Tracking through Component Training Successful competitive tracking requires the development of a large number of skills on the part of both the dog and the handler A dog comes equipped with fabulous scenting abilities but must learn to follow a track in many types of weather over a variety of surfaces while encountering all sorts of distractions A handler must learn how to read his dog know when to stop and let his dog get back on track and keep his dog motivated Author Ed Presnall has developed his Component Training™ method to help a tracking team break down the dozens of challenges they will face in training in order to achieve the coveted Tracking Dog Excellent title You will learn To watch for something different the subtle clues your dog gives you while tracking so you can react in a way to help your dog All of the rules and regulations you need to know in order to compete in TDX Specific training plans for start obstacle and transition components you will encounter in TDX To not be the dope on a rope but rather an active partner with your dog while tracking What to expect when encountering different types of ground cover and weather Praise for Component Training for TDX Ed s book brings the owner up to speed and gives you homework that will keep your dog interested AND learning AND still making it fun for both of you I have watched more people cause their failure in a test so that I agree with Ed that 95% of the dogs failing a tracking test do so due to the handler With this book you can increase your chances of passing significantly Mary Thompson AKC Tracking Judge The success I have enjoyed in tracking with my Dalmatians is directly attributable to the wealth of knowledge I have taken from Ed Presnall s seminars and training manuals He is the undisputed source of solid information and effective technique Linda McSherry CT CH Patch Mt s About Time Am Can CPC CGC CD RE OA NAJ VCD1 Animal Tracking

Possum Track Chronicles Donna Elks,2017-10-24 Imagine a time not so far away and yet so long ago It is the 1970s deep South rural Eastern North Carolina once the world capital of the tobacco farming industry On the Coastal Plains nestled along the Pamlico River is a tiny town called Chocowinity The characters are original and southern Donnas father is a haunted artist and gifted carpenter Her mother Pam a full time mom with three children by the age of twenty who attempts to keep it together in a poor family where alcohol and substance abuse became the norm When her fathers alcoholism worsens Donna begins to resent him Finally on a night when violence reached its terrifying worst the young family is spirited away for protection and her parents divorced Soon her fathers demons re emerge and he falls into depression characterized by more substance abuse Several times their loving extended family comes to the rescue Among the layers and human elements of this story there lies an ominous secret Donna has known it as long as she can remember She keeps it hidden as this might change everything What unfolds is a funny touching story of a Generation X tomboy growing up in 1970s and 1980s before car seat belts were required and shoes were still optional in the grocery store This unique story is autobiographical Funny original and bittersweet it is full of Southern culture and generational relevance This is not just one girls story of growing up in a stormy relationship with her father and their life in poverty It is a story of coming of age A must read for everyone
