Adventist Interchurch Relations Stefan Höschele, 2022-09-05 This study presents the first comprehensive analysis of Seventhday Adventist interchurch relations a 20 million member body whose ecumenical stance has so far been underresearched For the sake of interpreting denominational involvement and reservations in Adventism as well as beyond the study develops a new academic approach to ecumenism based on Relational Models Theory a comprehensive social science paradigm of interpreting human relationships The resulting typology of ecumenical interactions and the historical case study of Adventism suggest that such a relational interpretation of ecumenical interaction sheds light on many of the unresolved issues in ecumenics such as divergent concepts of unity difficulties in recognition processes and the permanence of denominationalism

Salvation's Song Pearl Love, 2017-05-16 Only a chosen few can prevent an ancient evil from overtaking the world the Singers the Seekers and the Saviors Tyrell Hughes and Jeremy Michalak are both juniors at Winton Yowell High School in Chicago and aside from sharing a homeroom they couldn't be more different Tyrell is well liked surrounded by friends popular with girls and looking forward to a bright future Jeremy transfers to Winton Yowell to escape the troubles of his past He's hoping to survive his last two years of high school by flying under his new classmates' radar and indulging in his passion playing clarinet Tyrell and Jeremy struggle to ignore their attraction to each other But that becomes increasingly difficult as young people across the city start dying Both teens realize they alone know the true cause of the tragedies and have the ability to put a stop to them They're the city's only chance to defeat the dark forces threatening it but to succeed they'll need to find common ground and reconcile the desires they're trying to deny

Wartime Culture in Guilin, 1938-1944 Pingchao Zhu, 2015-10-30 This book examines the development of wartime culture in the city of Guilin Guangxi Province in southwestern China during a major part of the country's war of resistance against Japanese invasion between 1938 and 1944 This study challenges existing historiography on China's wartime culture at three levels First the Guangxi

warlord group played a crucial role in maintaining regional security providing a liberalized political environment for wartime cultural activities and facilitating wartime nationalist communist relations at both local and national levels Second wartime culture was more literary than political and it reflected a powerful intellectual vigor that was an indispensable component of China's war efforts Intellectuals of different social and political backgrounds were their own organic selves feeling no pressure to come to intellectual consensus in literary production Third wartime culture was characterized by the active participation of many international groups political organizations and foreign individuals The literary works produced in Guilin between 1938 and 1944 clearly reflected a combination of Chinese national and international anti fascist and anti military sentiment Chinese literary masterpieces were translated into different foreign languages and noted foreign literature and political works were introduced to Chinese audiences through various cultural and political exchange programs in the city
