Panoramic Lounge Bar:

Panoramic Lounge Bar John Stammers, 2011-11-21 John Stammers's collection is witty touching and clever with brilliant images where love scenes are laced with irony and the details of contemporary life. He writes about irrelevant vampires living out their days on the sea front at Eastbourne about flowers with fine pointed petals like scalpels and is absolutely brilliant on music. His writing is vivid and assured. Interior Night John Stammers, 2011-11-21 John Stammers has a poetic mind original enough to read the most mundane and familiar events as great portents and wonders and an eye clear enough to uncover the surreal when it's right under our noses. Stammers' third collection is a vast map of an imaginative space that coincides with the known world but radically changes the way we perceive it. Interior Night sees a restlessly eclectic mind engaged with the whole range of human creation from our cultural icons to our cultural detritus. There are also dramatic monologues from the dark worlds of poverty and addiction as well as typically unsettling run ins with the shades of Rimbaud, Sterne and Keats. Stammers has focused all his celebrated daring and oblique strategies to produce a book of great emotional candour and seriousness.

Cruise Ships Peter C. Smith, 2014-03-31 Peter C. Smith presents us here with the second release in his visually splendid Cruise Ships series. Whilst his first book concerned itself with the large scale ships currently cruising through our seas, those weighing 40,000 GT and more, this volume focusses on the other end of the market, the ships that weigh in at less than 40,000 GT but which are often much more stylish and aesthetically pleasing than their larger scale counterparts. The elegant interiors and luxurious features on display in today's vast fleet of cruise liners remain unrecorded in all but holiday brochures. This book carries on in the tradition of Peter's last release giving a complete overview of the best of these ships the cream of the crop so to speak Each colour profile includes external and interior views of the featured ship Details of the design building and service history of each vessel are provided with vital statistics of the ship and its facilities This is a book of reference for maritime enthusiasts would be holiday cruisers and those who have been passengers It serves as an impressive visual tribute to the best of the smaller scale fleet currently cruising globally As seen in the Bedford Times Citizen      Stern's Guide to the Cruise Vacation: 20/21 Edition Steven B.
