Paper Trail Selected Prose 1965 2003:

Paper Trail Richard Howard, 2005-10-12 Richard Howard has been writing stylish deeply informed commentary on modern culture and literature for more than four decades Here is a selection of his finest essays including some never before published in book form on a splendid range of subjects from American poets like Emily Dickinson and Marianne Moore to French artists such as Rodin and Michel Delacroix Also included are considerations of modern sculpture and of the photography of the human body Howard s intense familiarity with modern poetry is seen to excellent effect in essays on the poetry of forgetting on the causes and effects of experimental poetry and on the first books of poets whose work he helped introduce among them J D McClatchy Frank Bidart and Cynthia MacDonald Of course Howard brings to his consideration of French literature a rare wisdom drawn from his celebrated work as a translator of Stendhal and Gide Barthes and Cocteau Yourcenar and Gracq Hilton Kramer once wrote that Richard Howard performs the essential critical service He shows us the extent of the terrain He points out its essential features And he gives us a very vivid sense of its ethos as well as of its esthetics Howard now in his seventy fifth year continues his adroit inventive commentary which enriches us all Letter Writing Among Poets Jonathan Ellis, 2015-01-13 No detailed description available for Letter Writing Among Poets The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry Museum Mediations Barbara K. Fisher, 2006-01-24 This interdisciplinary study participates in the ongoing critical conversation about postwar American poetry and visual culture while advancing that field into the arena of the museum Turning to contemporary poems about the visual arts that foreground and interrogate a museum setting the book demonstrates the particular importance of the museum as a cultural site that is both inspiration and provocation for poets The study uniquely bridges the dual canon in contemporary poetry and calls the lyric avant garde distinction into question by analyzing museum sponsored anthologies as well as poems by John Ashbery Richard Howard Kenneth Koch Kathleen Fraser Cole Swensen Anne Carson and others Through these case studies of poets with diverse affiliations the author shows that the boom in ekphrasis in the past 20 years is not only an aesthetic but a critical phenomenon a way that poets have come to terms with the critical dilemmas of our moment Highlighting the importance of poets peripheral vision awareness of the institutional conditions that frame encounters with art the author contend that a museum visit becomes a forum for questioning oppositions that have preoccupied literary criticism for the past 50 years homage and innovation modernism and postmodernism subjectivity and collectivity The study shows that ekphrasis becomes a strategy for negotiating these impasses a mode of political inquiry a meditation on canonization a venue for comic appraisal of institutionalization and a means of site specific feminist revision in a vital synthesis of critique perspicacity and pleasure Translation and Modernism Emily O. Wittman, 2023-12-08 This innovative volume extends existing conversations on translation and modernism with an eye toward bringing renewed attention to its ethically complex appropriative nature and the subsequent ways in which modernist translators become co creators of the materials they translate Wittman builds on existing work at the intersection of the two fields to offer a more dynamic nuanced and wider lens on translation and modernism The book draws on scholarship from descriptive translation studies polysystems theory and literary translation to explore modernist translators appropriation of source texts and their continuous recalibrations of equivalence between source text and translation Chapters focus on translation projects from a range of writers including Beckett Garnett Lawrence Mansfield and Rhys with a particular spotlight on how women s translations and women translators innovations were judged more critically than those of their male counterparts Taken together the volume puts forth a fresh perspective on translation and modernism and of the role of the modernist translator as co creator in the translation process This book will be of particular interest to scholars in translation studies modernism reception theory and gender studies

White Heat Brenda Wineapple, 2009-12-01 White Heat is the first book to portray the remarkable relationship between America s most beloved poet and the fiery abolitionist who first brought her work to the public As the Civil War raged an unlikely friendship was born between the reclusive poet Emily Dickinson and Thomas Wentworth Higginson a literary figure who ran guns to Kansas and commanded the first Union regiment of black soldiers When Dickinson sent Higginson four of her poems he realized he had encountered a wholly original genius their intense correspondence continued for the next quarter century In White Heat Brenda Wineapple tells an extraordinary story about poetry politics and love one that sheds new light on her subjects and on the roiling America they shared

Missing Link Jeffery Donaldson,2015-04-01 We look for missing links in the sciences and humanities but the essential missing link metaphor is always in front of us In Missing Link Jeffery Donaldson unites literary criticism and evolutionary and cognitive science to show how metaphor has been with us since the beginning of time as a seed in the nature of things With examples from centuries of poets critics philosophers and scientists he details how metaphor is a chemistry an exchange of energies forming and dissolving and an openness in the spaces between things He considers the ways in which DNA learns how to liken things that have been how mutation makes errors and then tries them on and how evolution is hypothesis nature s way of thinking more The mind is a matrix of relations neural synapses cascade into ever changing pathways and patterns Metaphor is the substance of things hoped for the evidence of things not seen It is the unbroken thread between matter and spirit Whether offering analysis of a turn of phrase or chemical reaction Missing Link presents a vision of literature that is also a vision of the cosmos and vice versa It enters the debate between evolution and religion and challenges scientists literary theorists and religious advocates to rethink the relations between their disciplines come Gutsy and indomitable Lee Krasner was a hell raising leader among artists long before she became part of the modern art world's first celebrity couple by marrying Jackson Pollock Elaine de Kooning whose brilliant mind and peerless charm made her the emotional center of the New York School used her work and words to build a bridge between the avant garde and a public that scorned abstract art as a hoax Grace Hartigan fearlessly abandoned life as a New Jersey housewife and mother to achieve stardom as one of the boldest painters of her generation Joan Mitchell whose notoriously tough exterior shielded a vulnerable artist within escaped a privileged but emotionally damaging Chicago childhood to translate her fierce vision into magnificent canvases And Helen Frankenthaler the beautiful daughter of a prominent New York family chose the difficult path of the creative life Her gamble paid off At twenty three she created a work so original it launched a new school of painting These women changed American art and society tearing up the prevailing social code and replacing it with a doctrine of liberation In Ninth Street Women acclaimed author Mary Gabriel tells a remarkable and inspiring story of the power of art and artists in shaping not just postwar America but the future Poets & Writers ,2004 The Book Review Digest ,2004 Library Journal ,2004 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately The New York Times Index ,2004
