Palliative Care In Ireland:

EBOOK: Palliative Care in Ireland Julie Ling, Liam O'Siorain, 2005-05-16 This book describes the history and development of palliative care services in the Republic of Ireland. Written from a multi professional perspective, the book appeals to anyone with an interest in hospice and palliative care in Ireland. In attempting to explore what is different about Irish palliative care, this book delves into the cultural, religious, and social factors particular to modern Ireland from the historical roots of the Irish palliative care movement through to the publication of the Government's blueprint for the future development of services. Palliative Care In Ireland explores the provision of palliative care services, bereavement, the influence of folklore, holistic care, faith, religion, and spirituality, and the important contributions of the voluntary sector. The changing face of Ireland is described, and challenges ahead are considered. This is the first book to truly capture the Irish dimension and is essential reading for those in emerging services worldwide where similar challenges are faced and where local and national influences determine the uniqueness of a particular model of service delivery. The book is key reading for students and researchers as well as all those involved in the delivery and management of palliative care services. Contributors: Jide Afolabi, Maria Bailey, Frank Brennan, David Clark, Sin ad Donnelly, Matthew Farrelly, Stephen Higgins, Jacqueline Holmes, Kaye Kealy, Michael Kearney, Ann Keating, Orla Keegan, Christy Kenneally, Philip Larkin, Peter Lawlor, Julie Ling, Anna Marie Lynch, John McCormack, Regina McQuillan, Michael J. Murphy, Tony O'Brien, Eileen O'Leary, Liam O'S, or in, Maeve O'Reilly, Patrick J. Quinlan, Deirdre Rowe, Siobhan Sheehan, Geraldine Tracey, Onja Van Doorslaer, Eithne Walsh. Palliative Care In Ireland Ling, Julie, O'Siorain, Liam, 2005-05-01 How does palliative care differ in the Republic of Ireland to other countries? This text provides an overview of palliative care services in Ireland from a multi professional viewpoint. Law, Palliative Care and Dying John Lombard, 2018-05-16 Law, Palliative Care and Dying critically examines the role of the legal framework in shaping the boundaries of palliative care practice. The work underlines the importance of a distinct legal framework for specialist palliative care, which can provide clarity for both the healthcare professional and the patient. It examines the legal and ethical justifications for specialist palliative care practices and, in doing so, it questions the legitimacy of the distinction between euthanasia and practices such as palliative sedation. Moreover, this work discusses the influence of a human rights discourse on palliative care and examines the contribution of autonomy, dignity, and the right to palliative care. This book includes detailed comparative research on several European jurisdictions. The jurisdictions illustrate varied approaches to palliative care regulation and promotion. In this manner, the role of professional guidelines and legislation are drawn out, and common themes in the regulation of palliative care emerge. Pediatric Palliative Care: Global Perspectives Caprice Knapp, Vanessa Madden, Susan Fowler-Kerry, 2012-01-03 The first of its kind, this book describes pediatric palliative care in more than 23 countries. Each region in the world is covered, and countries included are both resource poor and rich. Authors are multidisciplinary and regarded nationally and internationally in their field. Clinicians, advocates, policymakers, funders, and researchers will learn how programs were developed and implemented in each country Authors describe children for whom pediatric palliative care is needed and provided for in their country When applicable a brief history of pediatric palliative care is included noting especially policy changes and legislative acts For example the chapter on Poland describes how pediatric palliative care grew from the Catholic church into a national movement spearheaded by several health care workers The Pole national spirit that brought them through a change in political regime has also been a driving force in the pediatric palliative care movement The chapter on South Africa for example illustrates how a resource poor country has been able to leverage philanthropic and government funding to make its dream of having an infrastructure of pediatric palliative care a reality These are just a few examples of the inspiring stories that are included in this book Readers from countries who wish to start a pediatric palliative care program or advance an existing program will learn valuable lessons from others who have faced similar barriers Introduction and concluding chapters highlight the strengths and weaknesses of the modern pediatric palliative care movement approaches to care Neonatal Palliative Care for Nurses Alexandra Mancini, Jayne Price, Tara Kerr-Elliott, 2020-01-22

This textbook details the nursing care of babies with life limiting conditions and sets the context within the philosophy of internationally collaborative neonatal palliative care emphasising emotional and practical support for their families. Currently increasing interest from nursing and medical fields regarding palliative care for babies in the antenatal and neonatal period is evident. This innovative and unique text provides experienced nurses and student nurses alike with realistic guidance in caring for babies with palliative care needs alongside the crucial support for their families and identifies important strategies for professional self care. Nursing experts in this field collaborated to develop a reference book which supports holistic and integrated clinical practice. Parents' experiences of what they consider helpful or not so helpful are interwoven throughout the chapter. There is currently no other textbook which offers the above information and guidance specifically for nurses and allied health professionals. As such, this book will appeal to all nurses and health professionals working within the neonatal palliative care specialty in a global context.
