Papa Doc Haiti And Its Dictator:

Papa Doc Bernard Diederich, Al Burt, 1972 Papa Doc Bernard Diederich, Al Burt, 1986 Papa Doc Bernard Diederich, 1970 Haiti's New Dictatorship Justin Podur, 2012-10-05 In 1804 Haiti became the world's first independent black Republic following a slave revolution 200 years later ravaged by colonialism and violence it was placed under UN military occupation Haiti's New Dictatorship charts the country's recent history from the 2004 coup against President Aristide to the devastating 2010 earthquake revealing a shocking story of abuse and indifference by international forces Justin Podur unmasks the grim reality of a supposedly benign international occupation arguing that the denial of sovereignty is the fundamental cause of Haiti's problems Haiti Will Not Perish Michael Deibert, 2017-07-15 The world's first independent black republic Haiti was forged in the fire of history's only successful slave revolution Yet more than two hundred years later the full promise of that revolution a free country and a free people remains unfulfilled Home for more than a decade to one of the world's largest UN peacekeeping forces Haiti's tumultuous political culture buffeted by coups and armed political partisans combined with economic inequality and environmental degradation to create immense difficulties even before the devastating 2010 earthquake killed tens of thousands of people This grim tale however is not the whole story In this moving and detailed history Michael Deibert who has spent two decades reporting on Haiti chronicles the heroic struggles of Haitians to build their longed for country in the face of overwhelming odds Based on hundreds of interviews with Haitian political leaders international diplomats peasant advocates and gang leaders as well as ordinary Haitians Deibert's book provides a vivid complex and challenging analysis of Haiti's recent history Dictators Frank Dikötter, 2020-07-09 A New Statesman Financial Times and Economist Book of the Year Brilliant NEW STATESMAN BOOKS OF THE YEAR Enlightening and a good read SPECTATOR Moving and perceptive NEW STATESMAN Mussolini Hitler Stalin Mao Zedong Kim Il sung Ceausescu Mengistu of Ethiopia and Duvalier of Haiti No dictator can rule through fear and violence alone Naked power can be grabbed and held temporarily but it never suffices in the long term A tyrant who can compel his own people to acclaim him will last longer The paradox of the modern dictator is that he must create the illusion of popular support Throughout the twentieth century hundreds of millions of people were condemned to enthusiasm obliged to hail their leaders even as they were herded down the road to serfdom In Dictators Frank Dikötter returns to eight of the most chillingly effective personality cults of the twentieth century From carefully choreographed parades to the deliberate cultivation of a shroud of mystery through iron censorship these dictators ceaselessly worked on their own image and encouraged the population at large to glorify them At a time when democracy is in retreat are we seeing a revival of the same techniques among some of today's world leaders This timely study told with great narrative verve examines how a cult takes hold grows and sustains itself It places the cult of personality where it belongs at the very heart of tyranny Exile and Post-1946 Haitian Literature Martin Munro, 2013-08-15 Exile and Post 1946 Haitian Literature provides readers with an excellent

introduction to recent Haitian literature one of the richest literary traditions in the Americas Martin Munro focuses on works written after 1946 a period in which exile has become the dominant theme in Haitian literature Using this notion of Haitian writing as a literature of exile Munro analyzes key novels by the most important figures of each generation of the past sixty years including Jacques Stephen Alexis Ren Depestre mile Ollivier Dany Laferriere and Edwidge Danticat King of the Mountain Arnold M. Ludwig,2002-01-01 People may choose to ignore their animal heritage by interpreting their behavior as divinely inspired socially purposeful or even self serving all of which they attribute to being human but they masticate fornicate and procreate much as chimps and apes do so they should have little cause to get upset if they learn that they act like other primates when they politically agitate debate abdicate placate and administrate too from the book King of the Mountain presents the startling findings of Arnold M Ludwig s eighteen year investigation into why people want to rule The answer may seem obvious power privilege and perks but any adequate answer also needs to explain why so many rulers cling to power even when they are miserable trust nobody feel besieged and face almost certain death Ludwig s results suggest that leaders of nations tend to act remarkably like monkeys and apes in the way they come to power govern and rule Profiling every ruler of a recognized country in the twentieth century over 1 900 people in all Ludwig establishes how rulers came to power how they lost power the dangers they faced and the odds of their being assassinated committing suicide or dying a natural death Then concentrating on a smaller sub set of 377 rulers for whom more extensive personal information was available he compares six different kinds of leaders examining their characteristics their childhoods and their mental stability or instability to identify the main predictors of later political success Ludwig s penetrating observations though presented in a lighthearted and entertaining way offer important insight into why humans have engaged in war throughout recorded history as well as suggesting how they might live together in peace The Haitian Economy (Routledge Revivals) Mats Lundahl,2015-05-08 Haiti is a very poor country with a stagnant economy This title first published in 1983 considers the Haitian economy placing it in its historical context and explores the reasons why it has performed so badly Mats Lundahl examines agriculture which has failed to provide an adequate standard of living analyses the structure of agricultural production and explains why the land is so unproductive Lundahl analyses why technology in agriculture is so underdeveloped and argues that no government since 1820 has been seriously interested in fostering economic development since vested interest consistently intervenes to discourage new projects The International Law of Responsibility for Economic Crimes Ndiva Kofele-Kale,2016-03-03 Focusing on the problem of indigenous spoliation in developing countries this work explores the controversial issue of spoliation by national officials of the wealth of the states of which they are custodians Due to constraints of the state system and the lack of appropriate substantive municipal law efforts to punish those responsible for the economic rape of entire nations and to recover spoliated funds have been frustrated and rendered insubstantial Taking a multidisciplinary approach and on the basis of data generated from empirical cross national research

this study makes the case for indigenous spoliation as a violation of international law Substantially revised and updated to take account of recent legal and political developments the second edition will be a valuable resource for academics practitioners NGOs and policymakers

