Management System Exempt from Power C. Bourion, 2006-02-28 The author argues that power in organizations has negative and counter productive effects management should be based on self guidance and maximizing each individual s creative resources Arguing that managers should focus on developing efficiency empathy and imagination this includes questionnaires so readers can assess their management approach Evaluation in Education Bruce H. Choppin, T. Neville Postlethwaite, 2014-05-19 Evaluation in Education Volume 1 is a series of monographs that compiles various studies that cover the methodologies and techniques utilized in evaluating student performance in various educational systems The first material is a comparative study of the differences in the achievement of overtime between ethnic groups in Israeli elementary school Next the book presents a paper about defining educational objectives The next study discusses the various aspects of a multiple choice type of test The last article tackles the impact of success and failure on the learner The text will be of great use to individuals involved in the development and implementation of student evaluation related policies in
