Para El Perfil Definitivo Del Hombre:

Trans-Americanity José David Saldívar, 2012 In this book the author critiques the work of various writers within the framework of a globalized study of the Americas

Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process

Local Histories/Global Designs Walter D. Mignolo, 2000-02-06 This book is an extended argument on the coloniality of power by one of the most innovative scholars of Latin American studies In a shrinking world where sharp dichotomies such as East West and developing developed blur and shift Walter Mignolo points to the inadequacy of current practice in the social sciences and area studies He introduces the crucial notion of colonial difference into study of the modern colonial world He also traces the emergence of new forms of knowledge which he calls border thinking Further he expands the horizons of those debates already under way in postcolonial studies of Asia and Africa by dwelling in the genealogy of thoughts of South Central America the Caribbean and Latino as in the United States His concept of border gnosis or what is known from the perspective of an empire s borderlands counters the tendency of occidental perspectives to dominate and thus limit understanding The book is divided into three parts the first chapter deals with epistemology and postcoloniality the next three chapters deal with the geopolitics of knowledge the last three deal with the languages and cultures of scholarship Here the author reintroduces the analysis of civilization from the perspective of globalization and argues that rather than one civilizing process dominated by the West the continually emerging subaltern voices break down the dichotomies characteristic of any cultural imperialism By underscoring the fractures between globalization and mundializacion Mignolo shows the locations of emerging border epistemologies and of post occidental reason In a new preface that discusses Local Histories Global Designs as a dialogue with Hegel's Philosophy of History Mignolo connects his argument with the unfolding of history in the first decade of the twenty first century The Logic of Fetishism James J. Pancrazio, 2004 Cuban author Alejo Carpentier 1904-1980 was a key figure in the foundation of contemporary Latin American fiction By taking a critical position vis a vis the restitutionary current in Latin American studies James Pancrazio provides a highly innovative re-reading of Carpentier's work Local Histories/Global Designs Walter D. Cuba and Western Intellectuals since 1959 K. Artaraz,2009-01-05 This timely book presents a history of the relationship between the Cuban Revolution and intellectuals and activists in France Britain and the United States exploring the complete cycle in this relationship and using it to examine the future of Cuba s symbolic status among intellectuals and activists in the West Critique of Latin American Reason Santiago Castro-Gómez, 2021-09-21 Critique of Latin American Reason is one of the most important philosophical texts to have come out of South America in recent decades First published in 1996 it offers a sweeping critique of the foundational schools of thought in Latin American philosophy and critical theory Santiago Castro G mez argues that Latin America is not so much a geographical entity a culture or a place but rather an object of knowledge produced by a family of discourses in the humanities that are inseparably linked to colonial power relationships Using the archaeological and genealogical methods of Michel Foucault he analyzes the political literary and philosophical discourses and modes of power that have contributed to the making of Latin America Castro G mez examines the views of a wide range of Latin American thinkers on modernity postmodernity identity colonial history and literature also considering how these questions have intersected with popular culture His critique spans Central and South America and it also implicates broader and protracted global processes This book presents this groundbreaking work of contemporary critical theory in English translation for the first time It features a foreword by Linda Mart n Alcoff a new preface by the author and an introduction by Eduardo Mendieta situating Castro G mez s thought in the context of critical theory in Latin America and the Global South Two appendixes feature an interview with Castro G mez that sheds light on the book s composition and short provocations responding to each chapter from a multidisciplinary forum of contemporary scholars who resituate the work within a range of perspectives including feminist Francophone African and decolonial Black political thought Sub-versions of the Archive Carlos Riobó, 2010-12-29 Sub Versions of the Archive Manuel Puig s and Severo Sarduy s Alternative Identities analyzes recent theories of the archive to examine how Manuel Puig and Severo Sarduy reformulate the Latin American literary tradition This study focuses on eclectic theories of the archive as both repository and danger drawing from an array of sources both within and outside the Hispanic literary tradition from Borges Foucault Arrom Derrida Gonz lez Echevarra and Guillory to digital media and biotechnology This book also applies theories of cultural contamination Maria Lugones and symbolic capital Pierre Bourdieu to the novels of Puig and Sarduy to explore the representation of marginal cultures within a body of literature that previously altered or elided these subaltern cultures from the tradition Through close readings and critical theoretical applications this book demonstrates how archival fiction continues to be one of the most popular strategies among Latin American novelists and most importantly how they have successfully managed to find new ways to inscribe their alternative fictions within this tradition Puig s and Sarduy s novels reproduce discourses popular culture and the mass media that lack prestige within the traditional archive These discourses mirror realities of marginal groups gay people children the poor the illiterate women and racial minorities Their cultural variants sub versions of hegemonic masterstories are endowed with truth bearing power for them but were previously left out of the archive as legitimate novelistic models To date this is the only study of contemporary Latin American fiction that puts current theories of the archive especially that of Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra to practice in such a systematic way Riob s analysis of how Puig and Sarduy reformulate the Latin American canon is both a necessary complement of Gonz lez Echevarra s work and an intelligent answer to the first of his projected masterstories Riob s multidisciplinary approach Cronología del siglo XX Jorge Enrique Adoum,2000* Crítica de la razón latinoamericana Santiago Castro-Gómez,2015-03-16 Este libro fue publicado en 1996 y es un clásico de los estudios latinoamericanos El autor hace un análisis de las posturas modernas y posmodernas frente a temas que atraviesan el continente como la identidad la herencia colonial y la cultura popular Además hace un recuento de los primeros pensadores que desde México aportaron al campo en la primera mitad del siglo XX La segunda edición publicada por la Editorial Pontificia Universidad Javeriana en el 2011 trae también una entrevista con el autor
