Paper Voices Anthony Charles H. Smith, Elizabeth Immirzi, Trevor Blackwell, 1975      Paper Voices. The Popular Press and Social Change, 1935-1965. With E. Immirzi and T. Blackwell. with an Introd. by S. Hall, 1975      How Journalism Uses History Martin Conboy, 2013-09-13 How Journalism Uses History examines the various ways in which journalism uses history and historical sources in order to better understand the relationships between journalists historians and journalism scholars It highlights the ambiguous overlap between the role of the historian and that of the journalist and underlines that there no longer seems to be reason to accept that one begins only where the other ends With Journalism Studies as a developing subject area throughout the world journalism history is becoming a particularly vivacious field As such How Journalism Uses History argues that if historical study of this kind is to achieve its full potential there needs to be a fuller and more consistent engagement with other academics studying the past political social and cultural historians in particular but also scholars working in politics sociology literature and linguistics Contributors in this book discuss the core themes which inform history s relationship with journalism from a wide range of geographical and methodological perspectives They aim to create more ambitious conversations about using journalism both as a source for understanding the past and for clarifying ideas about its role as constituent of the public sphere in using discourse and tradition to connect contemporary audiences with history This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Practice      Visual Research Methods in the Social Sciences Stephen Spencer, 2022-09-23 Visual Research Methods in the Social Sciences Awakening Visions is an indispensable resource for students researchers and teachers seeking to use visual sources in their research and understand how images work This fully updated edition adds questions and activities for studies and many new images and models as well as additional exploration of social and theoretical contexts and examples of current visual and multimodal research Due to the proliferation of image centric social media and the growing potential for fake news being able to critically assess media and other visual messages is more important than ever For researchers embarking on visual research this book offers useful practical guidance and real world examples from seasoned researchers exploring cultures as varied as religious cults in Venezuela the Beer Can Regatta in Darwin Mapuche Indians in Chile and graffiti artists in Sheffield It offers an integrated approach to visual research building compelling case studies using a wide range of visual forms including archive images media samples maps objects video photographs and drawings alongside traditional qualitative approaches Examples of the visual construction of place representations of social identities and different approaches to analysis are explored in the first section of the book whilst the essays in the second section highlight the creativity and innovation of four leading visual researchers This new edition will prove valuable for both experienced visual researchers and those embarking on visual research in the social sciences for the first time      A Networked Self Zizi Papacharissi, 2010-09-10 A Networked Self examines self presentation and social connection in the digital age This collection brings together new work on online social networks by leading scholars from a variety of disciplines The volume is structured around the core themes of identity community and culture the central themes of social network sites Contributors address theory research and practical implications of the many aspects of online social networks Islam Dot Com M. el-Nawawy,Sahar M. Khamis,2009-06-22 This book analyzes the discourses and deliberations in the discussion forums of three of the most visited Islamic websites and investigates the extent to which they have provided a venue for Muslims to freely engage in discussion among themselves and with non Muslims about political economic religious and social issues

Press Portrayals of Women Politicians, 1870s-2000s , Teri Finneman,2015-11-25 Recent history suggests the United States is within reach of its first woman president This book examines the media experiences of women political pioneers who helped pave the way to the breaking of the glass ceiling It analyzes newspaper treatment of four pioneering politicians between the 1870s and 2000s and explores how media discourse of women politicians has and hasn t changed over 150 years The women featured are Victoria Woodhull the first woman to run for president Jeannette Rankin the first woman elected to Congress Margaret Chase Smith the first woman to receive a presidential nomination at a major party s convention and Sarah Palin the first Republican woman vice presidential candidate The social political and journalistic cultures of each woman s era are also explored to provide context for the women s media coverage The findings illustrate that the press has used a variety of discursive strategies to delegitimize the candidacies of women politicians throughout history which might have contributed to negative voter attitudes toward women in politics Gendered stereotypes gendered news frames and double binds utilized in news coverage served to protect a male dominated status quo Yet a significant finding in Palin s coverage indicates that gender bias in news coverage is increasingly facing criticism suggesting the tide may finally be turning in favor of more equalized discourse News, Public Relations and Power Simon Cottle,2003-04-24

