Paper Machine Cultural Memory In The Present:

Paper Machine Jacques Derrida, 2005 This book questions the book itself archivization machines for writing and the mechanicity inherent in language the media and intellectuals Derrida questions what takes place between the paper and the machine inscribing it He examines what becomes of the archive when the world of paper is subsumed in new machines for virtualization and whether there can be a virtual event or a virtual archive Derrida continues his long standing investigation of these issues and ties them into the new themes that governed his teaching and thinking in the past few years the secret pardon perjury state sovereignty hospitality the university animal rights capital punishment the question of what sort of mediatized world is replacing the print epoch and the question of the wholly other Derrida is remarkable at making seemingly occasional pieces into part of a complexly interconnected trajectory of thought Hope in a Secular Age David Newheiser, 2019-12-19 Uses premodern theology and postmodern theory to show the endurance of religious and political commitments through the practice of hope Tactical Publishing Alessandro Ludovico, 2024-12-17 How to level up to the next transformative phase of publishing with a critical methodology that transcends the dichotomy of paper and digital media production Publishing is experiencing one of the most transformative phases in its history In Tactical Publishing a sequel to Post Digital Print Alessandro Ludovico explores the forces driving this historical phase highlighting the tremendous opportunities it presents Our task he believes is to develop an alternative publishing system that transcends the dichotomy between paper and digital media He focuses first on the two activities on which publishing is premised reading and writing with an emphasis on writing machines and post truth in the latter and then deconstructs the concept proposing alternative strategies inspired by recent practices and unconventional uses of technology Ludovico shows how the radical and strategic use of print in the past can serve as the basis for our transition to the next phase of publishing He argues that the new ecology of publishing should be based on three main elements the stimulation of our senses the role of software in forming the publishing infrastructure and the importance of archives During this transition from the current post digital phase to the next phase independent publishers and artists as well as readers and machines will enable new structures and actions that realize the potential of publishing and the preservation of content thereby enriching social practices The author also considers the crucial social role played by new forms of libraries as artists and publishers shape the coming publishing world in its various manifestations Combining analytical accounts of tactical strategies with examples from artworks and experimental practices the book concludes with a manifesto for publishing in the twenty first century and an appendix with a selection of one hundred publications representing the periodic table of future publishing Theses on the Metaphors of Digital-Textual History Martin Paul Eve, 2024-07-16 Digital spaces are saturated with metaphor we have pages sites mice and windows Yet in the world of digital textuality these metaphors no longer function as we might expect Martin Paul Eve calls attention to the digital textual metaphors that condition our experience of digital space and traces their history as they interact with physical cultures Eve posits that digital textual metaphors move through three life phases Initially they are descriptive Then they encounter a moment of fracture or rupture Finally they go on to have a prescriptive life of their own that conditions future possibilities for our text environments even when the metaphors have become untethered from their original intent Why is whitespace white Was the digital page always a foregone conclusion Over a series of theses Eve addresses these and other questions in order to understand the moments when digital textual metaphors break and to show us how it is that our textual softwares become locked into paradigms that no longer make sense Contributing to book history literary studies new media studies and material textual studies Theses on the Metaphors of Digital Textual History provides generative insights into the metaphors that define our digital worlds Rocket States: Atomic Weaponry and the Cultural Imagination Fabienne Collignon, 2014-07-31 Rocket States crosses the disciplines of Cold War Studies American Literature American Studies and Cultural Studies The particular attraction of this study lies in the combination of its range close textual and visual analysis of the correlations between land and weaponry set firmly within its political and cultural contexts with its unique analytical approach The book offers a synthesis between history theories of technology theories of space popular culture literary study and military science It illuminates a variety of literary texts from key writers and thinkers such as Pynchon Stephen King Norman Mailer and Tom Wolfe while also invoking figures like Nikola Tesla James Webb Batman and Ronald Reagan Organised topographically according to how missile technology manifests itself differently in particular locations Rocket States s geographical targets are Colorado Kansas Cape Canaveral and New York variously titled Excavation Preservation Evacuation and Transmission It advances through these states roughly chronologically beginning in the late 1940s and early 1950s and coming to an end in the first part of the 21st century Collignon s argument is concerned with identifying the recurring figures and fantasies of the Cold War the dome or parabola as sheltering techno form the fictions of total security adapting to constantly changing targeting strategies gadget love closed freezing worlds As such Rocket States analyses by what processes the Cold War is frequently literalised in its weapons installations and how these facilities in turn shape dreams of containment survival escape and techno supremacy Religion and Cultural Memory Jan Assmann, Rodney Livingstone, 2006 In ten brilliant essays Jan Assmann explores the connections between religion culture and memory Building on Maurice Halbwachs s idea that memory like language is a social phenomenon as well as an individual one he argues that memory has a cultural dimension too He develops a persuasive view of the life of the past in such surface phenomena as codes religious rites and festivals and canonical texts on the one hand and in the Freudian psychodrama of repressing and resurrecting the past on the other Whereas the current fad for oral history inevitably focuses on the actual memories of the last century or so Assmann presents a commanding view of culture extending over five thousand years He focuses on cultural memory from the Egyptians Babylonians and the Osage Indians down to recent controversies about memorializing the Holocaust in Germany and the role of memory in the current disputes between Israelis and Palestinians in the Middle East and between Protestants and Catholics in Northern Ireland The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Deleuzian Concepts Paul Patton, 2010-05-19 Patton's book is an important and innovative contribution to Deleuze studies and to contemporary debates in philosophy and the humanities His arguments are convincing and stimulating they open the way for a new and sober reading of Deleuze and bring him into dialogue with the tradition of political liberalism and pragmatism His use of the concept of the event to understand the history of colonization gives the reader a compelling example of what the political function of philosophy is or could be Paola Marrati The Johns Hopkins University Book Jacket Adorno's Nonidentical and Derrida's Différance - For a Resurrection of Negative Dialectics Stefan Zenklusen, 2020-11-06 The virulent anti Hegelianism of French poststructuralism and its difficult confrontation with Jürgen Habermas has long obscured the closeness of Jacques Derrida's différance to Theodor W Adorno's Nonidentical Taking the overarching theme of identity and difference as a guide we can peel apart what unites and separates these two thinkers In so doing certain de-realizing effects of Derrida's entrapment in signs reveal themselves By contrast Adorno's social and cultural diagnosis when extrapolated to a post-Fordian context is astonishingly fruitful Attempts to trivialize negative dialectics as a model of intellectual self-understanding from a past age or as an esthetic reserve of ways of life are untenable How to Do Things with Books in Victorian Britain Leah Price, 2013-10-27 How to Do Things with Books in Victorian Britain asks how our culture came to frown on using books for any purpose other than reading When did the coffee table book become an object of scorn Why did law courts forbid witnesses to kiss the Bible What made Victorian cartoonists mock commuters who hid behind the newspaper ladies who matched their books binding to their dress and servants who reduced newspapers to fish n chips wrap Shedding new light on novels by Thackeray Dickens the Bront s Trollope and Collins as well as the urban sociology of Henry Mayhew Leah Price also uncovers the lives and afterlives of anonymous religious tracts and household manuals From knickknacks to wastepaper books mattered to the Victorians in ways that cannot be explained by their printed content alone And whether displayed defaced exchanged or discarded printed matter participated and still participates in a range of transactions that stretches far beyond reading Supplementing close readings with a sensitive reconstruction of how Victorians thought and felt about books Price offers a new model for integrating literary theory with cultural history How to Do Things with Books in Victorian Britain reshapes our understanding of the interplay between words and objects in the nineteenth century and beyond

