Lucifer ,1890 Iphigenia Teresa de la Parra, 2010-07-05 Winner Harvey L Johnson Award Southwest Council on Latin American Studies 1994 I didn t want to tell you the truth for anything in the world because it seemed very humiliating to me The truth is that Iphigenia is bored and more than bored buried alive in her grandmother s house in Caracas Venezuela After the excitement of being a beautiful unchaperoned young woman in Paris her father s death has sent her back to a forgotten homeland where rigid decorum governs Two men the married man she adores and the wealthy fianc she abhors offer her escape from her prison Which of these impossible suitors will she choose Iphigenia was first published in 1924 in Venezuela where it hit patriarchal society like a bomb Teresa de la Parra was accused of undermining the morals of young women with this tale of a passionate woman who lacks the money to establish herself in the liberated bohemian society she craves Yet readers have kept the novel alive for decades and this first English translation now introduces its heroine to a wider audience

Transborder Lives Lynn Stephen, 2007-06-13 Lynn Stephen s innovative ethnography follows indigenous Mexicans from two towns in the state of Oaxaca the Mixtec community of San Agust n Atenango and the Zapotec community of Teotitl n del Valle who periodically leave their homes in Mexico for extended periods of work in California and Oregon Demonstrating that the line separating Mexico and the United States is only one among the many borders that these migrants repeatedly cross including national regional cultural ethnic and class borders and divisions

Stephen advocates an ethnographic framework focused on transborder rather than transnational lives Yet she does not disregard the state She assesses the impact migration has had on local systems of government in both Mexico and the United States as well as the abilities of states to police and affect transborder communities Stephen weaves the personal histories and narratives of indigenous transborder migrants together with explorations of the larger structures that affect their lives Taking into account U S immigration policies and the demands of both commercial agriculture and the service sectors she chronicles how migrants experience and remember low wage work in agriculture landscaping and childcare and how gender relations in Oaxaca and the United States are reconfigured by migration She looks at the ways that racial and ethnic hierarchies inherited from the colonial era hierarchies that debase Mexico s indigenous groups are reproduced within heterogeneous Mexican populations in the United States Stephen provides case studies of four grass roots organizations in which Mixtec migrants are involved and she considers specific uses of digital technology by transborder communities Ultimately Stephen demonstrates that transborder migrants are reshaping notions of territory and politics by developing creative models of governance education and economic development as well as ways of maintaining their cultures and languages across geographic distances

The Watcher Stephen Schwartz, 2023-11-20 Long ago I lived alone in my mountain shanty beside my lake in Maine The lake provided fish The forest provided small game and berries I had my books I had solitude I avoided contact with the outside world in Bar Harbor except as I needed food clothing some few tools and more books all of which I borrowed from those in the town Eventually each of the books was returned I didn't dislike people I just did not need or want their company At eighteen I was a hermit and happy to be so My life was simple and uncomplicated by the needs of others or of the outside world I spent each day absorbed in the wonders of the wildlife and of nature around me and the world of my books It was enough for me I was in control as much as the forest and weather around me would allow It all changed in a single day I was caught borrowing food from the market I had a possible sack with me that contained two books that I borrowed from the library There was also a pair of boots that I borrowed from the general store The constable and his deputy took me to the dock and placed me on the whaling ship that waited there There was no discussion There were no questions from the first mate They locked me in the hold I raged I cried I begged No one cared That was my life until the day the Watcher arrived on the ship My life changed in ten seconds I began the journey to become what I am now This journal records that journey of 116 years The journey has just begun I am not now what I have been or what I have yet to become
