Kevin Brazil, 2016-09-20 The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing s writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing s work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women s writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing s writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history Writers and Their Notebooks Diana M. Raab, 2022-04-13 Personal reflections on the vital role of the notebook in creative writing from Dorianne Laux Sue Grafton John Dufresne Kyoko Mori and more This collection of essays by established professional writers explores how their notebooks serve as their studios and workshops places to collect to play and to make new discoveries with language passions and curiosities For these diverse writers the journal also serves as an ideal forum to develop their writing voice whether crafting fiction nonfiction or poetry Some include sample journal entries that have since developed into published pieces Through their individual approaches to keeping a notebook the contributors offer valuable advice personal recollections and a hearty endorsement of the value of using notebooks to document develop and nurture a writer s creative spark

Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author s writings an overview of the critical response to the author s work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature Bleak Liberalism Amanda Anderson, 2016-11-30 Why is liberalism so often dismissed by thinkers from both the left and the right To those calling for wholesale transformation or claiming a monopoly on realistic conceptions of humanity liberalism s assured progressivism can seem hard to swallow Bleak Liberalism makes the case for a renewed understanding of the liberal tradition showing that it is much more attuned to the complexity of political life than conventional accounts have acknowledged Amanda Anderson examines canonical works of high realism political novels from England and the United States and modernist works to argue that liberalism has engaged sober and even stark views of historical development political dynamics and human and social psychology From Charles Dickens's Bleak House and Hard Times to E M Forster's Howards End to Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook this literature demonstrates that liberalism has inventive ways of balancing sociological critique and moral aspiration A deft blend of intellectual history and literary analysis Bleak Liberalism reveals a richer understanding of one of the most important political ideologies of the modern era A Theory of Narrative F. K. Stanzel, 1986-03-13 The purpose of this book is to provide a clear and systematic account of the complexities of fictional narration which result from the shifting relationship in all storytelling between the story itself and the way it is told Personal Notebooks of Thomas Hardy Thomas Hardy, 1978-06-17