The Subjectivities and Objectivities of Peer Review Daniel Ucko,2024-12-16 What do we want Evidence based science When do we want it After peer review We have come to think of peer review as the stamp of quality that separates real results from mere conjecture but a look under the hood reveals that the participants inside of peer review are far from objective This book reclaims subjectivity and affirms a social mode of objectivity which prevents peer review from overpromising and underdelivering in its vital role in knowledge production

Appendix to Seven Controlled Vocabularies and Obituary 2004, the Joy of Cooking Tan Lin,Charles Bernstein,2010

Remapping African Literature Olabode Ibironke,2018-02-12 This book is an exploration of the material conditions of the production of African literature Drawing on the archives of Heinemann s African Writers Series it highlights the procedures relationships demands ideologies and counterpressures engendered by the publication of three major authors Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiongo As a study of the history and techniques of African literary texts this book advances a theory of reciprocity of effects what it terms auto heteronomy to describe the dynamic of formalist activism by which texts anticipate and shape the forces of literary production in advance It serves as a departure from the death of the author thesis by reconsidering the role of the author in African literature and culture industry as well as the influence of African publics on writers aesthetic choices and on the overall processes of production This work is a major contribution to African literary history literary criticism and book history

Biblical Blaspheming Yvonne Sherwood,2012-09-06 Explores the persistence of blasphemy in modern secular democracies and examines ways of talking and thinking about the Bible

