The Indian Forester, 1909 Flicker Theodore Roszak, 2005 From the golden age of art movies and underground cinema to X rated porn splatter films and midnight movies this breathtaking thriller is a tour de force of cinematic fact and fantasy full of metaphysical mysteries that will haunt the dreams of every moviegoer Jonathan Gates could not have anticipated that his student studies would lead him to uncover the secret history of the movies a tale of intrigue deception and death that stretches back to the 14th century But he succumbs to what will be a lifelong obsession with the mysterious Max Castle a nearly forgotten genius of the silent screen who later became the greatest director of horror films only to vanish in the 1940s at the height of his talent Now 20 years later as Jonathan seeks the truth behind Castle's disappearance the innocent entertainments of his youth the sexy sirens the screwball comedies the high romance take on a sinister appearance His tortured quest takes him from Hollywood's Poverty Row into the shadowy lore of ancient religious heresies He encounters a cast of exotic characters including Orson Welles and John Huston who teach him that there's more to film than meets the eye and journeys through the dark side of nostalgia where the Three Stooges and Shirley Temple join company with an alien god whose purposes are anything but entertainment
