Paper-Making Through Eighteen Centuries

Dard Hunter, 1993-03-01 Bonded Leather binding Harold Innis's History of Communications William J. Buxton, Michael R. Cheney, Paul Heyer, 2014-12-18 For decades media historians have heard of Harold Innis's unpublished manuscript exploring the history of communications but very few have had an opportunity to see it. In this volume editors and Innis scholars William J. Buxton, Michael R. Cheney, and Paul Heyer make widely accessible for the first time three core chapters from the legendary Innis manuscript. Here Innis 1894-1952 examines the development of paper and printing from antiquity in Asia through to 16th century Europe. He demonstrates how the paper printing nexus intersected with a broad range of other phenomena including administrative structures, geopolitics, militarism, public opinion, aesthetics, cultural diffusion, religion, education, reception, production processes, technology, labor relations, and commerce, as well as the lives of visionary figures. Buxton, Cheney, and Heyer knit the chapters into a cohesive narrative and help readers navigate Innis's observations by summarizing the heavily detailed factual material that peppered the unpublished manuscript. They provide further context for Innis's arguments by adding annotations, references, and pertinent citations to his other writings. The end result is both a testament to Innis's status as a canonical figure in the study of communication and a surprisingly relevant contribution to how we might think about the current sea change in all aspects of social, cultural, political, and economic life stemming from the global shift to digital communication.

Handbook of Pulping and Papermaking Christopher J. Biermann, 1996-08-01 In its Second Edition, Handbook of Pulping and Papermaking is a comprehensive reference for industry and academia. The book offers a concise yet thorough introduction to the process of papermaking, from the production of wood chips to the final testing and use of the paper product. The author has updated the extensive bibliography, providing the reader with easy access to the pulp and paper literature. The book emphasizes principles and concepts behind papermaking, detailing both the physical and chemical processes. A comprehensive introduction to the physical and chemical processes in pulping and papermaking. Contains an extensive annotated bibliography. Includes 12 pages of color plates.

Papermaking and the Art of Watercolor in Eighteenth-century Britain Theresa Fairbanks, Scott Wilcox, 2006 Publisher description Studies on the History of Papermaking in Britain Alfred H. Shorter, 2024-08-07 The late A. H. Shorter is widely acknowledged for his pioneering work on the history of the British paper-making industry, and his books continue to provide the basis for further research. The present volume brings together all his many articles hitherto scattered across a variety of specialist publications and often virtually inaccessible. In these studies, Dr Shorter tackled the subject with a broader scope than was possible in his books; in particular, they cover the period after 1800, tracing the changing geographical pattern of the industry. They also contain a wealth of detailed information on papermaking across Britain, notably in the counties of southwest England that is impossible to find elsewhere and is now made accessible through the comprehensive indexes to the volume.

Le regretté A H Shorter est largement reconnu pour ses travaux originaux sur l'histoire de l'industrie papetière britannique et ses ouvrages continuent d'être la base de toutes recherches supplémentaires. Le présent volume rassemble la totalité de ses nombreux articles jusqu'à présent dispersés sur tout un éventail de publications spécialisées et bien trop souvent inaccessibles. À travers de ces études, l'auteur s'attaque au sujet sur un rayon plus large que cela n'avait été possible dans ses livres couvrant en particulier la période après 1800 et traitant la structure géographique de l'industrie. Le recueil contient aussi abondamment d'informations détaillées sur la fabrication du papier partout en Grande Bretagne, notamment dans les comtés du sud-ouest de l'Angleterre et qu'il est impossible de trouver ailleurs.

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature:

Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to reshape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries.

Scribes, Script, and Books Leila Avrin, 2010 In this detailed overview of the history of the handmade book, Avrin looks at the development of scripts and styles of illumination, the making of manuscripts and the technological processes involved in paper making and book binding. Readers will have a greater understanding of ancient books and texts with more than 300 plates and illustrations. Examples of the different forms of writing from ancient times to the printing press. Coverage of cultural and religious books. Full bibliography. Reference librarians and educators will find this resource indispensable.

Papermaking Dard Hunter, 1978-01-01 The classic work on papermaking, this book traces the craft's history from its invention in China to its introductions in Europe and America. The foremost authority on the subject covers tools and materials, hand moulds, pressing, drying and sizing, hand and machine made paper, watermarking and more. Over 320 illustrations. Reprint of the second revised and enlarged 1947 edition. "From a Sacred Source" Ben Outhwaite, Siam Bhayro, 2010-09-24 These papers on the medieval manuscripts of the Cairo Geniza are in honour of Stefan Reif, Professor of Medieval Hebrew at Cambridge University on the occasion of his retirement after thirty-three years as director of the Geniza Research Unit.
