

Feature Highlights

27

The WNYU news department's emphasis on covering timely and important stories includes producing the half-hour public affairs program, "Feature". Hosted Monday nights at 7:30 p.m., "Feature" topics have encompassed local community problems, such as the city's recent racial attacks and the fight over sex education in public schools to the role of women in the Vietnam War. "Feature" tries to bring to light new facts and a different view of current events. In the following interview by Bob Vorseburg, the "feature veteran" of the Vietnam War shares their thoughts on their time spent in-country.

BY BOB VORSEBURG

BOB: How are you going to begin with me, because you were there. What was your situation when you returned?

BOB: I was out of nursing school roughly a year and a half. My husband realized he wanted to go to Vietnam at our first wedding anniversary and I wanted to go with him. In at least the same country with him, I ended up at the US Education in Cu Chi.

BOB: Where was your husband stationed?

BOB: He was actually staff of our hospital, and from there he was transferred up to our base camp.

BOB: How did it feel knowing that your husband could very well show up at the hospital one day?

BOB: It was very difficult at first. In fact I signed up with the Vietnamese ward, instead of the American ward.

BOB: But, what was the main reason for women wanting to go?

BOB: Basically the same reason as anybody else. They wanted to help out with the effort. Many of them had family over there, mostly brothers, sisters, even parents.

BOB: How at any question, what was the "typical day of any army nurse"?

BASKETBALL REVIEW

BY C.J. PAPA

WNYU Radio, 90.1 FM and 810 AM, hosted a successful campaign by producing 24 WNYU Varsity Basketball games during the 1986-87 season. Listeners in the five boroughs of the City, Long Island, Westchester and New Jersey were treated to 13 more games and six women's contests on the FM airwaves, which can be heard on the AM frequencies. The on-campus owners of 810 AM broadcasted five additional games to the students who could not get out to the Jerome S. Cooke Sports Center.

The WNYU men's team finished the season with a 27-11 record and gained a bid to the ECAC tournament. The Varsity made it through the playoffs to the quarter finals before being eliminated. Looking the way for the team was senior guard Terry Taylor. Taylor broke the 50-year old school scoring mark of 1,714 points held by Max Graham, and completed the year with 1,778.

The Lady Varsity advanced for the second year in a row to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Varsity were seeded fourth in the East Regional, which was played at the Cooke Sports Center. WNYU opened the women's regional semi-final game five, as they dropped a tough contest to the top-ranked team in New York State, St. John's Fisher. Lady Varsity, Chris Peterson, led the team to a 10-10 record.

Included in WNYU's 24 game package, a men's game between WNYU and Colgate University at Madison Square Garden on February 2 and seven road encounters throughout N.Y., N.J., and Mass.

The sports staff presented such guests on the Varsity "Highlight Show" as Newsday writer Tom Rames, New York Powers columnist Pete Grazia, WNYU Chancellor L. Jay Chao, and assistant Athletics Director Barry Rosenberg. WNYU: The name of the WNYU colors.
