Gender and the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Simona Sharoni, 1995-03-01 Simona Sharoni's innovative approach to the conflict in the Middle East stresses the relationship between gender and politics by illuminating the daily experiences of women in Israel and in the occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip Among the issues explored are the connections between the violence of the conflict and the escalation of violence against women the link between militarism and sexism and the role of nationalism in building individual and collective identities Sharoni also shows the impact of Intifada the Palestinian uprising in December 1987 on the Palestinian and Israeli women s movements While women s coalitions such as these are critical subjects in and of themselves the actions of marginalized women are rarely if ever given serious treatment in the study of international relations With this book Sharoni creates an aperture for the emergence of new perspectives and alternative methods in the development of a new vision in global politics and gender equality The interdisciplinary scope of the book will make it valuable to scholars of political science women s studies conflict resolution and Middle East studies Palestinian Women Ebba Augustin, 1969 The INTIFADA has profoundly affected the lives of Palestinian women The writings in this lively collection examine the changes it has brought to women and girls of all ages and backgrounds in the West Bank and Gaza The stories reveal how women are responding to the growing conflict between the demands of tradition and honour on the one hand and the economic and political realities of life under occupation on the other Terry Atwan s story is of just such a fight against the barriers of tradition and oppression by the occupiers Yusra Berberi born in 1923 in Gaza gives a personal account of women s political participation over the many years of conflict Rita Giacaman writes of the effects on women s health of discrimination against girls while Amni Rimawi describes her role as vice president of a trade union A short story by Hannan Ashrawi of Bir Zeit University and a leading figure in the peace process follows 18 year old Iman Jardallah s moving account of life under siege and Rana Salibi s testimony of women s roles in the popular committees Ebba Augustin s introductions weave the writings together into a vivid picture of contemporary Palestinian life What emerges throughout the book is the intensity of the pressure on Palestinian society For many people a way of coping with this has been to advocate a return to tradition what Najah Manasra calls going back to the roots The victims of this trend are Palestinian women and what is in danger now is not just the future position of women but the very ability without women s active involvement to sustain the Intifada itself Women and the Politics of Military Confrontation Nahla Abdo-Zubi, Ronit Lentin, 2002 Extrait de la couverture As the crisis in Israel does not show any signs of abating this remarkable collection edited by an Israeli and a Palestinian scholar and with contributions by Palestinian and Israeli women offers a vivid and harrowing picture of the conflict and of its impact of daily life especially as it affects women s experiences that differ significantly from those of men The auto biographical narratives in this volume focus on some of the most disturbing effects of the Israeli Palestinian conflict a sense of dislocation that goes well beyond the geographical meaning of the word it involves social cultural national and gender dislocation including alienation from one s own home family community and society The accounts become even more poignant if seen against the backdrop of the roots of the conflict the real or imaginary construct of a state to save and shelter particularly European Jews from the horrors of Nazism in parallel to the other side of the coin Israel as a settler colonial state

Land Before Honor Kitty Warnock, 1990      Palestinian Women's Activism Islah Jad, 2018-12-26 Jad traces the transformation of the Palestinian women's movement from the 1930s to the post Oslo period and through the Second Intifada to examine the often fraught relationship between women and nationalism in Palestine Offering one of the first intensive studies of Islamist women's activism Jad also explores the impact of emerging feminist NGOs in depoliticizing the secular Palestinian women's movement Studying these two developments together illuminates the nature of women's engagement in the Palestinian space challenging myths of gender roles immutability under Islam and the supposed modernizing benefits of Western style activism      Palestinian Women and Muslim Family Law in the Mandate Period Elizabeth Brownson, 2019-07-01 In this volume Brownson sheds new light on Palestinian Muslim women's agency in shari'a courts from the British Mandate period to the present Her extensive archival research on wife initiated maintenance claims divorce and child custody cases deepens our understanding of women's position in the courts demonstrating that Muslim women were and are active participants in their legal affairs Using court registers and interviews Brownson uncovers a variety of ways women have manipulated the system to their benefit despite its patriarchal bias She also finds that few reforms were implemented during the Mandate period The British were uninterested in improving colonized women's legal status and sought to avoid further antagonizing Palestinians At the same time Palestinians wished to uphold the one indigenous institution they still controlled while both British rule and Zionism threatened their nationalist aspirations Although Palestinian women have had few alternatives to using this male privileged system to redress grievances with their husbands and in laws they continue to resist its injustices every day Brownson finds that women's understanding of family law fundamentals has enabled some to deftly navigate the system however a unified reformed law reflecting society's current needs is required so women can have full access to their rights      The Challenge Of Local Feminisms Amrita