Introducing theoretical ideas and the latest empirical findings in this fast developing field of media communication this book brings together contributions from leading international researchers who address important issues in public relations and mediated promotion Media Studies Paul Marris,Sue Thornham,2000-03 Media Studies A Reader provides a thorough introduction to the full range of theoretical perspectives on the mass media from the past thirty years Ranging from the arguments between the American mass communication tradition and the Europe centered Frankfurt School of the 1940s to the analyses of communication technologies by Marshall McLuhan and Raymond Williams in the 1960s Media Studies A Reader maps the mass media field its varied and often conflicting histories and its current debates Sixty five articles provide comprehensive coverage of all the main theorists and approaches The first half Studying the Media explores in detail three core elements of media studies production and regulation of mass media media texts and reception and consumption of media The second half brings together concrete examples of how theoretical debates can be realized in a series of case studies on soap operas the news and advertising A general introduction and introductions to each section summarize and

contextualize the debates Contributors include Theodor W Adorno Marshal McLuhan Raymond Williams Stuart Hall Annette Kuhn Jürgen Habermas John Fiske Richard Dyer Niki Strange Danae Clark Angela McRobbie Bill Nichols Lynne Joyrich David Morley Ien Ang Janice Radway Henry Jenkins Tania Modleski Anne McClintock Sadie Plant Listening Deafly and the Rhetoric of Sound Sarah Mayberry Scott, 2023-10-15 In this book Sarah Mayberry Scott bridges the seemingly insurmountable divide between sound studies and deaf studies by considering the persuasive nature of sound at the intersection of sound rhetoric and deafness Using three contemporary films as critical touchstones CODA 2021 A Quiet Place 2018 and Sound of Metal 2019 Scott investigates how the history and values of Deaf culture provide opportunities for expanding the concepts of voice silence and listening to include a plurality of embodied experiences Through utilizing an innovative rhetorical approach of listening deafly to sound the author asserts that it is possible to understand voice without orality to experience sound without hearing and to listen in multi modal ways to show that all bodies are sound bodies Scholars of deaf studies sound studies and rhetoric will find this book of particular interest Making Sense of Moral Panics Sarah Wright Monod, 2017-10-06 This book offers a comprehensive framework for the study of moral panics It provides an up to date overview of the history and development of the concept of panic and discusses the key criticisms and debates that have stemmed from its use over the last four decades While investigating the critical connections between crime reporting and panic development Wright Monod also highlights the overall importance of social context and social theory for understanding episodes of moral panic Two case studies one on murdering teens and the other on gangs and guns are explored to demonstrate the efficacy of the framework and five research phases for panic study are extensively analysed Drawing on the nature of sensationalist media coverage and considering the impact of new media ecosystems in panic development this innovative study considers the shape of the field of moral panic scholarship today and crucially the directions in which its study is heading This is an informed and original book which will appeal to scholars of risk deviance and criminal justice Youth in Crisis? Barry Goldson, 2011-03-17 Few issues attract greater concern and censure than those that surround youth gangs Comprising a series of essays from leading national and international researchers this book subjects such claims to rigorous critical scrutiny It provides a challenging and authoritative account of complex questions pertaining to urban youth identities crime and social order Law-and-Order News Steve Chibnall, 2013-07-04 Tavistock Press was established as a co operative venture between the Tavistock Institute and Routledge Kegan Paul RKP in the 1950s to produce a series of major contributions across the social sciences This volume is part of a 2001 reissue of a selection of those important works which have since gone out of print or are difficult to locate Published by Routledge 112 volumes in total are being brought together under the name The International Behavioural and Social Sciences Library Classics from the Tavistock Press Reproduced here in facsimile this volume was originally published in 1977 and is available individually The collection is also available in a number of themed mini sets of between 5 and 13 volumes or as a complete collection The

Black Image in the White Mind Robert M. Entman, Andrew Rojecki, 2024-05-31 Living in a segregated society white Americans learn about African Americans not through personal relationships but through the images the media show them The Black Image in the White Mind offers the most comprehensive look at the intricate racial patterns in the mass media and how they shape the ambivalent attitudes of Whites toward Blacks Using the media and especially television as barometers of race relations Robert Entman and Andrew Rojecki explore but then go beyond the treatment of African Americans on network and local news to incisively uncover the messages sent about race by the entertainment industry from prime time dramas and sitcoms to commercials and Hollywood movies While the authors find very little in the media that intentionally promotes racism they find even less that advances racial harmony They reveal instead a subtle pattern of images that while making room for Blacks implies a racial hierarchy with Whites on top and promotes a sense of difference and conflict Commercials for example feature plenty of Black characters But unlike Whites they rarely speak to or touch one another In prime time the few Blacks who escape sitcom buffoonery rarely enjoy informal friendly contact with White colleagues perhaps reinforcing social distance in real life Entman and Rojecki interweave such astute observations with candid interviews of White Americans that make clear how these images of racial difference insinuate themselves into Whites thinking Despite its disturbing readings of television and film the book s cogent analyses and proposed policy guidelines offer hope that America s powerful mediated racial separation can be successfully bridged Entman and Rojecki look at how television news focuses on black poverty and crime out of proportion to the material reality of black lives how black experts are only interviewed for black themed issues and how black politics are distorted in the news and conclude that while there are more images of African Americans on television now than there were years ago these images often don t reflect a commitment to racial comity or community building between the races Thoroughly researched and convincingly argued Publishers Weekly Drawing on their own research and that of a wide array of other scholars Entman and Rojecki present a great deal of provocative data showing a general tendency to devalue blacks or force them into stock categories Ben Yagoda New Leader Winner of the Frank Luther Mott Award for best book in Mass Communication and the Robert E Lane Award for best book in political psychology

