Revue d'histoire littéraire de la France Maurice Tourneux,2001 The Mother in/and French Literature ,2021-11-22

The essays in this volume investigate maternity and the figure of the mother in French literature from France Switzerland Quebec and Africa from the seventeenth century to the present Drawing on cultural history psychoanalysis and feminist theory as well as more traditional methods they present maternity as a source of frustration and of joy mothers as repressed and revered daughters as wounded and loving sons as domineering and dependent Indeed few things are simple where mothers and especially where writing about mothers are concerned Magnificent Obsessions Jean Fornasiero,Rosemary Lloyd,2014-08-11 This volume is a tribute to the life and work of Hazel Rowley internationally acclaimed biographer who died unexpectedly in March 2011 Her passions were many and varied biography politics questions of race and sexuality the ways in which couples negotiate the dilemmas posed by the need to retain their individuality while building a life as a couple the deleterious effects of imposing a corporate mentality on universities all these and more were subjects of intense interest to her This collection combines essays responding to many of those interests with creative writing to honour the complexity and variety of her own magnificent contribution Hazel Rowley whose life and work are honoured in this collection was the author of many articles and essays and four outstanding biographies Christina Stead A Biography Richard Wright The Life and Times T te T te Simone de Beauvoir and Jean Paul Sartre and Franklin and Eleanor An Extraordinary Marriage Distant Lands and Diverse Cultures Glenn J. Ames,Ronald S. Love,2003-07-30 Utilizing contemporary accounts of India China Siam and the Levant this study provides rich detail about these exotic lands and explores the priorities that shaped and motivated these bold envoys and chroniclers Ames and Love offer a fascinating look at the symbiotic nature of cross cultural interaction between France and the major trading regions of the Indian Ocean basin during the 17th century During this period of intense French interest in the rich trade and cultures of the region Louis XIV and his minister Jean Baptiste Colbert in particular were concerned with encouraging French travelers both clerical and lay to explore and document these lands Among the accounts included here are those of Fran ois Bernier Jean Baptiste Tavernier and Fran ois Pyrard Because these accounts reflect as much about the structures and priorities of France as they do about the cultures they describe Ames and Love hope their analysis bridges the gap between studies on early modern France and those on the major Asiatic countries of the same period Their findings challenge the current thinking in the study of early modern France by demonstrating that overseas expansion to Asia was of considerable importance and interest to all segments of French society Specialists in traditional internal French history will find much in this study of European expansion to complement and supplement their research African American Literature in Transition, 1920-1930: Volume 9 Miriam Thaggert,Rachel Farebrother,2022-04-07 This book analyses historical literary and cultural shifts in African American literature from the 1920s 1930s Antebellum American Pendant Paintings Wendy N. E. Ikemoto,2017-07-06 Antebellum American Pendant

Paintings New Ways of Looking marks the first sustained study of pendant paintings discrete images designed as a pair It opens with a broad overview that anchors the form in the medieval diptych religious history and aesthetic theory and explores its cultural and historical resonance in the 19th century United States Three case studies examine how antebellum American artists used the pendant format in ways revelatory of their historical moment and the aesthetic and cultural developments in which they partook The case studies on John Quidor s Rip Van Winkle and His Companions at the Inn Door of Nicholas Vedder 1839 and The Return of Rip Van Winkle 1849 and Thomas Cole s Departure and Return 1837 shed new light on canonical antebellum American artists and their practices The chapter on Titian Ramsay Peale s Kilauea by Day and Kilauea by Night 1842 presents new material that pushes the geographical boundaries of American art studies toward the Pacific Rim The book contributes to American art history the study of a characteristic but as yet overlooked format and models for the discipline a new and productive framework of analysis focused on the fundamental yet complex way images work back and forth with one another Index of Conference Proceedings British Library. The Athenaeum ,1909 Interpreting Social Violence in French Culture Cynthia A. Bouton, 2011 In January 1847 a grain convoy passed through Buzan ais an obscure village in a remote region of central France that was suffering from hunger high prices and widespread unemployment Villagers intercepted the shipment invaded granaries and mills and forced resale of the grain at a just price set by the people What started as a classic subsistence movement however triggered two days of rioting and class hostility punctuated by uncommon property damage and death Disorder soon spread throughout the region The Buzan ais riot quickly became an evocative symbol of the rights of the people and stories about the riot have survived into the twenty first century In Interpreting Social Violence in French Culture Cynthia A Bouton traces how the production and marketing of the Buzan ais riot story served political commentators publishers authors illustrators and local enthusiasts enabling them to draw upon key points from the 1847 uprising to negotiate issues relevant to their own times Bouton argues that over time especially from the 1970s the persistent integration of stories of social protest into a widening variety of media has helped shape French political identity as one in which the politics of the street has become as customary as the politics of political assemblies Bouton examines representations of the riot in newspapers novels illustrations popular and scholarly historical narratives cartoons television local spectacles and on the Internet She analyzes power relations embedded in texts and in images the ways in which texts and images complement complicate and contradict each other and the ways in which history memory and fiction intersect Both in 1847 and subsequently she shows efforts to reorder the disorder at Buzan ais have exposed aspects of French social and cultural attitudes and practices She demonstrates that the particular media employed to tell the Buzan ais story both constrained and empowered the messages conveyed by textual and visual narratives of it perhaps as much as the ideological positions of authors illustrators or producers By probing the relationship between medium and story in relation to the Buzan ais riot Interpreting Social Violence in French Culture offers