Hacking Classical Forms in Haitian Literature Tom Hawkins, 2023-10-31 This is the first book to study how Haitian authors from independence in 1804 to the modern Haitian diaspora have adapted Greco Roman material and harnessed it to Haiti s legacy as the world s first anti colonial nation state In nine chronologically organized chapters built around individual Haitian authors Hawkins takes readers on a journey through one strand of Haitian literary history that draws on material from ancient Greece and Rome This cross disciplinary exploration is composed in a way that invites all readers to discover a rich and exciting cultural exchange that foregrounds the variety of ways that Haitian authors have hacked classical forms as part of their creative process Students of ancient Mediterranean cultures will learn about a branch of the Greco Roman legacy that has never been deeply explored Experts in Caribbean culture will find a robust register of Haitian literature that will enrich familiar texts And those interested in anti colonial movements will encounter a host of examples of artists creatively engaging with literary monuments from the past in ways that always keep the Haitian experience in central focus Written in a broadly accessible style Hacking Classical Forms in Haitian Literature appeals to anyone interested in Haiti Haitian literature and history anti colonial literature or classical reception studies

Haiti In Caribbean Context David Nicholls, 1985-03-18

Haitian History Alyssa Goldstein Sepinwall, 2013 Despite Haiti s proximity to the United States and its considerable importance to our own history Haiti barely registered in the historic consciousness of most Americans until recently Those who struggled to understand Haiti s suffering in the earthquake of 2010 often spoke of it as the poorest country in the Western hemisphere but could not explain how it came to be so In recent years the amount of scholarship about the island has increased dramatically Whereas once this scholarship was focused on Haiti s political or military leaders now the historiography of Haiti features lively debates and different schools of thought Even as this body of knowledge has developed it has been hard for students to grasp its various strands Haitian History presents the best of the recent articles on Haitian history by both Haitian and foreign scholars moving from colonial Saint Domingue to the aftermath of the 2010 earthquake It will be the go to one volume introduction to the field of Haitian history helping to explain how the promise of the Haitian Revolution dissipated and presenting the major debates and questions in the field today

Non-Democratic Politics Xavier Márquez, 2016-09-29 Since the 19th century there has been a slow transformation in the nature of the norms that regulate political competition and the uses of state power Monarchies whose legitimating principles appealed to divine sanction have steadily given way to republican regimes normatively grounded in appeals to the people. Ideals of liberty, equality, and solidarity have gained ground relative to ideals of hierarchy and dependence. Yet while in some ways the world is more democratic now than ever, new forms of non-democracy and new justifications for it have emerged. Drawing on a wide variety of examples and data from around the world, this important new text provides a global account of the history and theory of non-democratic government over the past two centuries. Grounded in the most recent social science research, it shows how non-democratic regimes have ruled through many different institutions, from parties to armies to dynastic families, and examines the economic and social performance of these different types of non-democracy, as well as the development of justifications for them. It discusses how, over the last century, personal dictatorships and totalitarian regimes have given way to hybrid regimes combining electoral competition with various restrictions on the ability of parties and other social groups to effectively compete for control of the state. The book assesses the processes through which non-democratic regimes change and sometimes democratize, from cultural change and economic development to collective action and revolution. Offering a cutting-edge analysis of the complex issue of non-democratic politics, this is the perfect introduction for students with an interest in how authoritarianism exerts itself in the modern age.

Artists, Performers, and Black Masculinity in the Haitian Diaspora Jana Evans Braziel, 2008-06-27 Jana Evans Braziel examines how Haitian diaspora writers, performance artists, and musicians address black masculinity through the Haitian Creole concept of gwo n g s or big men. She focuses on six artists and their work: writer Dany Laferrière, director Raoul Peck, rap artist Wyclef Jean, artist Jean-Michel Basquiat, drag queen performer and poet Assotto Saint, and queer drag king performer Dr d a k a Mildr d Gerestant. For Braziel, these individuals confront the gendered, sexualized, and racialized boundaries of America's diaspora communities and openly resist domestic imperialism that targets immigrants, minorities, women, gays, and queers. This is a groundbreaking study at the intersections of gender and sexuality with race, ethnicity, nationality, and diaspora.

A Brief History of the Caribbean D. H. Figueredo, Frank Argote-Freyre, 2008 A Brief History of the Caribbean is an overview of the historical events that have taken place and shaped the islands of the Caribbean Sea.

Red Heat Alex von Tunzelmann, 2011-03-29 The Caribbean crises of the Cold War are revealed as never before in this riveting story of clashing ideologies, the rise of the politics of fear, the machinations of superpowers, and the brazen daring of the mavericks who took them on. During the presidencies of Eisenhower, Kennedy, and Johnson, the Caribbean was in crisis. The men responsible included from Cuba the charismatic Fidel Castro and his mysterious brother Raúl from Argentina the ideologue Che Guevara, from the Dominican Republic the capricious psychopath Rafael Trujillo, and from Haiti François Papa Doc Duvalier, a buttoned-down doctor with interests in Vodou, embezzlement, and torture. Alex von Tunzelmann's brilliant narrative follows these five rivals and accomplices from the beginning of the Cold War to its end each with a separate vision for his tropical paradise and each in search of power and adventure as the United States and the USSR acted out the world's tensions in their island nations The superpowers thought they could use Cuba Haiti and the Dominican Republic as puppets but what neither bargained on was that their puppets would come to life Red Heat is an intimate account of the strong willed men who armed with little but words and ruthlessness took on the most powerful nations on earth