The Arab-Israeli Conflict in the Media Tamar Ashuri, 2010-10-30 The television industry has metamorphosised from a national and largely monopolized sector to a commercial and global enterprise This has profoundly altered the way historical truth and shared memory are constructed and conveyed Here Ashuri provides a groundbreaking study of the changes through the vantage point of an illuminating mode of television production international co productions By taking an example based on current events in the Middle East a television documentary on the Arab Israeli conflict co produced by three television networks BBC PBS MBC her study enriches contemporary media research providing an unprecedented behind the scenes look at the entire production process of a co produced television history She shows that making the documentary on the Arab Israeli struggle turned into a war a war over competing memories interpretation editing and finally narration Ashuri's analysis of transnational documentary collaborations reveals inherent tensions between economic constraints and cultural forces between the local and global and between shared and cosmopolitan memory Enriching political economy studies of media by exploring the cultural negotiations at the heart of television production process and highlighting the economic processes that underlie the contested constructions of national histories The Arab Israeli Conflict in the Media will be essential reading for those interested in media and television studies as well as globalization and cultural identity

Cultural Meanings of News Daniel A. Berkowitz, 2011 What is news Why does news turn out like it does What factors influence the creation production and dissemination of news Cultural Meanings of News takes on these deceptively simple questions through an essential collection of seminal and contemporary studies by leaders in the fields of mass communication and media studies Similar in format and purpose to editor Dan Berkowitz's award winning Social Meanings of News this new volume represents a conceptual update a continuation of the discourse about the nature of news and how it comes to be moving ideas ahead from the earlier tradition of sociological approaches to the more pervasive cultural perspectives that inform understandings about news Cultural Meanings of News provides a carefully selected set of readings organized into thematic areas that each probe a dimension of the literature from sociological roots to cultural perspectives news as narrative and cultural text newswork as cultural ritual news as cultural myth news and its interpretive communities news as a source and reflection of collective memory toward the future of news research This text reader provides students and scholars with first hand exposure to cultural approaches to the study of news while also providing an organizing framework for understanding the commonalities and differences between threads in the research The goals are to engage readers through guided immersion in the material

Millions Like Us? Nick Hayes, Jeff Hill, 1999-04-01 This collection of essays brings together the latest historical research on cultural production and reception during the Second World War Its starting point is how this war was presented to and understood by contemporaries and how they differentiated it from earlier conflicts Although this was particularly noticeable in the construction of ideas of inclusiveness and commonality where the people pulled together to secure victory and a socially equitable peace the essays also seek to explore the diversity of institutional and personal experiences Essays look at major national institutions and industries such as the recently formed BBC the culturally diverse and rapidly expanding commercial press and the British film industry The collection explores the role of the individual agent with studies on established writers and composers and how each related to the collective rationales of wartime

Impact of Communication and the Media on Ethnic Conflict Gibson, Steven, 2015-12-22 Throughout the world cultural and racial clashes remain a major hurdle to development and progress Though some areas are experiencing successful intercultural communications which pave the way for peaceful negotiations there are still many regions experiencing severe turmoil Impact of Communication and the Media on Ethnic Conflict focuses on both the positive and negative outcomes of communication and media usage as well as the overall perceptions of these elements within conflicting populations Featuring theoretical perspectives on various intergroup interaction experiences within contemporary ethnic controversies this publication will appeal to scholars researchers professors and practitioners interested in ethnic studies conflict resolution communications and global peace building

Paper Voices The Popular Press And Social Change 1935 1965: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Let's delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Paper Voices The Popular Press And Social Change 1935 1965 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
