Changes to Primary Care Trusts Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Health Committee, 2006-01-11

NHS Primary Care Trusts PCTs were created in 2002 to commission health services for their local populations and are currently responsible for controlling about 80 per cent of the 76 billion NHS annual budget In addition PCTs have responsibility for public health and many also provide community based health services such as district nursing and community hospitals The Committee's report examines the Government's proposals set out in the Department of Health paper Commissioning a Patient led NHS published in July 2005 which can be downloaded at <http://www.dh.gov.uk/assetRoot/04/11/67/17/04116717.pdf> to cut the number of PCTs and to contract out community health services by the end of 2008 The report raises a number of serious concerns about the proposals including in relation to failings in the consultation process the impact of PCT restructuring and divestment of provider services and the likelihood that the estimated financial savings of 250 million will be achieved