Reading Project Jessica Pressman,Mark C. Marino,Jeremy Douglass,2015-05-01 Electronic literature is a rapidly growing area of creative production and scholarly interest It is inherently multimedial and multimodal and thus demands multiple critical methods of interpretation Reading Project A Collaborative Analysis of William Poundstone s Project for Tachistoscope Bottomless Pit is a collaboration between three scholars combining different interpretive methods of digital literature and poetics in order to think through how critical reading is changing and indeed must change to keep up with the emergence of digital poetics and practices It weaves together radically different methodological approaches close reading of onscreen textual and visual aesthetics Critical Code Studies and cultural analytics big data into a collaborative interpretation of a single work of digital literature Project for the Tachistoscope Bottomless Pit is a work of electronic literature that presents a high speed one word at a time animation synchronized to visual and aural effects It tells the tale of a mysterious pit and its impact on the surrounding community Programmed in Flash and published online its fast flashing aesthetic of information overload bombards the reader with images text and sound in ways that challenge the ability to read carefully closely and analytically in traditional ways The work s multiple layers of poetics and programming can be most effectively read and analyzed through collaborative efforts at computational criticism such as is modeled in this book The result is a unique and trailblazing book that presents the authors collaborative efforts and interpretations as a case study for performing digital humanities literary criticism of born digital poetics

Beckett, Derrida, and the Event of Literature Asja Szafraniec, 2007 The late Jacques Derrida s notion of literature is explored in this new study Starting with Derrida s self professed inability to comment on the work of Samuel Beckett whom Derrida nevertheless considered one of the most interesting and exemplary writers of our time Asja Szafraniec argues that the shared feature of literary works as Derrida understands them is a double juridical economical gesture and that one aspect of this notion the juridical is more hospitable to Beckett s oeuvre than the other She then discusses other contemporary philosophical approaches to Beckett including those of Gilles Deleuze Stanley Cavell and Alain Badiou The book offers an innovative analysis of Derrida s approach to literature as well as an overview of current philosophical approaches to contemporary literature and a number of innovative readings of Beckett s work

The Testimonial Uncanny Julia V. Emberley, 2014-09-30 Through the study of Indigenous literary and artistic practices from Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States Julia V Emberley examines the ways Indigenous storytelling discloses and repairs the traumatic impact of social violence in settler colonial nations She focuses on Indigenous storytelling in a range of cultural practices including novels plays performances media reports Internet museum exhibits and graphic novels In response to historical trauma such as that experienced at Indian residential schools as well as present day violence against Indigenous bodies and land Indigenous storytellers make use of Indigenous spirituality and the sacred to inform an ethics of hospitality They provide uncanny configurations of political and social kinships between people between the past and the present and between the animate and inanimate This book introduces readers to cultural practices and theoretical texts concerned with bringing Indigenous epistemologies to the discussion of trauma and colonial violence

The Decision Between Us John Paul Ricco, 2014-03-31 The Decision Between Us combines an inventive reading of Jean Luc Nancy with queer theoretical concerns to argue that while scenes of intimacy are spaces of sharing they are also spaces of separation John Paul Ricco shows that this tension informs our efforts to coexist ethically and politically an experience of sharing and separation that informs any decision Using this incongruous relation of intimate separation Ricco goes on to propose that decision is as much an aesthetic as it is an ethical construct and one that is always defined in terms of our relations to loss absence departure and death Laying out this theory of unbecoming community in modern and contemporary art literature and philosophy and calling our attention to such things as blank sheets of paper images of unmade beds and the spaces around bodies The Decision Between Us opens in 1953 when Robert Rauschenberg famously erased a drawing by Willem de Kooning and Roland Barthes published Writing Degree Zero then moves to 1980 and the neutral mourning of Barthes Camera Lucida and ends in the early 1990s with installations by Felix Gonzalez Torres Offering surprising new considerations of these and other seminal works of art and theory by Jean Genet Marguerite Duras and Catherine Breillat The Decision Between Us is a highly original and unusually imaginative exploration of the spaces between us arousing and evoking an infinite and profound sense of sharing in scenes of passionate erotic pleasure as well as deep loss and mourning

Self-Regulation and Human Progress Evan Osborne, 2018-01-23 Most of us are familiar with free market competition the idea that society and the economy benefit when people are left to self regulate testing new ideas in pursuit of profit Less known is the fact that this theory arose after arguments for the scientific method and freedom of speech had gone mainstream and that all three share a common basis Proponents of self regulation in the realm of free speech have argued that unhindered public expression causes true ideas to gain strength through scrutiny Similarly scientific inquiry has been regarded as a self correcting system one in which competing hypotheses are verified by multiple independent researchers It was long thought that society was better left to organize itself through free markets as opposed to political institutions But over the twentieth century we became less confident in the notion of a self regulating socioeconomy Evan Osborne traces the rise and fall of this once popular concept He argues that as society becomes more complex self regulation becomes more efficient and can once again serve our economy well

Structures of Memory Jennifer A. Jordan, 2006 Structures of Memory turns to the landscape of contemporary Berlin particularly places marked by the presence of the Nazi regime in order to understand how some places of great cruelty or great heroism are forgotten by all but eyewitnesses while others become the site of public ceremonies museums or commemorative monuments
